"No, I don't see the youngsters for months on end now they're settled in the city, but I'll let you in on a secret. Joe. I visit with them every week by telephone. There's nothing like it to take the edge off a separation."

For 30 cents you can telephone about 100 miles by making an "any-one" call (nation-wide) after 8:30 p.m. See list of rates in front of directory.

VANDELEUR
Work has commenced on the new skating rink on Mr. Elmer Waring's farm about opposite the company. It is to be 150 feet long and 60 feet wide, and the corner stone was properly and truly laid on Saturday afternoon, November 13th. Several large gangs of men were on the job and much work was accomplished. Another gang of men and teams were at work on Monday and the committee hope to have the rink completed in a short time. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Frank Davis whose brother, Mr. Plevas, passed away recently in Toronto.
The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Genoe (nee Miss Evelyn Brown of Berlin), who were recently married, wish them a long, happy and prosperous voyage through life. Mrs. Genoe was for three years a very efficient teacher in the school here.
Mrs. S. L. Hare of Markdale spent the week-end with Miss E. Board and Mrs. Geo. Shaw and other friends.
Rev. McNeil, of the Eugenia church, occupied the pulpit in the afternoon and delivered an able sermon.
Our teacher, Mr. Harold Thompson, was in Orangeville on Wednesday last attending the marriage of his sister, Mrs. Thompson, who was married to Mr. Norman Burritt of Kimberley.
(Last week's items.)
There was a large attendance at the Young People's Meeting in the church on Friday evening of last week, the occasion being the return visit of the New England Young People's Society. A splendid program was put on by the visitors. Mrs. Dolan and Mrs. Clugston had charge of the topic; Rev. S. McAuslan gave a short address; readings were given by the Misses Willey, Mrs. Rorke and a solo; Edgan Fawcett gave several musical numbers and the New England quartette sang. An interesting program of games, contests, etc., followed in the evening and lunch was served by the local Y. P. S. It was a delightful evening and much enjoyed by all present.
Vandeleur is to have a skating rink. At a meeting held in the school house recently it was decided to proceed immediately and a committee was appointed with Mr. Louis Teeter as chairman to make arrangements, choose a site, oversee the work, etc. Sufficient lumber, posts, etc., has been donated by residents of the community and considerable enthusiasm is manifested.
Mr. McEwen of Orillia was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Buchanan over the week-end.
Mr. and Mrs. Mark Stewart of Fisherton are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Elmer Waring, who is suffering from an attack of appendicitis.
The November meeting of the Ladies' Aid was held on Wednesday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. (Rev.) H. S. Warren in Markdale and was largely attended. A goodly number of members of the Ebenezer Ladies' Aid were also present. A good program was presented and chief of which was a very interesting address by Miss L. C. Hawkins. Miss Myrtle Froeman gave a reading and lunch was served.

TRAVERTON
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Frogley and son, Harry, and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Fairweather and three children of Toronto spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cook.
Miss Gladys Firth is visiting in Durham this week.
The Bible Study Class met last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Edwards.
Rev. Almaek of Durham visited among his parishioners in this neighborhood last week.
The Edwards Institute met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. R. T. Edwards. Over thirty ladies were in attendance. The meeting opened by singing the Institute Convention hymns. Miss Mary Allen gave a recitation on "Ontario." Miss Edwards contributed a reading entitled November. A quartette composed of Misses Edwards, Rorke and Cook sang an old favourite song. Miss Viola had a paper on Remembrance Day. Mrs. James Peart gave a fine instrumental solo. The ladies brought a fine exhibit of quilt blocks and patterns. The National Anthem was sung. Mrs. Edwards and assistants served lunch.
W. H. Edwards motored home from Orillia and spent the week-end at the parental home.
Mr. Ray McCree of Palmerston motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Edwards last Thursday and Mrs. Atkinson returned with him to spend the winter months in Palmerston.
Zionists arranged to hold their Christmas entertainment on the 21st and the young folk are preparing their programme.

