It was decided to quit the halls for the sale at the next meeting in the basement of the church, which will be held the 2nd Thursday in May. The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. Wilkinson. A faintly lunch served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. G. Wilcox, and Miss Lillian Hodgkinson.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Robt. Bredner is able to be home again after her serious operation in the hospital in Toronto.

We extend our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Shaw (nee Grace Fothergill) who were married on Saturday, April 7th, at the manse here by Rev. J. R. Wilkinson.

The brothers and sisters and the neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hodgkinson gathered at their home on Friday evening, April 13th, to celebrate the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The evening was spent in cards and dancing and at the close Mr. and Mrs. Hodgkinson were asked to take the chairs of honor and Mrs. Emerson Knott read the following address:

Dear Alf and Ethel—We, your brothers and sisters, nephews, nieces and friends, have met here this evening to celebrate with you this happy occasion of your twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

It gives us greatest pleasure to extend to you our hearty congratulations and best wishes for future health and happiness and may you live to celebrate and enjoy your fiftieth anniversary and more.

We ask you to accept these tokens not for their value but for the spirit in which they are given.

Signed on behalf of those mentioned previously: Margaret Knott, Susie Patterson, Howard Hodgkinson.

Mr. Hodgkinson very fittingly replied after which lunch was served. We join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Hodgkinson many more happy wedding anniversaries.

WODEHOUSE

The people of this neighborhood were saddened last week when news came from the West that Stanley Wiley was seriously ill with blood poisoning in the hospital at Wainright. Numerous friends of the family here are hoping for better news from him. The last report received was that he was slightly improved.

Shaw (nee Miss Grace Fothergill), with a twenty-three piece china tea set and a seven piece china berry set. Mrs. Shaw was asked to come forward and take the chair of honor while Master Beverly Fothergill read the following address:

Our dear teacher—We, your pupils, are taking this opportunity of expressing to you our respect that our associations as teacher and pupils are about to be severed; and also to convey to you our heart-felt wishes that the future may hold for you much of happiness.

Out to you, teacher during almost three years you have always shown yourself to have our deepest interests at heart and have been most painstaking and thorough in your endeavours to instill into our minds the education necessary for our welfare.

Therefore, now that you are about to leave us and enter upon your new role as homemaker, we ask you to accept this tea set and berry set as tokens of our love and esteem, and our trust that as you use them in your new home you may be constantly reminded of your Sligo pupils.

Signed on behalf of the school: Gwendolan Thompson, Doris McAffee.
