EUGENIA

(Intended for last week.)
Mander - Fawcett

A pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized at the United Church parsonage, Flesherston, at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, January 26th, 1934, when Miss Violet Vernon Fawcett, second youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Fawcett of Eugenia, became the bride of Mr. Mander, Jr., an estimable young man of Toronto. Rev. W. J. Scott performed the ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Gladys (Mrs. T. Hazard), while Mr. Hazard acted as groomsmen. The wedding feast was a sumptuous one, the bride's cake being a beautiful specimen of the best of the kind. The bride was dressed in a becoming gown of pale green, honeycombed crepe, gracefully long, with exquisite trimming touches of white and brilliants. Her hat and other accessories were in harmony. She carried a beautiful bouquet consisting of Tallman Roses, Baby's Breath, Cardinals, Freesia and Maiden Hair Fern. She wore the groom's gift, a pendant of pale green with ear-rings to match.

The nuptial knot was performed, the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's parents where the immediate relatives and some invited guests were present. All sat down to a sumptuous wedding breakfast consisting of three-course bride's cake. Grace was sung. A toast to the bride was proposed by Mrs. G. H. Mander and responded to by the groom in a few well chosen words. After all had done ample justice to the good things to eat, a very pleasant social evening followed in music, singing, contests, games and chat. Excellent music was supplied by Mr. Jake Williams, Mr. Bates Fawcett and Mr. Jack Fawcett. The bride's travelling costume consisted of a little green suit of wool pebble crepe with brown coat, hat and purse. After a short honeymoon with friends in this district the happy young couple will take up residence at 15 Aldwych Ave., Toronto. Mr. Mander has a lucrative position with his father, Mr. H. Mander, sr., of the firm of H. Mander & Co., who operate a japaanizing and enamelling establishment in the city. Our best wishes are extended to them for many joyful and prosperous years of married life.

PROTON STATION

(Intended for last week.)
Death came to Mrs. George Blackley on Sunday, February 4th, after a lengthy illness. She was 72 years of age and is survived by one sister, Mrs. John Acheson. The funeral took place at Flesherston cemetery on Tuesday, the service here being conducted in Trinity Church. Our sympathy goes out to the bereaved relatives.

On Friday evening a euchre and dance was held in the Orange Hall under the auspices of the Proton hockey club. Miss Marguerite Sims won the lady's prize and Mr. Andrew Hemphill the gent's prize. There was a good attendance.

Mr. Lloyd Lyons has returned to his duties in Toronto.

On Saturday evening last Mr. Alex. Sherson had his horse, harness and cutter stolen from a shed in Dundalk. No trace has yet been found of them.

A masquerade dance will be held in the hall here on February 16th.

Want Advs.

FOR SALE—New 1933 Incubator, 150-egg capacity, with hot water system and automatic egg turning device. Enquire at The Standard Office.

FOR SALE—Coming next week—Carload of 2 C. W. Oats and 3 C. W. Barley. These would make real good seed. W. R. Graham, Markdale. Phone 105.

WOOD WANTED—Will take 16 and 18 inch green hardwood in trade for woollen goods, such as blankets, horse blankets, auto rugs, yarns, etc. Write or phone for information. Flesherston Woolen Mills, Flesherston, Ont. Telephone 23-4C 25.

KIMBERLEY

Miss Viola Fawcett, Reg. N., is visiting with friends in Toronto. We extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Fawcett on the arrival of a baby girl.

The roads in this vicinity could not be better for motoring. Sleighting is also splendid.

Miss Alma Weber of Kimberley, teacher at Rome school, was married on Saturday to Mr. Kenneth Betts of Flesherston. Congratulations.

Mrs. Nuhn of Flesherston is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Cecil Fawcett.

Nipped ears and cheeks and frozen water pipes and boilers were the general complaint during the prolonged cold spell last week. Some also had potatoes and apples touched with frost.

Word was received here of the death in Edmonton of Mr. Robert Cornfield, a brother of Joseph and Wesley Cornfield and Mrs. Wm. Fawcett of Kimberley. Mr. Cornfield farmed successfully on the 5th line of Collingwood for a number of years. His first wife, Miss McWhirter, died many years ago and he was married later to Miss Daisy Shaw, formerly of Vandeleur. He is survived by his wife, five sons and one daughter.

