HOLLAND CENTRE

Mr. Harry Sargeant returned to Toronto on Monday after spending two weeks at his farm south of the village.

Jack, 7-year-old son of Mr. Wellington Bellrose, was a remarkable escape on Thursday last. A ladder had been left at the house eaves in order that some repairs might be made. During the temporary absence of the parents Jack climbed the ladder and up to the ridge and along the eaves. There he slipped and fell over the ten feet to the roof of the woodshed putting his feet through a bedroom window.
He then turned a somersault down to the ground, a further eight feet.
The father, returning, found that his son, aged six, had bathed the slight cut sustained, stopping the flow of blood. That was the only injury to the boy.

ted Church Ladies' Aid was held at clothing in response to the appeals

S. S. LESSON

Fellowship with Christ.
John 15: 1-16.

Golden Text: Abide in Me and I in
you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in Me.— John 15: 4.

Concise Comments
"I am the true vine", asserts God's Son divine.

As the branches, if we'd bear, His own life we needs must share.
Cleansed, through His word, are countless millions who have heard.

If in Him we fast abide we cannot be cast aside.
"Without Me ye can nothing do":
Try it and for ever true.

In Him and His word abiding:
true abode of celestial residing.
By our fruit God glorify. Christ's assurance credits high.

In the blest Trinitarian affection pursue the soul's e'er true direction—Loyal to the Lord's behests fitness for true life attests.

"In Thy presence IS FULLNESS of joy." Ps. 16: 11.
"Love one another", Christ's command includes all other. To that one command prove loyal and find His proffered friendship real.

Christ of you hath first made choice, answer to His pleading voice.
Abundant fruit, assures His grace, fitting each for larger place.
