Surviving are her husband, five sons and one daughter, namely: Clarence H., Dr. William D., Dr. John E. A., Franklyn B., Kenneth and Mrs. John G. Couthard, all in Toronto. One brother, J. W. Lyons of Lindsay, and two sisters, Miss M. A. Lyons and Mrs. J. H. White, also survive.

The funeral took place in Toronto on Monday and was attended by many former residents of this locality.

Mrs. Trelford was an active church worker, being a former member of the Methodist church here and since moving to Toronto one of the leading members of the Timothy Eaton Memorial church. Mr. Trelford and the family have the sympathy of many friends here in their bereavement.

RABBI'S LECTURE WAS INTERESTING AND INSTRUCTIVE

Rabbi Maurice N. Eisendrath of Toronto pleased the large audience which gathered in Annesley United Church on Tuesday evening to hear him in his popular lecture on "The Human Family." He is a pleasing speaker and handled his subject in a most interesting manner. In presenting his lecture the Rabbi gave much information regarding conditions in Europe and stressed particularly the menace to world peace should German Communists gain control and unite with Russia. Communism is nothing short of a dictatorship, which has proved so unsatisfactory wherever put in force. All classes, nations, peoples and religions are dependent on their neighbors and without co-operation no real success can be attained. "The Human Family" includes us all and we must not try to get along by denying to the other fellow that which we desire for ourselves.

Rev. H. S. Warren, pastor of the church, introduced the distinguished speaker and at the close Mr. M. Armstrong expressed the thanks of the congregation and Rev. Father Grace the appreciation of the citizens in general. It was an enjoyable and profitable evening.

The church choir led in singing and Messrs. G. A. Beaton and J. H. Dundas contributed an appropriate duet. Many were in attendance from outside points.
