

HARKAWAY

The Harkaway annual school meeting took place on Wednesday morning, Dec. 28th. Mr. John Smith was appointed chairman. The usual business was transacted. Mr. Will Halbert was re-elected trustee for another three years. Mr. A. Barry was appointed trustee to finish out Robt. Smith's term. Mr. C. Thompson is the caretaker and Mr. T. Hines to supply the wood.

Miss Isobel Torrie of Markdale spent the Christmas holidays with her sister Mrs. Lloyd Lyons.

Mr. Herb. Patton and Mr. T. Kidd and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLaughlin attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Conley at Meaford on Saturday afternoon.

Misses Katharine Morrison, Mabel Wise and Ina Thompson, Jean Summers, Leona Johnston and Mildred Rae received each a solid walnut nut bowl the past week for reciting the 13th chapter of Corinthians. The late Mr. Milne, who makes and donates these nut bowls, passed away recently in Toronto.

The ten pupils of the Harkaway United Church Sunday School who wrote in the Temperance Study Course sponsored by the Dominion W.C.T.U. the following six were successful in receiving cash prizes and certificates, namely: Junior, Shirley McLaughlin, Marshal McLaughlin, Edna Summers and Russell Johnston; sub-juniors, Jean Summers and Leona Johnston. Much credit and thanks is due Mr. T. H. Richardson, the Sunday School superintendent, for his donation to each boy and girl who wrote and to the Markdale W.C.T.U. for their prizes and certificates.

Friday evening visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Menary were Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLaughlin and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rae and family entertained several of their neighbors on Friday evening.

The January meeting of the W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. D. L. Binns on Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 4. The president, Mrs. Lawson was in charge. The meeting opened with hymn 305, "Standing at the portal of the opening year" followed by the Theme prayer and Lord's prayer in unison. Scripture reading taken from Luke 12: 15-32. Roll call answered by eight members and six visitors. Mrs. Lloyd McLaughlin gave a reading on "The Kingdom of God Movement." Excuses for not being active in work for missions was led by Mrs. C. Thompson and the answers given by the ladies present. The Cradle Roll Superintendent, Mrs. W. J. Lyons handed in $1.20. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Rev. and Mrs. Wakefield and Mrs. Laycock for their generous donations to the society. Rev. Mr. Laycock lead in prayer.

Mrs. A. A. Lyons was appointed Temperance secretary. A motion was passed that we do not take money out of funds to buy flowers this year.—Carried. Place of meeting to be settled on later. Word "Throne". The meeting closed with the watchword. The hostess, assisted by several of the ladies present, served a very dainty lunch when a pleasant social hour was spent by all. Tea money $1.25.

The friends in this vicinity were sorry to learn of the death of the late Mrs. Wm. Conley of Meaford on Thursday morning last. The late Mrs. Conley had been ill for five weeks but passed away very suddenly on Wednesday night. We extend our sincere sympathy to Mr. Conley and the family in their loss.

Last Tuesday evening visitors with Mr. and Mrs. T. Kidd were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lyons and Audrey, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Burnett and Mrs. L. Johnston.

We are sorry to report Mrs. M. Patton ill with the cold, but hope she may soon be able to be up and around again. Her daughter, Mrs. C. Wright is nursing her.

PROTON STATION

The sad news reached the village early Wednesday morning of the death of Mrs. Ernest Stinson, Victoria Corners. She was beloved by everyone. She leaves to mourn, besides her husband, two little daughters, Marie and Anna, as well as her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson; two brothers and one sister, Miss Jean Richardson, teacher at Toronto. The funeral was very largely attended on Friday from their home.

Mr. George Best, a near neighbor and friend, was buried a few days previous. Much sympathy is extended to all families.

Mrs. Peter Still and daughter Jean of Orangeville spent Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Bates.

Mr. and Mrs. Elzer Park and babe of Toronto returned to their home on Friday after a week's visit with the former's father and brother here.

We are glad to report that Mr. Herbert Corbett, who has been ill, is able to be around again.

Sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. Wm. Blackburn of Saugeen Junction.

Mr. Eddy Hemphill and friend, Miss Ella Vance of Dundalk Sundayed at the former's home here. Glad to report Mrs. Susan Ramsey is improving after over a month's illness at her home.

Mr. Clark Wyville is visiting with friends at Owen Sound.

Mr. Roy Herzog returned home Sunday after a visit with Chatsworth friends.

EUGENIA

On Sunday, Jan. 1st there were only twelve attendants and the minister, Rev. McNeil, at church. The small attendance was due to so many being on the sick list. Rev. McNeil took as his text verse 3, chap. 2, Hebrews, "How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation" and said we should use this text as a motto for the year. Last Sunday, 5th, the attendance was 200, what it was the previous Sunday. The minister read Psalm 1 and took his text from the Apostle Paul giving us clearly Christ's estimate of Paul. He preached an excellent sermon.

Mr. Bert Graham and Mr. John Park are working in the Graham bush near Duncan.

Born—On Saturday, Jan. 7th, to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Proctor, the gift of a son. Congratulations.

Mr. Wesley Cooley, who has spent some time in London and Kitchener has returned to this locality.

