Standard readers whose subscriptions expire at the end of March are reminded that the new price of $1.00 per year is strictly in advance. No papers are sent after the date subscription has expired. 25 cents will pay for three months.

Mearl Harmon of Port Elgin, arrested here a couple of weeks ago, was sentenced to twelve months in the Ontario Reformatory when convicted of issuing a forged cheque in the police court at Owen Sound on Tuesday. Harmon spent some time in this locality and it was while here he issued the cheque.

Hogs reached $5.40 per hundred on the local market on Tuesday. The upward trend of prices is encouraging and it is hoped that it may continue. There is not an over-supply of hogs in the country at the present time and those who are well stocked will be in luck. Advancing prices of live stock will benefit all classes.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Beard have moved from the old Murphy House to a flat in the Artley block. Mr. Anderson of Glenelg will occupy the premises vacated by the Beards. Mr. and Mrs. W. Parliament and Mr. Wm. Harris have moved to a farm near Hornings Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Alcox have moved to the Lyons flat.

Two interesting hockey matches were played at the local arena on Wednesday evening. Berkeley and Rocklyn went neck and neck to finish in a one-one score. The game between Proton and Chatsworth was a hotly contested affair and was won by the latter, the score being 4-2. Mr. J. C. Mercer handled both games in an efficient manner.

After passing accounts at the regular meeting of Markdale Council held Monday evening a resolution was passed protesting against the persecution of the Jews by the Hitler government in Germany. The Council gave formal expression of their sympathy with Mr. Rusk in the serious illness of his mother and expressed a hope for her early recovery. It was decided to add five per cent. to all taxes remaining unpaid at April 30th. Those in arrears should make arrangements to pay in the meantime.

A proposal for the formation of a baseball league to include teams from Kimberley, Dundalk, Flesher-ton and Markdale comes from Thornbury. The proposal is a good one and should receive the support of the people in the centres concerned. We believe that none of the places are blessed with first class twirlers but pitchers could be developed and in the meantime considerable interest could be worked up. Markdale has not had a ball team for several years but there is fair material in sight for a squad. Nearly $60.00 is on deposit in one of the local banks since the last ball-team performed and this would help considerably in procuring the outfit necessary. How about calling a meeting of those interested?

CARD OF THANKS

BROUGHT HIGH PRICE

Horses seem to be moving fairly swiftly in this district this year, as quite a number of deals have been made. Last week Mr. Robert Cullen sold to B. H. Beaver, through Geo. Duncan, a fine team of Belgians 9 years old, weight 3350 pounds and the reported price is $325. At present there seems to be quite a demand for young horses and teams.—The Flesher-ton Advance.

WILLIAMSFORD

The Women's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Collins on March 17, with an attendance of 13 ladies. The president, Mrs. Collins, presided during the opening. The Scripture reading from Psalm 24 was read by Mrs. Heft. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Greig and Mrs. Aitchison read a chapter from the study book of Mary Slessor. Mrs. Greig also read a letter from Dr. O'Hara's book. The meeting closed by singing part of the Hymn, "Abide with me", and The Lord's Prayer repeated in unison. Mrs. Collins served refreshments and was assisted by Jessie McIntosh and Stella Davidson. Mrs. Stafford invited the ladies to her home for the April meeting which is to be a quilting for the fall ball.

Mrs. Fredrika Schoemaker was honored on her 92nd birthday at the meeting of the Ladies' Aid which was held at the home of Mrs. Herman Heft on Tuesday, March 14th. After the usual opening she was presented with a German Service Book, which she appreciated very much. During the singing of a favourite hymn the candles on the birthday cake were lit. Two appropriate readings were given by Mrs. Nuhn and an organ instrumental by Mrs. L. Kuglin.

Lenten Services are being held in St. James' Lutheran Church each Wednesday afternoon.

The Young People's Society held their regular meeting on Monday evening in the Presbyterian Church. The first vice-president, Irene Stafford, presided. Scripture lesson was read by Wallace McClure and Reta Sautler led in Prayer. Jessie McIntosh gave a very interesting reading. The topic, on Stephen Leacock by a Canadian author, was taken by Campbell McLean. Rev. Greig brought the meeting to a close with the Benediction.

