Semi-Pros. Defeat the Rural League Champs

Cherry Grove, winners of Markdale Rural League series, met Proton Station, champions of the Semi-Pro. League and holders of the McDougal cup, in a game at the local arena on Thursday evening last. It was a closely contested game and both teams fought hard for victory.

In the first period each team got four counters, Alvin Noble getting two and Archie McCauley two for the Euphrasia boys while Gordon Acheson got two and Russell Acheson and Lloyd Lyons one each for the Proton aggregation.

Shortly after the opening of the second frame Lloyd Lyons scored again and Russell Acheson duplicated a few minutes later. Noble scored again for Cherry Grove and B. Fitzsimmons followed his example, making the score 6-6.

Proton too all the counters in the third spasm. Gordon Acheson got the first; Lloyd Lyons the second and Roy Livermore the third and fourth. The fifth went off a Proton stick to count for Cherry Grove and the final went to Proton from a scramble in front of the goal. The final score was Proton 11, Cherry Grove 7.

T. D. Berry handled the game in a satisfactory manner.

Dundalk Defeated by Markdale in Overtime

Dundalk juniors played the local juniors here on Friday evening and went home with the short end of a 5-4 score. It was a keenly contested game and at the beginning looked like a sure win for the visitors. They scored four goals in the first period while the locals were able to get but one. In the second period Markdale got two and added another in the final spasm. The game had gone into the third five-minute overtime period before the locals were able to score the winning goal.

Markdale players were: Goal, G. Dundas; defence, M. Burnside and D. Hunt; centre, Harry Burnside; wings, R. Burrell and N. Hartley; alternates, D. Noble, R. McCauley, A. Fitzsimmons, V. Irwin, C. Page, S. Borinsky, Bill Burrell. Referee—T. D. Berry.

MEAFORD VICINITY

Nice Spring weather but rather cool. Many farmers have started working on the land.

We understand Mr. Jasper Stuart has purchased the black team belonging to Mr. Harvey McKay.

An extremely large funeral took place on Wednesday when the remains of the late George McCartney, well known farmer, were laid to rest in Duxbury Cemetery in St. Vincent. Many friends, neighbors and relatives from distant places attended and his late residence was filled to capacity. Rev. J. H. Curtis of the Meaford Baptist Church was in charge of the service and spoke very highly of the deceased. Many and beautiful were the floral tributes. The flower bearers were Messrs. George Fitzsimmons, Wm. Cavers, Reuben and Oliver Dobson, Walter Graham, Thomas Foster and Thos. Neeley jr. The pallbearers were Messrs. William F. and Albert Robinson, Thos. Thomas, Robt. McLean, Thos. Neeley sr. and Henry McCartney. The late George McCartney passed away last Monday and is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Millie McCullough, and one daughter, Minola, at home.

We are sorry to report that Mr. Lawrence Smith is very sick at present.

Mr. Gordon Fawcett of Kimberley is visiting at present with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Fawcett.

Golf Course in Markdale

Markdale will have a golf course if the present plans of local enthusiasts materialize. A meeting was held last week when a club was organized and officers chosen. It was decided to construct a five-hole course in King Edward Park and committees were appointed to look after the work. A membership fee of $3.00 will be charged for gentlemen and $1.50 for ladies. With the course at Dr. L. G. Campbell's farm in Euphrasia and one in the Park here the local golfers should be able to enjoy themselves this year.

C. R. Itic Takes Trip To Toronto Saturday

Dear Readers,—I missed Herb Walker's sale on Saturday last but they tell me it was quite successful in spite of my absence. I took advantage of the cheap fare given by the C.P.R. to Toronto, at only $1.90. The little woman went along with me, or as a matter of fact I went along with her. She has been wanting to go to the city for a long time and early last week she offered to pay my expenses if I would go along to show her around and assist in carrying any parcels she might accumulate in shopping at the big stores. We were at the station here bright and early Saturday morning and there was quite a stir around the depot. The rest of the crowd from here was pretty nearly all in the young people's class, although Mr. Messenger, Principal of the Public School, and the new High School teacher were along. I don't know the new teacher but the little woman told me who he was.

When we go on the train I got the little woman comfortably settled in the first class coach and then went into the smoker with the rest of the men. Here I spies Jack Price and Tom Mitchell's boy from Berkeley. They too were on their way to the city. We had quite a pleasant and uneventful trip but the scenery on the new route from Orangeville was all new to me as I hadn't been over the road since they eliminated the horseshoe curve down the Caledon mountain.

