

SLIGO

April showers bring forth May flowers. Maple syrup operations have commenced in this district.

The March meeting of the New England W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. W. Breadner on March 30th. The meeting commenced by singing "The Ode" and repeating the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. A. A. Thompson then read the Scripture Lesson. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. Business matters, pertaining to repairs at the church, were thoroughly discussed. A number of pieces from our song sheets were then sung. Mrs. M. Devitt and Miss Verna Wiley then delighted the ladies with readings; recitations were ably recited by Misses Alleen Graham, Gwenny Thompson and Joy Wiley. Miss Grace Fothergill gave us an excellent paper on "Better English." A duet was sung by Mrs. Korke and Mrs. A. A. Thompson. The meeting closed by singing, "God save the King." A delicious lunch prepared by Mrs. A. A. Thompson and Mrs. W. Breadner was then served.

Miss Lillian Hodgkinson has returned home after spending a week's vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Patterson at Blantyre. A number of young people attended the dance, sponsored by Mr. Karl Boyd, on Tuesday evening. All report a good time.

Mr. Wilfred Shaw of Markdale was a recent caller in our burg. Mr. Ernest Hodgkinson has been assisting Mr. Ernest Boyle this week. Mrs. Frank Wiley and Miss Joy of Wodehouse spent a day recently with the former's mother, Mrs. W. Breadner, here.

We are sorry to report Mrs. Isaiah Gardner on the sick list. Mr. Matthew Devitt paid a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Devitt in Meaford, on Tuesday. Messrs. Harold Boyle and Harold Breadner attended the Rocklyn-Berkeley hockey game held in Markdale last Wednesday evening.

Miss Joy Wiley spent a pleasant afternoon recently, the guest of Miss Alleen Graham. Mr. Alvin Noble is a visitor in town at present.

Mrs. Edward Graham and little son, Leonard, of Beaverdale attended the W. I. meeting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Wesley Breadner. Many old residents in this locality were shocked to learn of the passing to the "Great Beyond" of Mrs. Wm. Wright, a highly esteemed lady of Beaverdale.

TEMPLE HILL

MRS. WILLIAM WRIGHT. A highly esteemed resident of this vicinity passed away on Friday, March 31st, 1933, in the person of Mrs. Wm. Wright, beloved wife of Wm. Wright, from a short illness of heart trouble.

Deceased, whose maiden name was Elizabeth (Bess) Holmes, was in her seventy-first year and was born in Ireland, eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Holmes. She was married forty-three years ago to her now sorrowing husband. They resided in Ireland for a number of years after their marriage. Coming to this country over thirty years ago, they settled on the farm owned by Mr. Wright's father, the late John Wright, on the ninth line of Euphrasia. She resided there until a few weeks ago when she went to spend a short time with her sister, Mrs. Herb. Patton, at Harkaway, where she passed away.

Mrs. Wright was a woman of very fine character, belonging to a type that is best known by an ever deepening acquaintance and her passing has left a vacancy that will be difficult to fill.

Besides her sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn her loss two sisters and one brother, Mrs. H. Patton at Harkaway and a sister and brother in Ireland.

The funeral, which was held on Monday afternoon from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Patton to Markdale cemetery, was largely attended. Rev. Bugler of Walters Falls conducted the service at the house, assisted by Rev. J. R. Wilkinson of Temple Hill.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Ed. Graham, Clifford Erskine, George Seabrooke, Carl Boyd, Wilbert Menary and Gordon Erskine.

The community extend their deepest sympathy to Mr. Wright and Mrs. Patton in the loss of a loving wife and sister.
