ELECTION COMING

The politicians are preparing for a Provincial election which will likely be staged in June. Candidates are being chosen by Liberals and Conservatives in 104 ridings and by the minor parties in the ridings where they consider there is a fighting chance of being elected.
In South Grey Mr. F. R. Oliver, the present member, representing the U.F.O., has been selected by his party as the standard bearer. The Liberals have not had a candidate for several years and it is hardly likely they will become active in this election. The Conservatives will hold a convention in Durham on May 1st when a candidate will be chosen. There is no doubt several names will go before the convention.
Some of those whose names we have heard mentioned are Mayor M. Armstrong of Hanover; ex-Warden Allan Bell and Editor Frank Irwin of Durham; Herb. Corbett of Proton Station; H. W. Kernehan of Osprey, and Dr. M. Phillips of Chatsworth.
Any one of the above mentioned is well qualified to represent the people of South Grey.

The liquor question will not generally be a factor in the deciding of the election but in this riding it will, no doubt, be used. The amendments to the Liquor Control Act have been passed and will come into effect no matter what party is returned to power. Whether or not they will improve conditions we are not prepared to predict, but if the use as beverages of rubbing alcohol and other poisonous concoctions can be eliminated then something worthwhile will have been accomplished.
We are interested in the temperance cause and will do what we can at all times to advance its interests, but we cannot see where opposition to the Government in the coming election is going to avail anything.
