Holland Council met in the township hall on Tuesday and transacted the usual routine of business.

Mr. and Mrs. James Crowther Jr. of Toronto spent the week-end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Crowthers of the village. Mr. Crowthers, who has been confined to his home for some time, is much improved.

Miss Wellerman, who was in Toronto writing off a test at the Normal School, was met in the city by friends with whom she will spend about two weeks in their Muskoka home.

Misses Alma and Isobel McMullen sang acceptably a duet in the course of the service Sunday evening in the United Church. Miss Isobel was on a brief vacation from Toronto Normal School to which she returned Monday morning.

Mrs. Wm. Holley of the village was the hostess to the monthly gathering of the United Church Ladies' Aid on Thursday afternoon. There was a good attendance of members and visitors when the president called the meeting to order. The hymn "Take time to be holy" was followed with prayer by Mesdames W. Fee and Nesbit. The secretary, Mrs. W. C. Wakefield, read the minutes of the last meeting and also called the roll which was responded to by quotations stressing the word "Obey". Helpful and entertaining readings were given by Mesdames G. and W. Hampton. Good progress is being made with the name quilt and also the play which is being practised in conjunction with the Young People's Society. In addition to helping local needs a donation was voted to the Famine Fund for our African Mission Field. An invitation to meet at the home of Mrs. Carson Price was accepted for the March meeting. The responsive word is to be "Friend". After the closing prayer and benediction by the pastor lunch and a social hour added to the enjoyment.

The following is the address: Vandeleur, Feb. 26th, 1935.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Mitchell and Allan:

Having learned of your approaching removal from our midst, we, of the Vandeleur community have assembled here this evening to spend a few pleasant hours with you. We feel that we cannot let you go without expressing our sincere regret at your departure. We know that you are losing good neighbours and you will be greatly missed in the community.

We appreciate very much your willingness to help in all our social activities. Your home has been a spot where kindness and goodwill existed.

We are glad that you are not going far away, and hope that there will be many occasions when you can all resume your associations with us. In our hearts we shall always cherish a friendly feeling toward you and shall always have an interest in your welfare. As a token of our esteem we trust you will accept, Mr. Taylor this pipe and pouch and Mrs. Taylor this set of dishes and granite ware and money and Mitchell and Allan these hockey sticks. As you use them may they bring pleasant memories of your friends here. With them go our very best wishes for health and prosperity in your new home.

Signed on behalf of the community.

Will Ratcliffe.
Otto Baker.
W. H. Fitzpatrick.

A Word of Advice to Our Cream Patrons

As the butter market for some time past has been very favourable and it looks to us as if it will be even better in the near future, why not benefit by it? Our advice is to increase the feed to your dairy herd and benefit while you are getting higher market prices. To convince you that we are in line with the market at all times just compare our prices with the prices paid by any other Creamery.
