WALTERS FALLS

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Tricky and children of Rocklyn moved into Mr. Arthur King's house last week. Mrs. Reid recently spent a week with her sister in Owen Sound.

Several gentlemen were up from Toronto last week for a few days trout fishing.

The annual meeting of Women's Institute was held last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wm. Reid with an attendance of over thirty. After the usual routine opening several letters were read; an appeal from the Agricultural Society was promised five dollars; a letter from Holland Centre asking permission to present their play met with an invitation to come in June; a letter from the summer speaker regarding subjects of address. The proposed singing class was discussed at length. Mr. Newell came later and explained the class methods very clearly. Mrs. W. I. Seabrook was chairman for the election of officers, as follows: Pres., Mrs. McDougal; 1st Vice-Pres., Mrs. R. Dixon; 2nd Vice-Pres., Mrs. R. Speck; Sec.-Treas., Mrs. Laycock; Press Com., Miss H. Long; Pianist, Mrs. E. Walter, Mrs. S. Caswell; Auditors, Miss Delere, Mrs. Cook. Twenty-one members paid their fee at the roll call. Some seed and plants were exchanged. After singing, "God Save the King", lunch was served by the hostess and daughter. The June meeting is to be held when the summer speaker is present with Rocklyn W. I. attending.
