TEA TIME TALK

(BY WILMA J. MARCH)

Each night the past week Dr. W. A. Hamlet, pastor of the Baptist Church, Zephyrhills, Florida, has preached upon the life and teaching of Jesus, during the last few days on earth, relating in such simple, human and understanding way, the things which filled those last earthly hours for this "Man of Sorrows". Dr. W. A. Hamlet has trod those pathways and sought the tomb many times, to find greater truth and inspiration in his splendid work. As a traveller in these biblical lands he brought to us with tremendous force the sacrifice and love of Him who died on the cross that we might live.

This morning after hearing the closing sermon of the series, I went, as a guest, to the dinner being held at the Christian Church. Everyone enjoyed a wonderful fine repast was served. Dr. and Mrs. Curtis, the Methodist minister and his wife, were guests as they soon go to a new field of labor.

Col. and Mrs. Ira C. Hooper of Lakeland were speakers. The Colonel gave a very inspiring talk. Speaking of the symbol of Easter he told of hearing a lecture given by an Arab, of the rank of Bey in the Arabian nobility. This Mohammedan, a firm and loyal in his beliefs, told of the significance of Easter in his religion. They believe in the divinity of Christ, in the Virgin birth, and also in the Resurrection—but the latter in a strange and inconsistent way. He told how they believe that God, the Father, could not allow His son to suffer the agonies of the cross. Thus Jesus vanished while in the garden. Then Judas was given a likeness unto Jesus and crucified in his stead. I cannot fully describe, nor did Col. Hooper, how they satisfactorily explained the resurrection of Christ. He did not really die, for there can be no resurrection without first there is death.

I had the pleasure of talking with the Hooper's and discovered that they knew my friend, the late Eva Chisholm of Toronto and Lakeland. After the splendid dinner many folks drove to the lake at the Tourist camp, where an impressive baptismal service was conducted. Then I drove to Lakeland with some neighbors and found a new friend, who has much poetic talent. Interesting days, these are to me.

It's so jolly to awaken in the morning and speculate upon the prospects of the day and wonder what interesting things will come our way. I'd hate awfully to be a hermit—for I love to meet people and broaden my views and experiences. It's a glorious, wonderful world even though we forget it sometimes—for as Shakespeare said: "There's a divinity that shapes our ends, rough-hew them as we will".

In San Francisco on Saturday noon, people began gathering for the Easter services and when the sun rose Easter morning 250,000 people were present. A chorus, composed of 500 children's voices sang "Christ arose" during which, their capes of black were dropped, disclosing gowns of snowy white, symbolizing a new life.

Recently at a large church wedding in Lakeland, the bride and groom did not meet at the altar, but came in together, as did the bridesmaid and best man. New modern ideas may be alright—at least they are novel—but customs which have been with us for centuries are hard to break. Yet, if the breaking of them means progress it is, perhaps, best to do so. Quoting Shakespeare again did he not say "The old order changeth yielding place to new, lest one good custom should corrupt the world".

Over the archway of a cemetery in Palm Beach is written these words: "Anything as universal as death, must be a blessing". As I have friends living in Shantalee, N.Y., I was interested to learn that the citizens of this small town own their electric light plant and the town has been free of municipal taxes since 1931. It has on hand $98,288 in cash and owns $48,000 of its own bonds. The citizens of Jacksonville, Florida, oppose the use of "municipal" taxes and reduce the taxes.

Recently I copied this charming little poem and will send it on to you all:

SMALL THINGS
Small things
Touch my heart so deeply—
Warm color of a rose,
Fluttering of a butterfly's wing,
Fllickering of a candlelight,
Easter lilies in candlelight.
What wonder that when I saw you
It made a lasting impression on my soul.

Each character seemed to be admirably suited for his or her part with the result that the play put on was one of the best, if not the best amateur performance given here.

JAMES S. KELLEY

By the death on Friday evening, April 27th, of Mr. James S. Kelley, proprietor of the Berere Hotel, the village has lost one of its oldest citizens and a man well-known in the district. He was a genial and obliging hotel proprietor here for the past forty years.

Previous to purchasing the hotel Mr. Kelley followed contracting and carpenter work, for a time in New York city and later in Toronto. He came to Markdale more than forty years ago. Here he continued at his trade for some time before going into the hotel business. He was an excellent workman and the beautiful altar work in St. Joseph's Church here and in St. John's Church in Glenora are fine examples of his skill.

Mr. Kelly, who was 55 years of age, had been in failing health for some time and his death was due to troubles incident to old age.

Mr. Kelly, who was also quite advanced in years, has been ill with heart trouble.

