Mrs. Mel. Ward returned home on Saturday after visiting her sister, Mrs. Leonard Strange, in Owen Sound.

Quite a number from here attended Mr. Isaac Elder's sale in Markdale on Saturday.

Mrs. A. McConnell was the hostess to the Ladies' Aid last Thursday. Mrs. C. C. Wellerman presiding over a more than average attendance.

Mrs. McConnell, as secretary, read the minutes of the February meeting and called the roll. In future the wholesome custom of answering the roll-call with a verse of scripture or poem around an appropriate key-word is to be followed. For the next meeting the word is "Love".

Inquiries had been received as to the willingness of the Aid to do quilting where the material is provided. These will be answered favourably and a price was agreed upon. Poems were read by Mrs. G. Caswell, Mrs. C. Rowe, Mrs. A. Stafford and Misses M. Ritchie and E. Caswell. Mrs. C. Rowe also presided at the piano. The next gathering is to be at Mrs. Wm. Kirk's. At the close the hostess entertained her guests to a table lunch.

A St. Patrick's concert and social was held in the United Church auditorium and basement on Friday evening. Those contributing to the programme were Misses A. Richards with solos, Wida Walters a recitation, Rev. C. Wellerman, Mrs. Nels. Kirk, Miss Dorothy Flynn readings, while Miss Whaley superintended a dialogue. A trio of Irish songs were rendered by the audience. Mrs. H. Richards presided at the piano. The pastor was chairman for the occasion. At the close of the concert adjournment was made to the basement where games were indulged in under the leadership of Mrs. Albert Stafford and a substantial lunch was served by the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ransome jr. of Holland Centre were visitors to the parental home here on Sunday.

VANDELEUR

The world is getting better. Such was the decision of the judges after hearing a debate on the subject held at the St. Patrick's Day social in Vandeleur church on Friday evening, March 15th, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid. The debate, which was the feature of a fine programme, was keenly contested and strong and convincing arguments were brought forward by all four speakers. Howard Graham and Mrs. Frank Davis supported the affirmative, while the negative was upheld by Mrs. F. R. Boland and Harold Thompson. The judges were Messrs. W. H. Fitzpatrick, Geo. Buchanan and Otto Baker who decided unanimously in favour of the affirmative. Other numbers in the program were community singing; readings by Mr. W. H. Fitzpatrick; solo by Mr. Geo. Buchanan; instrumental music by Messrs. Will Hutchinson and H. Thompson. Three contests, conducted by Mrs. Fitzpatrick, Ken. Teeter and Mrs. H. I. Graham, were exceptionally interesting and much enjoyed by all. Prizes were presented to the winners. A dainty luncheon was served by the ladies. A silver collection was taken to defray expenses. Mr. E. Waring occupied the chair.

Assessor F. R. Boland is making his rounds in the community this week, having about completed his work in the township for 1935.

The first car of the season went up the 12th line on Monday afternoon. Black birds, robins and other birds have returned. The 21st of March has arrived, and sap's running, so spring must be here.

Mr. Carman Sewell is recovering from his recent illness with pneumonia.

EBENEZER

Mr. Dixon McFadden of Detroit was a recent visitor with his mother, Mrs. Jas. Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Knight and family visited with friends at Woodford and Owen Sound.

Mrs. F. W. Taylor attended a quilting at the home of Mrs. Will Swanton, East Back Line.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Smith, Pleasant Valley, were recent visitors with Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Freeman.

Mrs. Russell Freeman, Douglas and Morris, spent a day with Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Graham at Vandeleur.

Mrs. Will Burrell of Rocklyn returned home after visiting with her mother here.

Mrs. H. Knight spent a day with Mr. and Mrs. E. Graham, Vandeleur.

The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. W. H. Heath on Monday, March 11th. Considerable business was taken up. Programs for the year were distributed. A St. Patrick's Day reading by Miss Jean Wyville and a paper by Mrs. W. S. Walker were well given. A contest—St. Patrick makes love at the wheel—put on by Mrs. Thos. Freeman, caused much amusement. The hostess served a dainty lunch.

TRAVERSTON

Mrs. Jos. Atkinson returned to the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Edwards, on Saturday after spending the winter months in Palmerston.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Peart attended the auction sale at Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barbour's, Egremont, last Wednesday and Mrs. Peart remained until Saturday with her parents.

Quite a number of young folk attended a party held at the home of Mr. Robt. Peart last Friday eve. There was a happy time spent at the Crokinole Social held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Ellison last Friday evening.

Messrs. T. L. Edwards of Shelburne and W. H. Edwards of Toronto spent the first of the week at the parental home.

The auction sale held last Thursday on the premises of Mrs. John Laughlin proved a success. Mr. Alex. Aubrey returned from Toronto to assist at the sale.

We are sorry to report Mr. Ernest Webster suffering from blood poisoning in his hand.

The Cook brothers saved wood for Nelson's on Saturday and McClocklin's on Monday.

Mr. Thos. McAssey has the contract of sawing several piles of poles for Mr. H. C. Ritchie.

Mrs. Jas. McNally and son visited with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bryans early in the week.

Mrs. Wm. Paylor has been ill during the past week but is on the way to recovery.

Members of the Haley family received word recently announcing the death of their sister, Catherine Agnes (Mrs. John L. Simpson), of Midland on March 16th. She was born in Glenelg about 65 years ago and was married in 1890. Her husband predeceased her but a family of four daughters, Angela, Agnes, Bernadine and Mary (Mrs. S. Wilson), all of Midland, and three sons, Jack of Windsor, Frank of North Bay, Gerard of Toronto, and five brothers survive.

HOLLAND CENTRE

With Spring just around the corner the winds seem cold enough as yet.