Nurse Burritt of Flesherton who has been with Mrs. Walker sr. for some time is now with Mrs. Ernie Proctor.

Glad to report little Douglas Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Turner, on the road to recovery after a severe attack of bronchitis which had turned to pneumonia. Nurse Thompson of Markdale and Dr. Milne are in attendance.

Nurse McCallum, who has been attending the Proctor family, who were ill with the flu, returned home Sunday to Flesherton.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Parker and children from near Feversham have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Shortt. Mr. Parker and Mr. Chas. Park carried the mail on the route during Mr. Shortt's illness last week.

Miss Josie Falconer of Flesherton spent the week-end with friends and acquaintances in the village.

Miss Helen Milligan of Durham, a former teacher of 8th line school, visited at the home of Mr. James Porteous recently.

Mr. Ray Wood, well-driller of Flesherton, repaired a well for Mr. Jacob Williams one day the past week. Ray does good work at reasonable prices. He is an expert at repair work. He is well experienced, having worked with the well-driller, Mr. Bellerby for a number of years.

The annual meeting of the congregation of the United Church was held on Wednesday afternoon of last week. There was only an attendance of eight due to so much illness in the community. The books will not be closed until Jan. 22nd then we will give full particulars. Miss Georgina acted as secretary and Rev. McNeil as chairman for the meeting.

Mr. Russell Cameron, M.A., B.A. has returned to Toronto University after spending the holidays at his parental home, 8th line.

Mrs. Cameron attended the funeral of her cousin, Mr. Geo. Best on Tuesday of last week.

BERKELEY

Mrs. A. Gillespie returned home on Saturday after visiting with relatives at Toronto and Richmond Hill.

Mrs. Lucas Welsh and son, Paul, of Peterborough are visiting with the former's father, Mr. J. S. Price.

Mrs. E. T. Walters visited with her daughter, Mrs. W. Flint, of Owen Sound for a few days last week.

The Ladies' Guild met on Thursday afternoon, January 5th, at the home of Mrs. Mitchell with ten members present. The Treasurer gave her report for the year and the other business matters were then attended to. Papers were read by Mrs. McLaughlin and Mrs. Beatty. The officers of last year were all re-elected: President, Mrs. E. Beatty; Vice-President, Mrs. Dodds; Secretary, Mrs. McLaughlin; Treasurer, Mrs. Sowerby. The February meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. G. Kinney. At the close of the meeting the hostess, assisted by her daughters, served a dainty lunch.

TEMPLE HILL

Mr. Orwell Boyd of Kimberley is spending a few days at his home here.

The Ladies' Aid and W.M.S. will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Hilliard Erskine on Tues. Jan. 17th. Please keep this date in mind.

Misses Muriel Erskine and Elfrida Wilkinson of Meaford High School spent the week-end at their parental homes here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Patton of Harkaway were recent visitors with friends in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. George Irwin and family of Riverdale were week-end visitors with Mrs. John Irwin.

UNION HILL

Mr. Ross, Derkins and Miss Anna Fredenburg of Warton spent the week-end with the former's aunt, Mrs. James McFadden.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eagles of Toronto spent New Years with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Eagles.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. John McDonald, who was taken to Markdale Hospital last week, has been removed to the home of her sister, Mrs. Oscar Trueman.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Miller and family of Flesherton visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Semple.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Eagles were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Balcombe at Hanover.

Mrs. Richard Miller is visiting with her son, Mr. Alex. Miller and family at Flesherton.

Cutting wood is the order of the day around here. Mr. Alf. Eagles held a successful bee last week and Mr. Wilson McMann is having one this week and also a butterfly whirl at night.

RIVERDALE

"Spring-time in the Rockies" seems to be the weatherman's favorite melody this year to date.

Mr. E. Abercrombie of Cherry Grove was a caller in this vicinity last week.

Mr. Daws of Markdale, the local representative of the Watkins Remedial Co., made his first trip to the vicinity last week.

Messrs L. Haines and R. Ward entertained a number of their good friends to a social evening last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Clark of Wodehouse visited friends in this vicinity on Monday.

Mrs. T. Wilson visited her parental home at Rosedale on the first of the week.

Miss Fanny Cowan, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. H. Chappell, of Meaford, attended the funeral of their uncle, Mr. Alex. Petch, at Grand Valley.

An item in Riverdale news last week reading, "Mrs. Alvin Thompson of Owen Sound", should have read Mrs. Alvin Thompson of Second Avenue East, Riverdale.

We congratulate the publishers of The Markdale Standard on their recent commendable accomplishment in reducing the subscription price of their up-to-date newspaper to one dollar a year. If the publishers of the city dailies would have such a heart in hard times it would be more conducive to relieving the depression than ballyhooing about better times are just around the corner.

EAST MOUNTAIN

Miss Ada McKenzie of Clarksburg spent a week with Mrs. C. H. Fawcett.

Misses Edith and Mabel Fawcett and Misses Alma and Ola Rawlings, all of Duncan, spent Tuesday with Mrs. I. Fawcett.

Mr. Alfred Graham spent the week-end with friends in Kimberley.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Betts and babe of Rock Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fawcett and children of Kimberley spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McMullen.