When we got to Toronto the train stopped right on top of the new station and we had to go down the steps in order to get inside. I had to make enquiry as to the best way to get to Yonge Street and I was told that we were right at the foot of it. On getting outside the first big new building that I set my eyes on was the Royal York Hotel. I wanted to go in to have a look at it but the little woman objected as she said it would take almost the whole day to see the place. We went on up Yonge Street and I headed straight for the Tremont House, where we used to put up when we went to the exhibition years ago. I walked and looked but failed to locate and finally I asked a policeman where it was. He told me he had been on the force ever since he came from Ireland but had never heard of it. A second policeman told us that it had been changed to a store several years ago so we slipped into a cafe for a bite to eat.

I enjoyed the bill of fare but the little woman was shocked at the number of girls with painted lips who sat at the little tables smoking cigarettes. It was different to the old days and what we see at home.

After finishing our dinner we visited the big stores but the only thing purchased was a pair of roller skates for one of the youngsters. We got back to the station in good time to catch the train home that night. As it was too early to have supper before leaving Toronto we decided to wait until we arrived home.

The youngsters were all at the station here to meet us and we were welcomed home right royally. By the time we got supper and I had the cow milked it was time for bed and I was tired enough to get there as fast as I could.

Late George Graham

(From our Eugenia Correspondent)

On Sunday evening, March 31, another of our aged pioneer residents passed to the Great Beyond in the person of Mr. George Graham in his 87th year. "The young will, the old must."

The late Mr. Graham was born at Newton, Dumfriesshire, Scotland, in 1855, when a little lad of seven years, he came to Canada with his parents, the ocean voyage taking nine weeks. The family settled in Innisfil, later moving to Nottawa village where they resided for a time, then moved to Artemesia township where Mr. Graham assisted his father in logging and building a home out of the dense forest. He joined the 31st regiment of the volunteers and when a lad of 18 years was called to take part in the Fenian raid in 1866. Like his father he was a blacksmith and carried on the trade at Vandeleur for nine years. While there he was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Ellis of Orangeville, who pre-deceased him in 1920. From Vandeleur he moved to Kimberley where he operated a saw mill for around 19 years. Next he purchased a timber limit from the late Mr. W. K. Flesher on the valley road where he erected a fine brick residence and ran a saw mill for a number of years. For several years preceeding his death he resided in and around Eugenia.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon directed by Undertaker E. J. Bennett of Flesherston. The remains were taken to the United Church at 1.30 o'clock p.m. where a large attendance of friends and neighbors had gathered to pay their last respects to the esteemed gentleman. Rev. Mr. Bushell, pastor of the United Church, officiated delivering a comforting and impressive sermon, taking as his text St. John 14:12 "Because I go unto the Father". He made a contrast of life—for some it was likened unto a ship drifting on the ocean without a port, but for the deceased his port was the Father in Heaven. The late Mr. Graham was a great reader of the Bible and could quote many fine passages of Scripture and give excellent explanations of almost any passage in the Bible. For Scripture reading the minister read II Cor., chap. 5, "For we know that if our earthly house," etc. The hymns selected by friends were "Jesus Lover of My Soul" and "Asleep in Jesus". The choir sang "Some time we'll understand". At the close of the service the people filed by the casket to take a farewell look at the departed. The late Mr. Graham was a kind neighbor and friend and will be greatly missed in this locality. He was very ambitious and was quite active until the past year. This winter he was seized by pneumonia and other ailments, accompanying old age which terminated in death. Interment took place in the family plot in Markdale cemetery. The floral tokens were beautiful and included a pillow from the family; a spray from Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Graham and family, and a spray from friends and neighbors. The pallbearers were Messrs. L. Latimer, Wes. Cooley, Robt. Purvis, Fred. Pedlar and Alex. Cameron.

To the late Mr. and Mrs. Graham were born nine children, six boys and three girls, namely: Jean at home; Lillie, who died from effects of the San Francisco earthquake; Edward of Clarksburg; Wellington, deceased; Bert and Cardwell in Eugenia; Edgar in New York State; Fred. at Walkerton; Ruby (Mrs. Thos. Hoggard) at Thornbury. He is survived by one brother, Mr. J. I. Graham of Vandeleur, also 17 grandchildren.

To the bereaved we extend our profound sympathy.

Friends from a distance who attended the funeral were: Misses Emily and Bella Walker of Thornbury; Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Graham and family of Vandeleur; Mr. and Mrs. Ran. Bradey of Cherry Grove; the Weber families of Kimberley; Mr. and Mrs. Porter Beard, south of Flesherston.

"Thou departed! thou departed!
They visit us in dreams
And flit about our memories
Like shadows o'er the streams"
