TEMPLE HILL

(Intended for last week.)

One of the most distressing things that has occurred in this community for some time happened on Sunday morning, April 30, 1933, when it was learned that Mr. Minto Menary was found dead at his gate early in the morning by his Mother. Mr. Menary had spent Saturday evening in town and while driving home, it is thought, the horse took fright and started to run away and on turning in the gate made a short turn, turning the buggy over and throwing Mr. Menary out among some stone. What time the accident occurred is not known but he was not found until early Sunday morning.

Mr. Menary was born on the farm now owned by Mr. Geo. Seabrooke some thirty-four years ago, and was the only son of the late Mr. R. J. Menary and Mrs. Menary. He attended Beaverdale School, also Temple Hill Sunday School and Church in his childhood days. His father disposed of the farm to Mr. John Menary and moved to a farm on the eleventh line where Minto and his Mother have lived for the past number of years.

He leaves to mourn his loss besides his sorrowing Mother, three sisters, Mrs. George Irwin (Mamie) of Riverdale, Mrs. Nelson (Effie) of Corbetton and Mrs. H. Middleton (Iva), of Toronto.

He was a man of kindly disposition and his passing has left a vacancy that will be difficult to fill.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, a short service conducted at the house preceding service in Temple Hill church. The church was filled with sympathizing friends, showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Rev. Wilkinson had charge of the service. At the close of the service in the church Mrs. Wilkinson and Miss Leona Boyd contributed a beautiful duet, "Does Jesus Care". Interment was made in Temple Hill Cemetery.

The pallbearers were Messrs. John and James Menary, John Miller, Carman Caswell, Wilmer Clarke and Earl Kirkpatrick.

Friends from a distance were Mr. John McArthur and son of Erin, the former being a brother of Mrs. Menary; Mr. and Mrs. John Boyd of Orange Valley; Mr. and Mrs. A. Menary of Walters Falls, besides a number from Markdale, Fiesherston, Owen Sound, Dundalk, Berkeley and Harkaway.
