Mrs. Wilma J. March served in several capacities during the Tin Can Tourist Convention held in Saratoga Feb. 11th to 17th, reporting for the Toronto Telegram, the Markdale Standard and representing the Canadian National Exhibition. She also represented the Zephyrhills News and officially extended an invitation on behalf of that city to the tourists assembled in camp. Speaking before two thousand people, the international greetings from the C.N.E. were extended for all to visit "the largest annual fair in the world" after the summer session of the convention, in the city of Grand Rapids, the second week of August. The same invitation was given before a packed theatre, when the Casford Players, of whom Jean McDonald of Toronto was leading lady, offered "Rooms for Tourists" for the pleasure of the city Tourist Club. Mrs. March is being instrumental in staging the first Canadian program for the Tourist Convention, this summer and hopes that before many seasons to complete arrangements for the convention to be held in Toronto prior to the C.N.E. The T.C.T. organization is a universal one, not just American.

TRAVERTON

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. William Sweeney of the 5th con. on Feb. 19, a son. Congratulations.
Mrs. Douglas Currier of Toronto suffered a paralytic stroke a few weeks ago at her home. The latest news reports her recovering of speech. We hope she may soon be restored to her natural health.
Word was received to-day, Feb. 25th, that Mr. Wm. Badie of Toronto had passed away at noon hour. He was married about forty years ago to Miss Hattie Banks of Edge Hill, both were well known around Zion. Interment is to take place at Zion on Wednesday. We extend sympathy to the bereaved family.
Miss Clara Greenwood, Reg.N., returned home last week. We learn her patient, Mr. Wm. McArthur, is progressing well, since undergoing the minor operation in Markdale hospital.

Inspector Pentland paid his official visit to S. S. No. 4 and 5 schools on Wednesday of last week. He found everything very satisfactory in both schools.
Miss Olive Allen spent the past week visiting friends in and around Durham.
Mr. John Grierson was out in the neighborhood last week and made purchase of stock from R. E. Bryan's, Jos. R. Edwards and your scribe.

The cold clip this Tuesday morning with its clammy and piercing nor'easter is causing many a frozen ear and nose. Oh! for the sunny days of April!
Cook Bros. cut up big piles of poles last week for Graham and Chas. Timmins, John Timmins and at the Cook homestead.
Charles G. Robson was in the employ of Will Ryan of the 4th con. for several days putting up a big pile of fence corner elms for the buzz saw.
Howard Ritchie is certainly wood king out this way. He purchased two acres of timber land from Will Sweeney and has it nearly all hauled home to T. E. Blair's big farm yard and has six or seven monster piles, besides another pile on the Burrell lot on the 9th con. He'll be able to supply Durham's requirements next winter. Percy Greenwood has been an able assistant all winter and Cameron Robson the past few weeks.

HOLLAND CENTRE

We are having real wintry weather at time of writing.

A Word of Advice to Our Cream Patrons

As the butter market for some time past has been very favourable and it looks to us as if it will be even better in the near future, why not benefit by it? Our advice is to increase the feed to your dairy herd and benefit while you are getting higher market prices. To convince you that we are in line with the market at all times just compare our prices with the prices paid by any other Creamery.

OUR MOTTO. HIGHER PRICES, ACCURATE TEST AND WEIGHT.