The Williamsford Women's Institute held a very enjoyable social evening on Friday, March 17th. Mr. Wm. Davidson acted as chairman for the very interesting program. The first number was community singing, "It's a good time to get acquainted." Other numbers included a piano selection by Miss Edna Miller; a reading by Mrs. McIntosh, "We all know about the depression"; a violin selection by the Butterman Bros.; a duet by Master Bruce Wilson and Matthew Lueck, which all enjoyed very much; a solo by Mr. D. McGrath; a reading by Mrs. Collins about the 17th of Ould Ireland; a solo by Elsie Douglas; a piano selection by Esther Rossman; a duet by Mrs. L. Kuglin and Mrs. D. Nuhn; another solo by Mr. D. McGrath; another duet by Master Bruce Wilson and Lueck; and more community singing. The entertainment was brought to a close by singing "God save the King", followed by refreshments. Butterman Bros. provided music for the dance which concluded the evening.

Mr. Nathan Woods had the misfortune to fall at Krause's mill and out his head, which required three stitches to close.

MISS M'PHAIL'S LETTER

Once more the budget has been presented to the House of Commons and like most budgets it has some encouraging and some discouraging features. The income tax was increased but the increase on smaller incomes was much greater than on large incomes. A correspondent for the Ottawa Citizen worked it out; on a $2500 income there is an increase of 650 percent over last year, while on a million dollar income the increase is but 10 percent.

Soldiers receiving a pension, who are employed by the government, will, according to the budget as at present written, lose their pension while thus employed. It is said that the Minister of Pensions and the Minister of National Defence did not know that this matter was being dealt with in the budget until they heard it read in the House. The soldiers are very much incensed and little wonder. The budget speech assured all and sundry that in the case of a conversion loan, contractual obligations made some years ago, would be respected. It should not then contractual obligations made with soldiers be respected? It is true there are a few cases of returned men receiving large salaries who also have a pension; in such cases there could be no objection to the discontinuing of pension payment during the time the pensioner received a substantial salary. But the legislation as it stands is grossly unfair to the men physically wrecked in the Great War. A very large sum of money is being spent this year on the non-permanent force (volunteers); it would be much more humane and sensible to use this money for the continuing of pensions to the deserving and needy.

The corporation income tax rates were increased to 12 1/2 percent and exemptions removed. A tax of five percent was levied on interest collected in foreign currency on Canadian bonds, when that currency is at a premium in Canada, the tax becoming effective on April 1st. A five percent tax is to be collected also on all interest or dividends paid by Canadian debtors to non-residents. The sales tax remains at 6 percent but the exemptions are fewer. A special tax of 2c-a pound was levied on sugar. Excise tax will in future be applied to automobile tires and tubes at 5 percent; toilet articles and preparations, 10 percent. Excise taxes will also be applied to materials used in the brewing of beer, papers and fillers used in the roll-your-own cigarettes (I should judge at the instigation of the cigarette manufacturers), distilled spirits used in medicines, perfumes, extracts, etc., and proof spirits used in fortifying native wine. The stamp tax of 3c is now applicable to cheques of any amount and the tax on postal notes is increased from 1c to 3c. There was little change in the tariff. The total deficit in the budget is $156,122,000.

A Royal Commission is to be appointed to study the organization and working of our entire banking and monetary system. If the commission is a good one and the examination thorough, the results will be very beneficial to Canadians generally.

The plight of the farmer, so often advanced by us in the House and in the country, has been acknowledged by the stabilization of farm products clause in the budget. It is not at all what we wanted. We wanted Canadian money brought to a parity with the pound sterling, which would automatically raise the prices of farm products, increase the purchasing power of the farming community and in this way help lift the country out of the economic bog in which it is at present mired. By the plan proposed the British £ is to be valued at $4.60 when the sale of certain farm products is considered, that is it is a bonus the amount of which is found by subtracting the day to day value of the pound from $4.60. The scheme is designed to help those exporting live cattle, hogs, bacon, hams, meats, poultry, fresh and canned fish, tobacco, cheese, milk products, canned fruit and vegetables, maple products, eggs and honey. But will it?

