RIVERDALE

(Intended for last week.)

On Wednesday afternoon of last week Mr. James Nelson of this line, was united in marriage to Mrs. J. McCadden. Congratulations.

On Wednesday evening of last week a very large number of friends and neighbours met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Johnston, to shower the young couple, who were recently married. The following address was read by Miss Pearl Clugston:

Riverdale, May 23rd, 1934.
Dear Kenny and Ethel,—

We, your many friends and well-wishers, take this opportunity of coming to your home to present to you our heartiest congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy married life.

It has been our privilege to enjoy and prize your acquaintanceship for a number of years Kenny, and now we welcome you Ethel, to our community and hope that in your new surroundings you may feel as one of us.

Therefore to put our good wishes into form more tangible than words, we ask you to accept these gifts as a token of the high esteem in which you are held.

Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbors,

Clarence Boales.
George Irwin.

Mr. Johnston in a few words, thanked his friends for the gifts. The evening was spent in dancing.

HOSPITAL NEWS

The local hospital has been very busy. Every bed is occupied and there is need of more. Markdale citizens are very appreciative that we have such an institution here. Thanks to Dr. Carefoot who in the face of much discouragement has carried on. The district patronizing the hospital is gradually widening—a number of other doctors working with the home doctor. Ex-patients cannot speak too highly of the care they received.

A bare synopsis of hospital doings for May is as follows: Born, To Mr. and Mrs. S. Osbourne, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. John Fogarty, a daughter; to Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Shaw, twin daughters.

Mr. Geo. Mundle of Kimberley returned home after a sinus and goitre operation.

Mrs. Wes. Bell of Markdale also returned home after goitre operation—doing well.

Mrs. J. H. Lougheed of Thornbury is still in hospital after goitre operation—making good progress.

Mrs. Gordon Erskine of Markdale, R. R. 2, doing well after goitre operation.

Mrs. Cecil Alton of Markdale has returned home, doing well after goitre operation.

Mrs. Harold Fawcett, Kimberley, after her goitre operation has returned home.

Mr. Ernie Morwood of Kimberley came to hospital very much broken in health, but after goitre operation is home again making satisfactory progress.

Mrs. Clarence Alcox, R. R. 5, Markdale has returned home after appendicitis operation.

There were also several tonsil operations; a number were in for medical treatment and x-ray.

Deaths: May 17th, Mr. Merton Sewell, Markdale; May 30th, Beth Shaw, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Shaw.
