ANDREW GILCHRIST

With startling suddenness the news of the death of Andrew Gilchrist spread over the village on Thursday morning last, death coming at about 2.30 a.m. in his 68th year, while he was sleeping. Apparently in the best of health, Mr. Gilchrist had been down town Wednesday evening visiting with friends who were in town that night. He had left for home at 10.30 and went to bed. Mrs. Gilchrist was awakened with his heavy breathing, but was unable to awaken him and in only a few seconds he passed away without regaining consciousness. His passing came as a great shock to his many friends in town and country and it was difficult to realize that one who had been in such good spirits the evening before could really have passed on so quickly.

Andrew Gilchrist was a man highly respected by all with whom he came in contact. Having suffered from various accidents himself throughout his life he was always sympathetic with others in trouble and ready at all times to assist any worthy cause. He was a member of St. John's United Church and particularly active in church work, being chairman of the Trustee Board and a member of the Board of Stewards. He was also a member of Prince Arthur Lodge No. 333, A.F. & A.M.

The late Andrew Gilchrist was born two miles south of Flesherton, on the farm now owned by Mr. C. Akins, and was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Gilchrist. He received his education at Flesherton Public School. In 1895 he married Miss Harriett Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Stewart, and together they took up farming a mile south of Ceylon, where they remained until they moved to Flesherton 14 years ago. For the past 12 years he has been caretaker of the Flesherton high school and gave efficient service, taking great interest in the up keep of the school.

Besides his sorrowing wife the late Mr. Gilchrist leaves five daughters, Ella (Mrs. Wm. Johnson) Clara (Mrs. Edgar Patterson) of Pricerville, Ethel (Mrs. John Nichol), Mabel (Mrs. W. Harrison), Annie (Mrs. R. Stevens), all residing in Artemesia township. He also leaves two brothers, W. J. Wilchrist of Cando, N. D., and Thomas Gilchrist of the 3rd line, Osprey.

The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon, with the service being held in St. John's United Church. The church was crowded beyond capacity with sympathizing friends who gathered to pay their last respects to a friend of such high regard. Rev. W. J. Scott, pastor of the church, had charge of the service, referred to the life of the deceased and gave a comforting message to the sorrowing relatives. "Lead Kindly Light" was rendered by a quartette, composed of Messrs. Jas. Robertson, Dr. Bryce, G. Cairns and Dr. Milne. A large number of his Masonic brethren accompanied their late brother in the journey to the cemetery, and after the religious ceremony, conducted their beautiful Masonic burial service, led by Wor. Bro. F. J. Thurston, W.M. of Prince Arthur Lodge, assisted by R. W. Bro. W. H. Kress of Durham, D.D. G.M. of Grey District.

Among the friends and relatives from a distance who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Weir, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Weir sr., Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Weir jr. and Mrs. Taylor, all of Collingwood; Mrs. (Dr.) Patterson, Mr. Frank Cairns, Mrs. Alex. Macdonald, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. McLeod, Mrs. P. Thibaudeau and family, Frank, Jackson and Irene Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Thibaudeau, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Griffen and Mr. Russell Nixon, all of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Nixon, Mr. L. Perry, all of Caledon; Mr. and Mrs. Reddick of Orangeville, Mr. Harvey Nixon of Mono Road, Mr. Alex. Stewart of Owen Sound.

The pallbearers were members of Prince Arthur Lodge: Messrs. F. H. W. Hickling, John McMillan, John Wright, Mark Wilson, O. W. Phillips, Thos. Henry.

A large number of floral tributes from sympathizing friends and relatives surrounded the casket, among them being an emblem from Prince Arthur Lodge No. 333, A.F.

& A.M., sprays from Board of Stewards of St. John's United Church, High School Board, High School teachers and one from the high school students.—Flesherton Advance.

WODEHOUSE

The New England Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Stanley Clugston on Friday afternoon, June 15th with an attendance of 13 members and visitors. The meeting opened by singing a verse of "When the roll is called up yonder", followed by repeating Lord's prayer. The president, Miss E. Lawson, read Psalm 96. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted and the roll call was answered by a verse of scripture with the word "peace". The word for the next meeting is "Trust." Several items of business were discussed. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Nelson Wilcox on Thursday, July 19th and will be conducted in the form of a tea and a program, which is to be prepared by Mrs. Rourke and Miss Ella Wiley. The program for this meeting was then given consisting of a reading "The Tapestry Wearer" by Mrs. Nelson Wilcox, two piano duets, Mrs. Rourke and Miss Emily Lawson, a reading "Joseph, the Brother of Jesus" by Mrs. S. Clugston. The program was very much enjoyed. The meeting closed by singing "I am thine O Lord". Collection $1.15. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. M. Deavitt and Miss Ella which was provided by the former and Mrs. J. Morrison and Mrs. Gordon Wiley.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cairns and sons Billie and Keith, accompanied by Mrs. Cairns' mother, Mrs. C. Wilcox of Flesherton, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wiley recently.

Mrs. E. Wilcox spent the week-end with relatives in the Kimberley Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Cornfield and daughters were visitors on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilcox.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fawcett, Teddy, Lorne and Miss Hazel Fawcett and gentleman friend motored to Swinton Park and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fawcett and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Clive Dolan and Mary and Mr. and Mrs. James Wiley and Clarence attended the Harkaway church and visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lawson on Sunday.

Mrs. Harold Fawcett and Eldon are visiting relatives here this week.

Mr. Richard Fawcett had a successful stoning bee one day last week. In appreciation of this neighborly act he intends treating them to a social evening of music and dancing soon.

The annual garden party here last week was a success. The softball game between Cherry Grove and Wodehouse was interesting, resulting in a victory for the visitors. An excellent supper followed this and other sports of various kinds followed. A good program brought the event to a close.