The deceased was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kelley, natives of Ireland and pioneers of the town of Markdale in Ontario, where they lived for a time in Brant Co. where the deceased was born on April 8th, 1849. A few years later the family moved to Glenora where he grew to manhood. Forty-one years ago on March 5th, he married Miss Margaret Ryan of Glenora and to them were born six sons and two daughters, all of whom survive and with the exception of Patrick of Campbellford, who is now in Northampton, Ontario, were present for the funeral.

The family are Joseph and Mike in Toronto; Patrick at Campbellford; Dr. Charles and Miss Retta of Buffalo; Miss Gertrude in Toronto and Phillip and Leo at home.

The funeral took place on Monday morning. Service was held at 10 o'clock in St. Joseph's Church and was conducted by Rev. Father Gabe who sang "Nuncium Bona" and "Gathered of the Earth" and the sermon and Father John Egan of Teeswater read the burial service. Interment was made in St. John's Church cemetery in Glenora.

The pallbearers were the five sons and Mr. Frank Meagher.

Besides the members of the deceased's family those present from outside points were: Mrs. M. F. E. Kelley and children, Mrs. Corrie Kelly and children, Mr. W. Ryan, nephew of Toronto; Miss Ethel Kelly, Miss Vera Kelly, Mrs. E. Schmutzler and Mrs. S. Kelley of Cleveland, Ohio.

There were a great many mass cards and floral tributes.

MRS. JAMES STRUTHERS
By the death on Wednesday, April 25th, of Mrs. Elizabeth Struthers in her 95th year Euphrasia town in the district. She was very highly esteemed in the district. Despite her great age she enjoyed remarkably good health.

For the past four years she was failing and was more often confined to her bed for a few days than formerly.

Born in England, she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shears, who, when she deceased was about 12 years of age, came with her growing family to Canada and settled for a time in Markham township. Later they moved north to Euphrasia, then almost an unbroken forest, and took up land. In 1862 their daughter, Elizabeth, was married at Euphrasia to Rev. J. T. Latimer to Mr. James Struthers.

They settled on the latter's farm on the 11th line of Euphrasia, which has ever since been the Struthers homestead. The deceased was always very active, hospitable and kind hearted, many times nursing her sick friends and neighbors, ministering to their physical needs, and often without the assistance of a physician. She lived to see many changes and her reminiscences of early days were very interesting.

Mr. Struthers passed away in 1902. Of their family of five daughters and one son, three daughters survive, namely: Mrs. A. E. Fawcett (Ellian), who with her husband and lived on the Struthers farm for some years and cared for Mrs. Struthers; Mrs. James Burchell (Janett) of Moose Jaw, Sask. and Mrs. I. R. Schell (Lidia) of Owen Sound. The deceased members of the family, Mrs. Luther Hawken, Miss Polly and James all passed away during recent years. Mrs. Struthers was the last of her family, eleven brothers and sisters having predeceased her.

The funeral took place on Monday to Markdale Cemetery. After a short service at the house a service was conducted in Cooke's Presbyterian Church. Rev. T. O. Miller, the pastor, was in charge and was assisted by Rev. Wm. Coutts, a former pastor of Stayner, who preached the sermon. The pallbearers were Messrs. R. W. Douglas, Frank Taylor, Geo. Taylor, Ran. Bradey, Roy Bowler and Russell. Many floral tributes were placed on the casket.

Miss Greta Elliott sang an appropriate solo at the service in the church.

Friends here for the funeral were Mrs. E. Nuhn, Mr. Harry Alken and Mr. Harry Down of Flesherton; Mrs. M. Hutchinson and Mrs. J. Fawcett of Heathcote; Mr. and Mrs. A. Eagles; Mrs. W. Moore; Messrs. John Wesley and Wm. Shears of Owen Sound; Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bradey of Glenora; and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Elford of Temple Hill.

MARRIED
We desire to express our heartfelt appreciation of the many kind acts of sympathy extended to us in our recent bereavement.

WINSLOW KERNAHAN IS CHOICE OF TORIES

At a well attended convention held in the Town Hall at Durham on Tuesday Mr. Winslow Kernahan of Osprey was chosen by the Conservatives as their candidate to contest the riding of South Grey in the coming Provincial election. Six others were nominated: Herb. Corbett of Proton Station; Warden W. L. Taylor of Singhampton; Dr. M. Phillips of Chatsworth; Allan Bell, Frank Irwin and Dr. D. B. Jamieson of Durham. All retired excepting Messrs. Corbett and Kernahan. After the votes had been counted Mr. Kernahan was declared the choice, which was made unanimous on motion of Mr. Corbett. Hon. Leopold Macaulay, Minister of Highways, was the speaker of the day and delivered an interesting and instructive address. He dealt with the record of the present administration, showing clearly that they had served the people well during these distressing times.

Mr. Kernahan, the candidate, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kernahan and was reared near the little Village of Feversham. In his young manhood he enlisted in the Canadian forces overseas. He was a victim of the German gas and for several years after his return home was in very indifferent health.
