Mrs. W. J. Reid Passes

Death brought relief from suffering, borne with great fortitude, early Friday morning, May 10th, when Nellie Patterson, wife of Mr. Wm. J. Reid, died at her home on the Old Durham Road.

Although Mrs. Reid's health had been failing for the past three years, her condition became very grave during the last three weeks. Every care was given by Dr. Milne and Mrs. Alex. Whyte but death came with considerable shock to her sorrowing husband and friends.

Mrs. Reid was 59 years of age and was married nineteen years ago, coming then to their home on the O.D.R. She possessed a bright and cheerful disposition and her death is greatly mourned by a wide circle of friends.

The funeral was held on Sunday, Rev. McDonald of Priceville having charge and burial was made in McNeil's cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. James, Bob and John Oliver, William and John Meads, Wilfred Waters and Walter Williamson. Relatives from a distance who attended the funeral were deceased's half brother, Mr. Jas. Patterson, his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Turner and two children of Toronto; Mrs. Tuck of Holstein, aunt of Mr. Reid; Mrs. Sewell and Mrs. Patton of Flesherton, and Mr. Jas. Reid of Conn.