KIMBERLEY
Armistice Day was fittingly observed by a service held in the Community Memorial Hall at 10:45 a.m. Saturday. Rev. S. McAuslan conducted the service opening with "O Canada" followed by the 2 minutes silence, prayer and the hymn "O God our Help in Ages Past." Scripture reading and address, after which Mrs. E. Mies presented a wreath from the Government using the following address, "The Government of Ontario has presented this wreath to the people of Kimberley to be placed on the Memorial Tablet in this, our Memorial Hall, in honor of the boys who have paid the Supreme Sacrifice, losing their lives in the Great War. Not only do these do we pay tribute, but to all the men and women who so valiantly served and of all these we think as we place this wreath below our Soldiers' names." The service was closed with a hymn and the National Anthem.
The Ladies' Aid held their regular November meeting at the home of Mrs. Plevas on Tuesday afternoon with an attendance of seventeen. Considerable money was voted to be spent in the Minister's salary, electric light bill, etc. The meeting was concluded by a ten cent tea which resulted in $30 to the Treasury.
A pleasant afternoon was spent.
We congratulate Mr. Norman Burritt on the occasion of his recent wedding to Miss Irene Thompson of Orangeville and formerly of this place. The young couple are now away on their honeymoon and on their return will reside on their farm south of Kimberley.
A concert and dance was held in the Hall on Friday night under the auspices of the Hall Board. The concert consisted of a play put on by the Riverview Young People's Society, Dorothy Foster, Mrs. Genoa and Press supplied the music for the dance.

MARKAWAY
The W.M.S. met on Thursday, Nov. 2nd, in the Church basement. The present in charge. The meeting opened with Hymn 310, followed by prayer by the President and the Lord's prayer in unison. Scripture reading taken from James 4. Mrs. C. Thompson. Roll call answered by 7 members. Hymn 235. Mrs. Lawson gave a reading on "Hospital Work in China" and Dr. Kilburn. Mrs. Lloyd Lyons also gave a reading on the W. M. S. Conference. A letter of thanks was read from one of the members. Hymn 234 followed by readings by Mrs. C. Thompson and "On Ways of Giving" and by Mrs. Lawson on "Korean Echoes." It was decided to have the election of officers in January. Place of next meeting Mrs. J. and Mrs. Will Halbert, Word "Bibleman." Group 5 to give the Christmas program at this meeting. Hymn 291 followed by sentence prayers and the benediction. Lunch was served by the members. Tea money 60 cents.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Halbert attended the Hill-Hannich wedding on Saturday, Nov. 4th.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Ward and Wallace visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carmichel, Walters Falls.
Miss Edith Taylor, Mrs. Harry Baker and little son, Jack, of Van der Horst, are visiting the Halbert family. Mr. Harry Baker spent the week-end here with his family.
Miss Freda Binns spent the week-end with relatives in Toronto.
Mrs. Will Halbert and little daughter spent last week at the home of her brother, Mr. Kenneth Hill, Markdale.
Mr. Barker of Toronto, Treasurer of the United Church gave a very fine address on Sunday afternoon in the Church here on his work. While here Mr. Barker and Rev. Laycock were guests of the Halbert family.

STRATHAVON
Wintry weather prevails at present.
Mrs. M. Morrison is spending a few weeks with friends at Detroit. Mrs. Oscar Thompson and sons of Kitchener visited with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Morgan recently.
Mrs. M. Mustard left for Toronto on an extended visit.
Misses Viola Torrie and D. Juniper of Meaford spent the week-end with the former's brother, Mr. Ian Torrie.
Mr. Charlie Morgan returned to Kitchener after spending a few weeks with his brother, William. Miss Irene Mustard is at present under the Doctor's care with a nervous trouble. We hope for a quick recovery.
A surprise party was held at the home of Mr. Gilbert Morrison when a very enjoyable time was spent till the wee small hours.
Mrs. Arthur Torrie spent a few days with her brothers, Dave and Joe Boyd of Riverview.

GORING
Miss Ina Parker of Owen Sound visited over the week-end at her parental home.
Mr. and Mrs. Archie Wood spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. J. White, St. Vincent.
Mrs. Roger Milson is visiting friends in this vicinity at present.
Miss Reg. McConniff of Owen Sound visited over the week-end with his friend, Mr. Bert Parker.
A jolly wagon load of young people journeyed to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eyerson Sparling on Wednesday night of last week where the Y.P.S. meeting was held along Armistice lines. Readings were given as follows: "That You Forget" by Alma Parker and "Whenever I see Peoples Now" by Florence Hopkins. A paper on "The Backward Looking Memories and the Forward Looking Vision" was ably given by Miss B. Marlow. Rev. Lowrie gave the Devotional talk on the lesson and also conducted a Church parade and service in the form used in the army. An interesting feature was also conducted by Mr. Lowrie when as commander in charge he hauled some of the members up on the mat for breaking rules. Three prominent young men merited the punishment of scrubbing the floor with a toothbrush. The members were suspended. The evening was a very enjoyable one for all present. A meeting of the Sunday school was also held when it was decided to hold the Annual Christmas Concert on Thursday, December 14th. The hostess served delicious candy to all at the close.
Mrs. and Mrs. S. J. Wood and Pearl Johnston visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. White of St. Vincent.
