

Eugenia

Miss Sinclair, 8th line teacher, and pupils are preparing for their school concert to be held on Tuesday evening, Dec. 20th.

Little Dannie McTavish of Flesheron visited one day recently with his uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Jake Williams. We think Dannie has a notion to follow in his uncle Jake's footsteps and he was quite interested in looking through the blacksmith shop.

Dr. A. E. and Mrs. Little have taken up residence in apartments in Mr. W. Duckett's house. We are pleased to have them in the village again.

Master Argyle Martin of Flesheron spent the week-end at his parental home here.

Mrs. J. L. Wood of Mimico visited for a few days with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wm. J. Magee.

Miss Lucy MacDonald visited over the week-end at Ceylon with her friend, Miss Dorothy Snell.

Mr. Kimmberley has returned to Watertown, N.Y., after spending a few days with his wife and family here.

Mr. Walker Sloan has returned home after spending the past month or so engaged at the C.N.R. station at Key Harbour.

Mrs. Jacob Williams has returned from Toronto, where she spent the past week or so.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Genoe and family visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Genoe of Ceylon.

Mr. Nell MacDonald spent a few days visiting his brothers, Sam in Toronto and John at Coderington.

Mrs. Ed. Hillock of Maxwell spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Dave Genoe. Mrs. Genoe, who had an operation a few weeks ago for gottle has not been feeling very well but we trust that her good health will soon be restored to her.

Mrs. W. J. Magee visited recently with her cousin, Mrs. J. Wright in Flesheron.

Mr. Bert Kerton of Feversham spent a few days with his friend, Mr. Ken. Kaitling.

Mr. Wesley Cooley has gone to London to visit his brother.

Mr. Chas. Williams is suffering from an attack of blood poison in his hand. Hope he is soon well again.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Partridge of Rock Mills visited with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Cameron and baby son Burton of Gibraltar visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hanley.

Colds are prevalent in this vicinity.

Mr. Garnet Magee, 8th line, is trying for the Reeveship this year. He ought to meet with success as he has been in the council for a number of years and has held the Reeveship since Mr. Cameron secured the office of Treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hanley visited recently with Mrs. Hanley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. McMaster, Wareham.

Miss Patricia Morgan of S. S. No. 3, Osprey was home over the week-end but has been laid up with the cold and was unable to return to her school on Monday.

The Eugenia Young People went to Wareham Friday night and presented their play in the church there. They received a warm welcome and after the presentation of the play received a delicious lunch. They thank the Wareham people heartily for their kindness.

The late Mr. Wallie Williams
We were sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Wallace Walton Williams (better known as Wallie) which occurred at his home at 231, 1st Ave., Toronto on Nov. 17th. His death was due to a lingering illness of stomach trouble from which he suffered for some time. He was born in Eugenia 64 years ago last April. Mr. Williams had been employed for a number of years in the Post Office department of the Union Station in Toronto and just gave up his work a year or so ago. The funeral took place on Nov. 19th from Brown's Chapel, Danforth Ave. His pastor, Rev. Parks of the Baptist Church (of which the whole family are members) preached a very comforting sermon, taking his text from John, chap. 14 and reading Psalm 90—"Let not your heart be troubled, etc." Interment was made in St. John's Cemetery, Kingston Road. The many floral tributes that lay upon the casket were beautiful, expressing sympathy and devotion. The pallbearers were: Messrs. John and Jacob Williams, Will Campbell, Geo. Williams, Arthur and Clifford Williams. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, four daughters and four sons, Pearl (Mrs. Frank Lowther), Elsie (Mrs. Will Gingsby), Lottie, (Mrs. Thab), Helen (Mrs. Reid), Arthur, Clifford, Robt. and Eddie, all in Toronto. He also leaves four brothers and one sister, Henry, John, Joseph and Jacob of Eugenia and Mrs. Pooley of Toronto.

We extend our sympathy to the relatives left in sad bereavement.

Presentation
A large number of friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. Thos. Rowe on Wednesday evening to spend a few hours in a social way with his daughter Isabell, Mrs. A. R. McConnell and her husband. At midnight Miss Ruby Stafford read a presentation as follows:
Berkeley, Nov. 23rd, 1932.

Dear Isabell and Mack:
On learning of your plunge into the matrimonial sea, we, your friends and neighbours have gathered here to express our good wishes and to spend a few social hours with you.

You, Isabell, have always been ready with a helping hand for everything that was for the welfare of the community and glad to know you are not leaving us and we extend a hearty welcome to Mack.

As a token of esteem we ask you to accept this dinner service for twelve. It may seem a large number of pieces for two but as the family grows you will find it none too many.

Signed on behalf of Berkeley and community: Ruby Stafford, Elsie Caswell, Bert Foster, Joe Middleton.

Mr. McConnell replied and thanked all for the lovely dinner set and several other gifts. All joined in singing, "For they are jolly good fellows."

Presentation

A large crowd of friends and neighbours, numbering around one hundred, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Boyes, St. Vincent, on Tuesday evening, Nov. 22, in honour of their son who was recently married.

The evening was spent in conversation and dancing, and about midnight the bride and groom were asked to take the chairs of honour and were presented with a handsome chair and fernery.

Meaford, Nov. 22nd, 1932.

Dear Alice and Edwin:
We your friends and neighbors take great pleasure in gathering here this evening to shower our best wishes upon you.

Edwin, we want to congratulate you upon having won such a fair bride and we wish to welcome her to our community.

You have joined the circle of homemakers, a circle which extends around the world and back again to the beginning of time, and we ask you to accept this chair and fernery, knowing that with it goes the good wishes of the community for a long life of happiness and prosperity in the new sphere which you have chosen.

Signed on behalf of the community: Harry Doherty, Robbie Boyd, Stanley Rumsby, Otto Ormsby, Clifford Ford.

The bride and groom in a few well chosen words expressed their appreciation of thanks after which all joined in singing "They are both Jolly Good Fellows." A dainty lunch was then served.
