Live Stock Market

(By Dunn & Leveck, Ltd., Toronto)
Supplies of cattle for the early markets of this week, were much heavier than had been anticipated, and the market has been slow, and prices from 15 to 25 cents lower on most classes. Choice quality cattle held on a fairly steady level, best heavy steers selling at from 4 1/2 to 5 cents, fair to good from 3 1/2 to 4 1/4. Choice butcher cattle ranged 3 1/2 to 4, with only a few tops at 4 1/4. Baby heaves were not as good as they have been recently, the bulk of the best bringing from 5 1/2 to 6 1/2, medium downward to 4 cents. There has been a heavy supply of cows, and the market extremely slow and the prices very disappointing, the bulk of the best cows selling from 1.50 to 2.10. The bull trade has held active and steady, best heavy bulls from 3 to 2 1/2, and choice feeders from 3 to 3 1/4, bolognas 2 to 2 1/4.
Stockers and feeders continued to sell readily, especially those of selected quality, while common kind were slow of sale and prices unsatisfactory. Best stockers from 2 1/2 to 3 1/2. Some of the undesirable kind that were neither fit for further feeding or killing purposes, were sold as boners at from 1 1/2 to 1 1/4.
The lamb trade continued to feature the market this week, opening strong on Monday at 7 cents for top lambs, and gaining a quarter today, Tuesday, best kind bringing 7 1/4 in carlots and 7 cents for truck deliveries. Best light sheep sold at from 2 1/2 to 3 cents. The calf trade recovered following the decline shown at the end of last week. Choice veal brought from 6 1/2 to 7 cents, fair to good 5 to 6 cents. Heavy calves from 2 1/2 to 3 1/2, common grass 2 1/2.
The hog market advanced another 15 cents on Monday, but eased back to a steady market on Tuesday, hogs selling on the basis of 7 1/4 f.o.b. and 7.60 off trucks. Unless supplies become too heavy, it is expected that the market will hold on a fairly steady level.

Ontario Legislature to Open Next March

The Hepburn Government will not call its first Legislature session until probably the first week in March, or even later, it was learned at Queen's Park last week. The Premier stated that no date had yet been decided but that it would likely be later than last year. In 1934 the Henry Government opened its pre-election session on Feb. 15. It was thought in many quarters that the present government would call an early session in view of the fact that the special session promised by Premier Hepburn was called off for various reasons. Quebec has already set January 8 as the date for the opening of its legislature, but this will have no effect on the plans of the Ontario Cabinet.

McConvey - Poy

An autumn wedding of much interest took place Thursday morning, November 8th, at 10 o'clock, in St. Joseph's Church, Markdale, when May Anna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Foy of Rocklyn, became the bride of Mr. Edward P. McConvey of Chatsworth. Rev. Father Grace officiated at the nuptial mass. Preceding the ceremony a programme of nuptial music was played by the organist, Miss Eileen Thompson.

The bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her father. She was charming in a gown of white satin fashioned along princess lines. The bodice, trimmed at the back with white satin buttons, was distinguished by the long sleeves puffed over elbow. The neckline was broken by brilliant clasps. The moulded skirt formed a train. The veil of muslin was arranged with a halo cap with a wreath of hly of the valley and she carried a chateleine bouquet of Bride's Rapture roses and maiden hair fern in which nestled her white prayer book. She wore a brooch worn by her mother when a bride and the gift of the groom, a white gold necklace.

Miss Barbara Curry was her cousin's attendant and wore a large brown velvet hat and accessories to match. Her flowers formed an arm bouquet of bronze and gold chrysanthemums with maiden hair fern and gold streamers. Mr. George Foy, cousin of the bride, supported the groom. Miss Eileen Thompson rendered Lohengrin's wedding march as the bridal party entered the church and took their places at the sanctuary rail. At the offertory Mrs. W. J. Arrowsmith sang sweetly the "Ave Maria," and at communion Mr. Raymond Grace gave a beautiful rendition of "Oh, God of Thy Loveliness." At the signing of the register, "O Sacred Heart" was fittingly rendered by Mrs. W. J. Arrowsmith and Mr. Raymond Grace.

At the reception, held at the home of the bride's parents, following the ceremony, a fowl dinner was served to some fifty guests. The dining room was tastefully decorated with white and maize streamers, centred with a large white wedding bell which hung above the four storey cake. Bud vases of cream roses and bronze mums and tapers in yellow and white completed the effect. The assistants in serving were Mrs. T. A. Gilray and Mrs. Ivan Cook. Mr. Ivan Cook was the table escort.

The guests present from a distance were: Miss May Kelly, Misses Minnie and Maude McConvey, Mr. and Mrs. Will McConvey, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McConvey of Toronto; Rev. Father Grace; Mr. Raymond Grace, Miss Eileen Thompson, Mrs. W. J. Arrowsmith, Mr. Syl. Martin and Mr. Geo. Foy, Markdale; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Cook, Detroit; Mrs. Donlon, Mr. Allan Cameron and Mr. George McCallum, Chatsworth.

The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful gifts. The bridesmaid was presented with a white gold necklace with topaz drop and the groomsmen with an Eversharp fountain pen.
Later in the evening the happy couple left for their home in Chatsworth.

McCartney on Thursday, November 15th, when their only daughter, Norma Viola, was united in marriage to Mr. John William Hemphill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. E. Hemphill, of Proton Station. Rev. W. S. Alpine of Brampton officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was beautifully gowned in blue sheer crepe. At the conclusion of the ceremony the bride led the way to the dining room where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served to the guests. Rev. W. S. McAlpine and Rev. J. T. Glazier proposed the toasts to the bride, which were responded to by the groom. The evening was spent in music and dancing. The happy couple are spending their honeymoon in Toronto and West Hill and upon their return will reside in Georgetown.

Communication

Markdale, Ont., Nov. 19, 1934
Dear Mr. Editor,—
I want to congratulate you on your last week's paper. It was much better. Everyone likes their home paper. Home news; something about your home town gets into your blood. I am a young lady, have plenty of friends in the cities and different places. I love to praise my town, etc.
Now, Mr. Editor, how about some sports for the town; no pleasure in motoring this time of the year. Wouldn't a masquerade dance in the Armouries be a lot of fun? Young and old could come, a small charge at the door to cover expenses and the remainder to help to organize the hockey team. I have been to several masquerade dances and it is such fun.
Yours for a better town.
'Interested.'

Soo Star claims there are many men carrying knives in that district for no good purpose. Maybe our contemporary is confusing them with the gay young blades.
