How about the Federal Election? Seems to be quiet. Miss Macphail is beginning to warm up for the fight, but why worry. Miss Macphail is hustling around to know who she is, who she is to represent or to what party she belongs. First she was U.F.O., 2nd a head official of the C.C.F. and now a Liberal, U.F.O., Labor, Progressive with C. C. F. ideas. Miss Macphail in an address stated she could not declare herself in favour of all the ideas of the C.C.F. but that in general she was a supporter of C.C.F. policies, and that she and the party whom she represents were allies of the C. C. F. Then what under the heavens party does she represent or belong to? Listen Mister Grit, Tory, U.F.O., Labor or C.C.F. take a tip from me, if Miss Macphail were a man instead of a woman she would not last 10 minutes as a representative of South Grey. You will hear from us later.
