WODEHOUSE

Every cloud has a silver lining we are told, but the receding ones of Friday last carried a golden one, as the deposit of rain they left was greatly needed and created a large number of smiles in this locality.
Miss Hazel Fawcett and brother Teddy, spent a few days last week at Swinton Park, the guests of their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R.
Fawcett, and going fairly strong now.
Activities in softball and garden parties are being fairly strong now.
The Ebenezer Dramatic Club will stage a 3-act play here on Friday evening, July 7th.
Mr. and Mrs. James Wiley, Elgin and Clarence, took in the Lanarkreunion at Eugena on Saturday, July 1st, and had a real time.
Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. I. Fawcett on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fawcett of Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. G. E.
Cornfield and children and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cornfield and children, all of Kimberley Valley district, and Mrs. L. L. Leslie Fawcett, and children of Meaford.
Mr. Teddy Fawcett has accepted a position with Mr. Bert Merrifield of Beaverville for a month.
Don't forget to be in town on the Gloucestershire of July.
Messrs. Clive Dolan and Harry Coulter commenced to shingle the dwelling of Mrs. Nancy Wiley on Saturday, July 1st, prior to Mr. and Mrs. Dolan's occupying it.
Miss Lavina Wiley, best guest of honour at a pleasant gathering of the residents of the section at the school on Wednesday afternoon of last week. A splendid program of readings was given by several of the pupils, also solo by Miss Verna Wiley, Brown and Elgin Wiley, a duet by James Brown and Lorne Fawcett, a chorus, a violin selection by Mrs. Gordon Wiley and a dialogue, "Miss Ber-t's Burglar," by Ruby and James Wiley, all presented with the most by all present. Mrs. Rourke presided at the organ. Miss Wiley was called to the front when an address was read by Miss Helen Wiley and the teacher. A beautiful display of dainty china teatime consisting of plates, cups and saucers, tea pot, cream pitcher and sugar bowl from her pupils. Miss Wiley, though been completely by surprise, responded to the requests of the parents for their kindness during her four years of teaching. A dainty lunch was served by the ladies and a short but pleasant time was spent together in social intercourse.

Misses Hazel Morrison and Ruby Brown and Masters Merton Wiley, Murray Lawson and Elgin Wiley are writing their examinations at Kimberley this week. We wish them success. The sixth pupil, Miss Helen Wiley, received word that she had passed on her term marks and was not required to take the examination. Congratulations Helen.
Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Wiley and children of Wainwright, Alberta, are spending a few weeks visiting at the homes of their parents and friends here and at Meaford.

(Intended for last week.)
Our Sunday School picnic this year was a decided success, both financially and in the entertaining line. Proceeds were in the vicinity of fifty dollars. The score between Markdale and Cherry Grove softball team was 11 to 10 in favor of Markdale. A good supper and program followed.
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fawcett and Eldon spent the week-end at Swinton Park with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fawcett.

(Intended for last week.)
The District Orangemen attended the United Church on Sunday evening when Rev. Mr. McLaughlin addressed them.

theory exam in Owen Sound last Friday.
Mr. Emerson Quinton is now living in his recently bought house in the village.
Mr. Gilray finished Mr. W. I. Seabrook's well on Saturday and moved to Mr. F. Mower's to drill his deeper.
From there he is going to drill for Mr. Jas. Hamill where Mr. E. Walter lives.
The Agricultural Society held a dance on Friday evening last which was quite well attended, an orchestra from Meaford supplying the music.

(Intended for last week.)
The Girls Institute held a quilting and ten cent tea at the home of Miss F. Rennie last Tuesday afternoon. Two nice quilts were quilted and about fifty ladies enjoyed the social tea hour.
Mr. and Mrs. Long and Norman and Mrs. Rennie and Miss Florence attended the Guelph Farm last Thursday.
Misses M. Laycock and V. Rennie and Howard Olmstead are home from Meaford. Mr. Burford spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. R.
Olmstead. Mrs. Templar and girls returned home with him.
Mr. and Mrs. B. Carney and Miss Mary of London spent the week-end with friends here.
Mr. Gilray is now drilling a well for Mr. Clarence Seabrook.
Mr. Phillip Walter spent a couple of days last week in Owen Sound.
The Women's Institute held their June meeting last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Jas. Holmes with the new president, Mrs. McDougal, in the chair. An appeal was made for donation to the Fair and after much discussion it was arranged. Miss F. Rennie read a very good report of the Guelph Girls' Conference. A discussion took place on growing bulbs, etc. The patterns of the summer speaker were passed around. The roll call was answered by naming a common bird. After

TEMPLE HILL

(Intended for last week.)
A number from here attended the show for Mr. and Mrs. Jack Free-burn on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sparling. The evening was spent in dancing and cards until midnight when Mr. and Mrs. Freeburn were asked to come forward and Mr. Maurice Clark read the following address and Mr. Russell Sparling presented them with a purse.
Temple Hill, June 12, 1933
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Freeburn.
Dear Jack and Leona—We, your friends and neighbors, are gathered here this evening to extend to you a friendly welcome into our community and also to express to you our heartiest congratulations and best wishes in honour of your recent marriage.
May your married life be one of health and prosperity and your sojourn in our community one of happiness.
We trust you to accept this purse as a token of our best wishes and we hope you will both live to celebrate your golden wedding.
Signed on behalf of the community: Russ Sparling, Maurice Clark, Karl Beal, and Miss Leona Boyd.
Jack very fittingly replied and all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows," after which lunch was served.
A successful Sunday School Convention was held here on Thursday afternoon and evening. The afternoon session was largely attended. Rev. W. J. Wilkinson taking the devotional part at the first, after which the president, Mr.
E. Clugston, acted as chairman. Mr. address of welcome was given by Mr. W. Fitzpatrick and responded to by Mr. T. H. Richardson of Harkaway. The roll call was held and the reports of the different organizations given. Rev. Elliott of Tara held a short round table conference.
Mrs. D. Cooke and Mrs. Cecl Clugston rendered a beautiful duet.
Fest of Heathcote delivered a splendid address on an excellent address.
A beautiful solo, bringing the afternoon meeting to a close. The ladies served a delicious supper in the basement, after which the Executive held a meeting for the coming year. Mr. S. Wiley, Jr., was appointed president, Mr. E. Clugston having acted for the past two years.
Rev. McAusland of Kimberley conducted the devotional exercises for the evening, after which Rev. Lowry spoke a few words to the new officers. Mr. Wiley then took the chair and a short song, service was held. Rev. Mr. Peters gave a short address. Rev. Mr. Creighton of Meaford gave an excellent address and Mr. James Hall of Epping sang a solo. Rev. Mr. Elliott gave a very interesting address. The choir sang the anthem "I am Glad." After hymn No. 495 had been sung Rev.
Mr. Creighton closed with prayer.
The convention next year will be held at Victoria Church. Rev. H.
S. Warren of Markdale suggested changing the date and this was left with the executive.
