

WODEHOUSE

Mr. R. H. Wiley received the sad news one day last week of the death of his brother-in-law, Mr. Joseph Proctor, of Caledon East. Those from this district who attended the funeral on Saturday last were, Mr. R. H. Wiley and his sons, George and Victor, accompanied by Mr. E. Wilcox and Mrs. Bourke, also Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Brown of Meaford, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Wilcox. Mr. Proctor was born on the farm now owned by Nelson Wilcox and was well known in this community before moving to Caledon where he followed the carpentering and contracting business. Mr. E. Wilcox worked under him at the trade. We sympathize with the relatives around this section in their bereavement.

Mrs. Geo. E. Cornfield and daughter, Violet, of Kimberley Valley spent a day last week with the former's mother, Mrs. T. L. Fawcett. The rain which fell in this community on Saturday night and Sunday was welcomed by the farmers as it will put the land in good shape for ploughing.

Mr. J. W. Cornfield was in this locality two days last week doing some carpenter work for Mr. James Wiley.

We extend sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown in the death of their young son which took place over a week ago.

Mr. Will Thompson has returned to his job with Mr. Geo. Wiley after a spell of two week's sickness.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Clugston upon the arrival of a young daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wiley and family, accompanied by Mrs. W. Breadner and Miss Alice Breadner, took a motor trip to Warton to visit Mr. Geo. Breadner, who is operating a turkey ranch there. George has a fine flock of over 700 turkeys.

The potato crop is especially good in this locality this season. Mr. George Wiley has well over 100 bags, the majority being of a large size. It was quite easy to fill up a 90 lb. bag with forty tubers, several of them weighing 3 lb. each.

There is a faint tingle of nuptial bells.
