Enjoyable Gathering

The annual social gathering of the members of Saugeen Lodge No. 327, I. O. O. F., with their families and friends on Friday evening last was one of the most successful in the history of the society.

Under the direction of Mr. W. S. Perkins, the Noble Grand, ample provision had been made and a sumptuous fowl supper was served. This was provided by the wives and mothers of the members of the lodge. After the supper a short program was presented over by Mr. Harry Shaw, one of the older members of the lodge. The numbers included a duet by Misses Margaret Perkins and Greta Elliott; two readings by W. J. Howard; a vocal solo by Mrs. Jack Perkins; a cornet solo by Mr. Jack Perkins; a vocal duet by Mrs. Perkins and Mr. J. H. Dundas. The latter also acted as piano accompanist. Hon. I. B. Lucas, the only charter member of the lodge continuing in membership, gave an address which was much enjoyed and appreciated. Dancing was the last item on the evening's program. It was a most enjoyable affair and was voted by all as the best yet.

New England W. I.

The November meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Elvin Sewell on Thursday, Nov. 24th. The meeting opened by singing the Ode and repeating the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Harry Cherry read the Scripture reading, taking Deborah for her homemaker. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. It was decided to have a social evening at the church on Thursday, Dec. 29th. The program committee is to be Mrs. M. Devitt, Mrs. A. Thompson and Mrs. R. Favcett. A lunch will be served and a silver collection taken.

The collection of clothing was given to Mrs. S. Wiley to pack. The ladies finished the quilt and it is to be put in the box also. It was decided to remember the aged and shut-ins at Christmas time as usual.

No. 17 on the sheet was then sung. A reading by Grace Boyle, "Get together" and one on "Motherhood" read by Hazel Favcett were sent in by Mrs. Robt. Clark. Mrs. A. Thompson gave a demonstration on icing a cake. Lunch was prepared by Mrs. C. Risk and Mrs. N. Wilcox. There were nine members, six visitors and seven children present. Collection was 50 cents.

Presentation

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harper Breadner was besieged by friends and neighbors numbering about one hundred on Thursday evening last, when a miscellaneous shower was held in honor of their youngest daughter Wilda whose marriage took place recently.

The evening was spent in cards and dancing. At midnight the bride and groom were asked to take the chairs of honor, when two most fitting addresses were read by Mildred Cullis. The first address was signed on behalf of the Presbyterian C.G.I.T. of which the bride was a very faithful member. While this address was being read a very pretty amber colored cake plate was presented to the bride. An overflowing basket of beautiful gifts was then presented by William Stoddart and John Sands. After a shower of confetti the groom fittingly responded. Everyone then sang "For they are jolly good fellows." A most enjoyable lunch was served and dancing continued until the wee small hours of the morning.

Following are the addresses:
Markdale, Nov. 24th, 1932.

Dear Wilda,—
We, the members of C.G.I.T. felt we could not let this opportunity pass, you being a valued member, without showing the high esteem in which you were held by our group. We first offer our congratulations and good wishes for a long and happy wedded life. May prosperity be yours as you journey along through life. However we hope you will remain with us to enjoy our social gatherings and help on with our work.

We therefore ask you to accept this small token of remembrance and when you use it may it remind you of the pleasant evenings we spent together.

Signed on behalf of
C. G. I. T.
Markdale, Nov. 24th, 1932.

Dear Wilda and Stewart,—
We, your neighbors and well wishers take this opportunity of coming here this evening to present to you our heartiest congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

It has been our privilege Wilda, to prize your acquaintance since your girlhood and we are delighted to know that you have chosen a life partner and are still to be one of us.

Stewart, we wish to welcome you to our community. We feel certain as a friend we will find you one of the best and as a husband you will shine in your own true sphere.

Therefore to put our good wishes into materialistic form we ask you to accept this miscellaneous shower as a token of the high esteem in which you are held.

May God surround you always with His choicest gifts.

Signed on behalf of your neighbors and friends,
W. E. Stoddart
John Sands

Shower

The Ladies Aid of St. John's United Church held their meeting at the home of Mrs. George Boyes, St. Vincent, on Thursday, Nov. 24, 1932. After the meeting the bride, Mrs. Edwin Boyes, (nee Alice Smart) was asked to take the chair of honor, and was then presented with many and useful gifts to which she fittingly responded. Everyone then sang "For they are both Jolly Good Fellows," also "Now She's Smiling."

Meaford, Ont.
Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Boyes.

Dear Friends:
We would like to take this opportunity to extend our best wishes and congratulations to you on the occasion of your recent marriage. We hope that your wedded life may be long and happy.

We are glad Ed. that you are still going to make your home amongst us, and we heartily welcome you, Mrs. Boyes, to our community. We hope you will find many friends here and that you will both live to celebrate your golden wedding.

Please accept these little gifts with our best wishes for your wedded life.

On behalf of the community of St. John's United Church:
The Ladies' Aid.