It will certainly automatically assist those who sell the products named and if the farmers had great co-operatives which handled and processed their own products, the benefit would accrue to the producer directly. As it is there will be a time lag at least and only experience will show whether or not it benefits the farmer.

At best, the bonus will be paid out of taxation, which works out to mean that the producers will pay heavier taxes in order to pay some of themselves a bonus. Controlled inflation would have meant that the government put new money into circulation. We have much too little money in circulation for the goods and services we require to distribute. The budget is altogether a deflationary one—higher taxes resulting in less revenue but decreased purchasing power on the part of the people, elapsed expenditures again resulting in lower wages and less purchasing power, while the expenditures of the individual, the municipality, corporation and even the province, must be kept within the bounds of income, or anticipated income, the Federal government is not governed by the same conditions. The Federal government can make the money needed, engrave it, print it, what you will, and it is now clear that the sovereign right of the state to create money must be utilized for the benefit of the people. G. D. H. Cole, of Great Britain, states it thus: "Where the private investor or refuses to invest, governments will have to step in." Stuart Chase, the noted American writer and economist, says: "The depression could be broken by feeding huge streams of new purchasing power into the industrial system. . . . If you want to call it inflation all right, I am not afraid of the word."

Mr. Coote put the matter very clearly before the House, as follows: "At a time like this we cannot rely any longer upon private initiative to put money into circulation. That means that the government must act and in this instance I refer to the Federal government which has control of the economic forces determining employment, etc. It has full control of finance, banking, currency and credit. It has control of railways and immigration; the responsibility rests with the Dominion government."

To keep money in circulation, Mr. Coote went on to suggest that the excellent scheme outlined by the Prime Minister three years ago in relation to income tax, should be followed. A one percent tax on $1000 income, 2 percent on the second thousand, three on the third and so on, but not stopping at 25 percent on the twenty-fifth thousand as the Prime Minister suggested, but carrying it on until it reached 99 percent on $99,000.

This week we have had the privilege of having Mr. W. Arnold-Forster of Great Britain, son of the Rt. Hon. Arnold-Forster at one time Secretary of State, and great-grandson of the great Dr. Arnold, address the members of the House, or at any rate such numbers of them as cared to come to the Railway Committee room. Mr. Arnold-Forster was here to urge members of the Canadian House of Commons to organize a branch of the British Empire Peace Federation designed to promote disarmament and peace throughout the world. In Geneva in 1929 I had the pleasure of meeting this learned and enthusiastic man. He was that year acting as secretary to Lord Robert Cecil.

whom he holds in very high regard. The amount of energy he put in to his four addresses yesterday was amazing and inspiring. This man is an artist of repute. Most artists would not care to travel so intensively, lecturing and writing, in a cause that can scarcely be called artistic—yet Mr. Arnold-Forster considers no price too great to pay for the securing of justice and peace. He believes the situation in Europe is very grave and that preventive action will need to be taken quickly.

Should any of you have the opportunity of seeing the film based on Noel Coward's play "Cavalcade," do seize it. It is particularly well played and inspiring. I wish we could share their beauty and fragrance with you.

HAVE YOU SEEN CHEVROLET'S NEW LOWER-PRICED CAR...

Two Lines of Cars
 Two Price Ranges
 One High Standard of Quality

FIRST came the Chevrolet Master Six—and Canada responded with the greatest welcome given a Chevrolet since 1929. Then, up stepped the leader with another entirely new line of cars, the Standard Six. Down went the Chevrolet base-price to the lowest figure in history for a full-size, six-cylinder closed car. And the spotlight of public interest flashed brighter than ever on Chevrolet.

Now—for the first time—there are two Chevrolet Sixes—the Standard and the Master. Body-styles for everybody. Prices for several different groups of buyers. But only one standard of quality—the very same high standard that has made CHEVROLET the greatest name in low-priced motoring.

Both Standard and Master lines offer Air-Streamed Bodies by Fisher—safety glass windshields—and that newest General Motors sensation: Fisher No-Draft Ventilation. In the Standard Six, you can enjoy all these advantages at the lowest operating cost of any full-size car on the road.

Whichever you choose—the mere fact that the leader built it is assurance of outstanding value. But you'll never really know how outstanding it is till you come to our showrooms—see it, drive it, yourself!
