A number from around here attended the Threshers' Banquet held at the Weber Club house and given by Mr. Art. Press to his customers. A good time was reported. The January meeting of the W. I., which was postponed for a week, was held on Feb. 1st at the home of Mrs. Russell Ellis with 18 members present. Mrs. F. J. Weber gave a paper on "What the Voter Should Know About Civics." The roll call, "A Good Book to Read," was well responded to. There was also considerable community singing and a log-saw puzzle contest which was won by Mrs. O. Brockbank and Miss Iva Wickens. Lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. C. Camack, and Mrs. W. T. Ellis.

(Intended for last week)

The Government Short Course terminated on Friday, January 25th. On Thursday evening a banquet was held in the auditorium of the Hall with 88 covers. Mr. McPhail of Waterloo county was the guest speaker at the evening. The other guests were Mr. T. S. Cooper, Agricultural Representative for Grey county; Mrs. Joan Hamilton Shearer, teacher of Home Economics and Supervisor of the Girls' Classes; Miss Taylor, of the Home Nursing Class; and Mr. John Charlton, Live Stock Lecturer and supervisor of the Boys' Class; also Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ellis, Mr. R. W. Lawrence and Mr. Milton Hutchinson.

Mrs. Shearer and Girls' Class—"In the basement of the Hall, Learning knowledge up-to-date. Many bright and happy faces came from afar; At the light that filled their eyes Mrs. Shearer was surprised. As they drank the truth of science by the hour. Carbohydrates, fats and proteins Constitute the foods that we must eat. But the calories we fear Are too few, and fruits too dear To do justice to this wonderful meal."

To Miss Taylor—"Miss Taylor, our teacher in nursing, Makes bandaging her specialty, Taking pulses, in some cases, thrills her; Oh! that a nurse's degree, Breathe in fresh air, And get the proper rest at night, Chest out, shoulders up, And we will be the men of might."

To Mr. Cooper—"Chevrolet, Chevrolet, comin' round the bend, Tommy Cooper at the wheel, He's certainly our friend. Cleaner seed makes better yields He tells us all the time; Don't forget the moisture, boys, And a seed bed very fine. We thank you; we thank you; Do come back some more; We're glad to see you any time, Our good friend, Tommy Cooper."

To Mr. Charlton—"Tune Tipperary 'He's a good sport, is Joanne Charlton. He's a good egg—and how; He can tell us about the live stock, The sheep—the pig—the cow. Here goes, Mr. Charlton, For you we give a cheer. We will all come back and tend the classes if you come next year."

To Mr. McPhail—"Roamin' around the Province With a hatch in his hand, The Comin' to Beaver Valley, The Scotchman's promised land; With his speeches at their best, That's the sign we'll get no rest; Oh! it's lovely here in Beaver Valley."

To the Boys' Class—"We have come to the end of a busy month And we've met with a jolly crowd, Where each one wears a friendly smile, And grouches are not allowed. It makes me think that its good to live. To work and to sing with glee, So here's to the boys that are here tonight, At our Kimberley Short Course Spree."

The toast songs for all but Mr. Charlton were composed by Mr. Charlton. Mrs. Myles composed the one for Mr. Charlton. After the conclusion of the banquet, about 10 p. m., willing hands cleared away the tables and all enjoyed a merry dance until 1 a. m.

At the close of the classes on Friday a Junior Institute was organized by the girls and a Junior Farmers' Club for the boys. The officers of each respectively are:

President, Ruth M. Myles. Vice-President, Myrtle Stafford. Secretary, Mrs. L. Lawrence. Treasurer, Ora Wickens. President, Ralph Stafford. Vice-President, Clarence Soule. Sec.-Treas., Merle Weber.

The number registered in combined classes 55.

WILLIAMSFORD

The concert held in the Community Hall on Friday last under the auspices of the Williamsford W. I. was quite successful. Mr. D. McCracken was chairman. The Junior Institute opened the concert with a chorus. There were splendid recitations, violin selections, instrumental music and singing of songs.

Mrs. Kerr favored us with two songs which were much enjoyed, as were other duets and solos. The play, entitled "Bridget's Inheritance" followed and all did its part to perfection. Mrs. A. H. McClure gave a little history of the Institute and what it had done since it was organized here in 1906. Mrs. McClure is the only charter member here. Mrs. Roberts read the address and Kathleen Davy made the presentation. Following is the address:

Dear Mrs. McClure—We, the members of Williamsford Women's Institute, wish on this occasion to call to the attention of your many friends the honor and esteem in which you are held by your cohorts. During the past year, we have been continuously on the roll since the granting of the charter in 1905 and holding the office of Secretary-Treasurer for approximately twelve consecutive years. We offer to you to show the distinction due you. At this time we beg leave to give you this token of appreciation of many years of service among us.

IN MEMORIAM

WALKER—In loving memory of Wm. S. Walker, who passed away February 8th, 1933.

"In the midst of life we are in death. These words have been proven once more, But lingering rays of Eternal Light Gleam through from that Bifurcal Shore. Hope cheers our darkened, saddened lives, His promises ever stand, And those whom we have loved and lost We shall meet in the Dear-Home-Land. Wife and Son."

A miscellaneous shower was held on Wednesday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Flynn in honor of their daughter, Vada, a recent bride, and her husband, Mr. Elmer Nesbitt. They received quite a number of lovely gifts. An enjoyable evening was spent in dancing and card playing. The following address was read:

Dear Elmer and Vada,—We, your friends, have gathered here tonight to express our sincere good wishes to you for a long, happy and prosperous wedded life, and may all your troubles be little ones. As a little remembrance we ask you to accept these gifts.

Signed on behalf of Berkeley and Community: Joe Middleton Stan Stafford
