

EUGENIA

Miss Millie McMullen returned to Toronto after spending the Easter vacation with her mother here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hill of Orange Valley visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Lawlor.

Miss Doris Fawcett and brother, Reggie, have returned home after spending Easter holidays at the home of their sister, Mrs. T. Hazard.

Miss Sylvia Acheson of Victoria Corners spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Len. Latimer. We were pleased to see Miss Acheson back for a visit in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson and son, Ian, and Roy Fawcett of Kimberley visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Jamieson.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Fenwick and family visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Linton at Victoria Corners.

We are very sorry to report Mrs. Fred. Duckett ill at present and under the doctor's care. We hope she is soon well again.

Congratulations to Mrs. Wm. Hislop, who celebrated the 79th anniversary of her birthday on April 25. We wish her many more happy returns of the day.

Mr. Charles Park was brought home from the Markdale hospital and is recuperating at his home here. We wish him a complete recovery from his recent operation.

A number from here attended the funeral of the late Mr. Wm. Pedlar of Rock Mills, which took place to Salem cemetery on Sunday. We express our sympathy to the bereaved relatives of the deceased.

Mrs. W. Widdifield of Toronto is spending a couple of weeks with her sister, Mrs. C. Graham.

Miss Louise Falconer of Priceville is visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. Harold Falconer.

The Y. P. S. Meeting

The Y.P.S. held their meeting on Wednesday evening of last week with 17 in attendance. During the absence of the President, Rev. A. Bushell, and the Literary Convenor, Miss Phyllis Graham, Mrs. Charles Martin presided, taking the worship and discussion periods. The topic for the evening was "Poetry of Passion Week". Scripture passages were read by Wesley Jamieson and Willie Fenwick. A poem, "Sheep and Lambs", was read by Victor Campbell. Harold Benson read another piece of poetry, "The Bread of Life". Hazel Turner read another selection suitable for Passion Week, entitled "His are the Thousands Sparkling Rills". Recreation consisted of contests and a game after which the meeting was closed in the usual way.

Auction Sale

Mr. Wm. Benson had a successful auction sale on Monday of this week. He is giving up farming and moving with his wife and family into apartments in Mr. Joseph Sherwood's spacious residence. We understand Mr. Wilfred Magee has rented the Conn property where Mr. Benson resided the past couple of years.

Mrs. Wm. Walker Sr. Dead

We are very sorry to report another death in our vicinity, that of Mrs. Wm. Walker sr., who passed away on Monday evening of this week. Particulars later.

The Late Wm. Gorley

The remains of the late William Gorley were removed from the Mortuary Chapel in Markdale cemetery to the family plot in Salem cemetery on Saturday last. The late Mr. Gorley, who was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Gorley, was a resident of Eugenia until the last few years. He leaves in bereavement three sisters and one brother: Mrs. Collins of Newmarket; Mrs. Walker Sloan of Eugenia; Mrs. Stoba of Toronto and Mr. Robt. Gorley of Eugenia. To them we extend our sympathy.

The Late Alexander McKenzie

At Eagle River on Thursday, April 18th, there passed away in his 81st year Mr. Alexander McKenzie. He was a son of the late Donald and Emily McKenzie and was born in King township. While quite young he moved with his parents to Ceylon. Later he went West, where he married Miss Jane Lucas 47 years ago and moved to Victoria, B.C., where they lived for some years, then going to Eagle River, Ontario, where they took up residence and lived ever since. The late Mr. McKenzie had been in failing health for a number of years and after his wife's death on March 24th last he gradually grew worse until the end came. To them were born a family of three children, Mrs. Gardiner (Emily), Eagle River; Donald at Dryden and Jane at Winnipeg. The late Mr. McKenzie was well known in this part, especially around Flesherton. His daughter, Jane, attended High School here some years ago and will be remembered by old school mates. Besides his family he leaves in sad bereavement, one brother, Mr. Geo. McKenzie of Ceylon; a sister, Mrs. Wm. Hislop of Eugenia; two nieces, Mrs. John Campbell and Mrs. Wilfred Magee of Eugenia, and a nephew, Mr. Stewart, Hislop of Calgary. We extend our sympathy to them in their double bereavement.

TRAVERSTON

Mrs. Philip Harrison and daughter, Ilene, of Swinton Park spent last week at the Nelson home.

Mrs. Thos. E. Blair of Durham received the sad news of her brother Arthur's death at Winnipeg on Sunday. We extend sincere sympathy to the relatives. The deceased, Mr. Arthur Bradley, was a former resident in Markdale vicinity and will be remembered by many.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Macfarlane were recent visitors with the Davis family.

Mrs. A. A. Lyons and daughter, Edna, of Harkaway visited one day last week with the Edwards and J.

J. Peart families. Mrs. W. J. Cook received word last week that her grandson, Hugh Cook, of Kitchener had an operation for mastoids in the hospital in that city.

Misses Isabel and Margaret Flinn, Messrs. Eddie and John Flinn were recent guests at the Greenwood and Ritchie homes.

Master Chas. Atkinson of Chatsworth spent part of his Easter vacation with his cousin, Raymond Edwards.

Mr. Michael Burke is a patient in Markdale hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. Robt. G. Peart of near Durham visited on Sunday with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Barbour of Egremont spent a couple of days last week with Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Peart. A few from this neighborhood attended the wedding of Miss Joy Priest and Mr. John McDonald, which took place in Durham Baptist Church.

BEAVERDALE

The April meeting of the Ladies' Guild of Beaverdale was held at the home of Mrs. Richard Clarke. The meeting was in the form of a quilting bee. There were six members and twelve visitors present. It was decided that the next meeting be held in the Church on Thursday, May 23rd. After considerable business, Rev. Perry closed the meeting with the benediction after which the hostess served a dainty lunch assisted by Miss E. C. McInnis and Mrs. R. Fothergill. A very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by all.

There will be evening service in Beaverdale Church on May 12th at 7.30 o'clock.