The Ladies' Aid of the United Church met at the home of Mrs. R. W. Chard on Tuesday. After completing the devotional and business parts of the meeting everyone enjoyed the usual 10c tea. There were fourteen adults present. Next meeting will be at the home of Miss Haines.

On Friday night, after almost a lifetime of invalidism, Mr. William Stanford passed on. He was survived by one brother, an outdigger and four sisters, Mrs. Wm. Fawcett, Mrs. Ed. Baker, Mrs. A. Ellis and Miss Mary, all of Kimberley. The funeral took place on Monday, February 12th.

RIVERDALE

Wedding bells are ringing in our burg! The depression must be nearing an end.

It looks as though Mr. Bear had seen his shadow on February 2nd and might as well have had a real taste of winter ever since.

On Thursday evening of last week a number of friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Harvey to show the recent bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Harvey. Many useful gifts were received by the young couple. Mr. Harvey, in a few well-chosen words, thanked his friends for the gifts and dancing.

Miss Pearl Clouston spent an evening recently with her friend, Miss Mary Bell, of Cherry Grove.

A number from this line danced the Commencement and tango in Markdale last Friday evening and report a good time and an excellent program.

The Cherry Grove hockey team, which includes some of our Riverdale boys, played against Vandeleur in Markdale on Wednesday night of last week and were successful in de-

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Patton and Mr. and Mrs. L. McLaughlin spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lyons.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Madill entertained several of their neighbors on Tuesday evening, it being Master Gerald's birthday. May be have many more birthdays.

Miss Ina Thompson spent last week-end with Miss C. Morrison at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rodman.

Miss L. Laycock spent the week-end at her home near Woodford.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hae entertained a number of their friends on Tuesday evening last.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLaughlin and Mr. Jos. Hawken spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, Walters Falls.

Mrs. L. Johnston spent Monday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnston and family.

Mrs. Will Ward entertained six ladies with a quilting on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lyons entertained several friends on Saturday evening.

SHOWERED

A number of friends and neighbors held a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mr. John Fogarty on Monday night, February 12th, in honor of his recent marriage to Miss Margaret Eddy. Mr. Frank D'Arcy read the following address:

"We have gathered here in your home this evening, Margaret and John, to renew our expressions of friendship to you both. And to congratulate you on the occasion of your marriage, in which we all rejoice. And to welcome to our community the young bride, the new Mrs. John Fogarty, and to establish our friendship with her. May we say to her that we are old friends of the family which is now her family. We feel that we are not boasting in saying that through the years we have had occasions to prove that friendship. And in view of that, we want to assure her and John that in the years to come, it is our desire and hope that the friendship made here this night will grow and flourish in the future."

"It is many years now since Mrs. John Fogarty was called to her reward. Since that time this community has missed her greatly and so it is with undiminished pleasure that we welcome to-night another Mrs. John Fogarty and offer her our friendship."

"It is our wish, John and Margaret, that your lives may be as happy as that of John and Margaret whom you are succeeding. Let their example of friendship and love be a tradition for you. May your lives be long and happy. May the gifts which we ask you to accept to-night be tokens of our friendship and esteem."

"Signed on behalf of your neighbors:

Hugh Wright,
Leonard McCarthy."

The remainder of the evening was then spent in dancing, the music being supplied by Messrs. Kyle, W. G. Torry and Allison Baker.

NEW ENGLAND W. I.

The January meeting of New England W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. S. Wiley, Jr., on January 25th. The meeting opened as usual with Ode and Lord's Prayer, followed by a Bible reading by Mrs. A. A. Thompson.

It was decided to invite a summer speaker and have an open meeting in the evening with Kimberley and Rocklyn Institutes as guests.

Several letters of thanks were received from those who were remembered at Christmas.

It was decided to get up a play to be held in the spring, Mr. Dolan and Misses Hazel Fawcett and Della Wiley to be a committee to see after it. We decided to have a social in the church on February 14th, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Kirk, Mrs. Rorke and Mrs. R. Fawcett to be a program committee. Admission to be 10c.

No. 17 on the song sheets was sung, followed by readings by Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. R. Fawcett and Misses Hazel Fawcett and Della Wiley, all taken from Nina Moore Jameson's book.

There were eleven members and visitors and five children present. Collection $1.07.
