WILLIAMSFORD

(Intended for last week.)
The regular meeting of the Williamsford Women's Institute was held on June 7th at the home of Gordon Mower, with an attendance of fifteen members and thirty-three visitors, including Barrhead Institute. The President, Mrs. Stafford, presided. The meeting opened with the Institute Ode and the Lord's Prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read. Mrs. A. M. McClure gave a two minute talk on the Institute. It was decided to hold a picnic in July in place of the meeting.

The Barrhead Institute put on the programme. Mrs. Long gave a paper on "Aunt Nancy's quilting bee"; another paper was given by Mary McNicoll; Mesdames Foster and Wilson sang a duet; Mrs. Bowles gave a reading entitled, "Can't be said about women"; Mrs. McNicoll gave a reading on school lunches; a demonstration on pressing trousers by Mrs. Hatton; Ada Hill gave two selections on the guitar; a paper by Mrs. Smart entitled "A School Concert"; a reading by Catherine Davidson, "English Language"; Mrs. Sims gave a contest on guessing her weight with Mrs. Wilmer Stewart being the lucky one; Mrs. Hill gave another contest on guessing spices, Mrs. Cam. Elliott winning the prize. This brought the programme to an end. Everyone enjoyed the programme very much. The meeting closed by singing God Save Our King. Lunch was served by the hostess and assistants.

Miss Schopp spent a few days in Hanover recently.

Miss Marie Grassing is visiting with friends in Kitchener.

Mr. Mervon Sellwood spent the week-end at his parental home in Southampton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Douglas spent a day in Owen Sound recently.

WODEHOUSE

Baptismal services were conducted in New England Church on Sunday. A pleasing feature of the service was the singing by the choir which was composed of Sunday School scholars.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fawcett attended an old folks' picnic at Sunnyside beach near Meaford one day last week. It included old residents of the Minnie Hill community, in which they resided in their younger days.

Mrs. Wm. Lawson underwent an operation in the Markdale Hospital on Thursday of last week for the removal of her tonsils.

Mrs. Rourke attended the revival services in Harkaway Church on Sunday.

Mr. Leonard Hines of Kimberley passed through our burg on Sunday on his motorcycle.

Mr. Erle Clarke attended church in Kimberley on Sunday evening.

A few from here attended the field day at Rocklyn on Friday. Wedding bells are ringing.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fawcett were on a business trip to Meaford on Monday last.

One of Mr. Robert Brown's teams made a lively run from the farm up to Wodehouse on Monday. He had three of them hitched to the manure spreader and when coming down, the lane from the house something frightened them and the line on one of the horses broke. Fred saw that there was no chance of stopping them so he jumped and in doing so hit against the fence. One horse became detached from the rig and turned back while the other two continued their mad pace to the road and in making a short turn snapped the tongue off the machine. They then ran to Wodehouse where they were caught by Harry Cherry and J. A. Fawcett. We are all pleased that Fred escaped without any serious injury, although he suffered from shock and has a sore arm and leg.

The June meeting of the New England W. I. will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry Erskine on Friday afternoon, June 30th. Ladies please bring a paper and pencil to copy some of the recipes which Mrs. Laura Rose Stephens will give. To each lady who joins the Institute, Mrs. Stephens' set of six apron patterns will be given as a premium for her fee.
