

HARKAWAY

On Tuesday evening, June 5th, about one hundred friends and neighbors gathered at the Halbert home to shower the bride-to-be, Miss Dorothy Halbert. The first part of the evening was spent in social chat, then Mr. T. H. Richardson was asked to take the chair and a programme of speeches, vocal and instrumental music was given by several of the friends present. Then the bride-to-be was asked to come forward. While Miss Lila Laycock read the address two well laden baskets were carried in by Messrs. Leverage Lyons, Arnold Hae, Harry and Glen Carbert. Misses Jean Rae and Dorothy Thompson assisted Dorothy with the parcels.

Harkaway, June 5th, 1934.
Dear Dorothy and Elmer.—We, your friends and neighbors, have gathered here with you on the eve of your marriage to wish you health, happiness and success in your journey together along the road of life.

It has been a privilege to have you resident in our community. We have found you always willing to assist in any worthy undertaking. It is with regret that we learn that after your marriage you are not going to reside in our immediate neighborhood but are glad to know that you will not be so far away but that you will be able to come back and see us frequently.

As a slight token of our esteem and affection we ask you to accept these gifts with the earnest wish that you may long live to enjoy them together with our continued friendship.

Signed on behalf of the community.
