MARKDALE, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, JUNE 13th, 1935

ESTABLISHED 1880

Mrs. Mary McKechnie

Mrs. Mary McKechnie, widow of the late Neil McKechnie, died at the home of her son, Mr. William McKechnie, near Brampton on Monday, June 10th, aged 82 years. The funeral takes place to-day at Markdale Cemetery with a service in Annesley Church here at 2 o'clock. The late Mrs. McKechnie was born at Georgetown and after marriage resided for a great many years in the township of Glenelg. Mrs. Harold Watson of Glenelg is a daughter.

Mrs. Robert Morrison

Mrs. Maria Morrison, widow of the late Robert Morrison, passed away at the home of her son, Mr. Wm. J. Morrison, in Artemesia on Sunday, June 2nd, in her 80th year. Her maiden name was Maria Kernahan. She was born on August 6th, 1854, and on Nov. 10th, 1875, in Osprey township she was married to the late Robert Morrison, who passed away July 4th, 1930. They resided in Osprey township until about eight years ago when they came to reside with their son close to this village.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon of last week to Markdale cemetery and was largely attended. The services were in charge of Rev. Albert Mills. Many relatives and friends from outside points were present at the funeral.

The late Mrs. Morrison is survived by five sons and one daughter, namely: Ernest at McCord, Sask.; John A. in Euphrasia; Edgar H. and Russell in Regina; Wm. J., with whom she resided, and Mrs. J. W. Gamey, Strathclair, Man. Mr. John A. Kernahan of Osprey township is a brother.

John James Johnston

After an illness of some years standing from a blood condition, the death of John James Johnston, a pioneer farmer of Euphrasia township and a resident of Meaford for some ten years, occurred at his residence, Sykes street, on Sunday afternoon, in his 65th year. Deceased was confined to bed about six weeks during which time his condition caused alarm to his family and friends.

The late Mr. Johnston was born on the Euphrasia-Collingwood townline near Heathcote, and when a young man he and his father moved to Euphrasia and settled on the centre lot of Euphrasia on the Seventh line, about two miles above Rocklyn. In those days bears were not uncommon in Euphrasia and he told many bear stories from time to time.

In 1894 deceased was married to Miss Eliza Ann Breadner, also of Euphrasia, and the young couple made their home on his farm until moving to Meaford. Besides his widow he is survived by one son and one daughter: Cecil C. of Meaford and Mrs. Russell Graham on the old homestead. He also leaves a brother, R. J. Johnston, of Clarksburg, and three sisters, Mrs. A. M. Noble and Mrs. Jos. Loughheed of Toronto, and Mrs. Richard Miller of Markdale.

The late Mr. Johnston was for many years a stalwart member of the Rocklyn Agricultural Society and gave good service. He also attended Temple Hill Church and after coming to Meaford identified himself with Erskine United. He was a trustee at S. S. No. 19, Euphrasia, for many years. He was also a staunch Conservative in politics.

The funeral was held from the home of his son, Nelson street, to Lakeview Cemetery on Tuesday afternoon. Service was conducted in Erskine United Church by Rev. Mr. Crighton assisted by Rev. W. M. Lee of Alliston, formerly of Temple Hill, and an old and highly esteemed friend of deceased. The pallbearers were Messrs. J. E. Saul, Clifford Erskine, Robert Breadner, James Johnston, Geo. Snell and Wesley Davis. Flower bearers were Messrs F. L. Hamley, H. J. Ellis, Nelson Morrison, Wm. Hackett, Emerson Davis, Alex. Miller and Hugh Johnston.—Meaford Express.

Girl Killed by Car

Marie Stinson, the seven-year-old daughter of Mr. Ernest A. Stinson, who resides near Victoria Corners in Artemesia township, was killed on Thursday morning of last week when hit by a car driven by Mr. E. Woods of Orangeville. The little girl had been given a ride in a car driven by Mr. Milton Bannon and with other children in the car alighted at the corner near the school. She ran around the car and in front of the Woods car travelling in the opposite direction. Mr. Bannon took her to the office of Dr. Martin in Dundalk where she passed away without regaining consciousness.

The funeral took place to Flesheron cemetery on Saturday afternoon and was very largely attended. Rev. J. R. Wilkinson of Dundalk conducted the services.

At the inquest held in Dundalk to-day no blame was placed on the driver of the car.

Thomas Irwin Fawcett

On Saturday, June 1st, the whole community was shocked to learn of the passing of Mr. T. I. Fawcett, a highly respected resident of Wodehouse. Until the late Mr. Fawcett contracted a bad cold, which developed into double pneumonia, he had been active in his farm duties to within a few days before his death.

The deceased was born August 4, 1858, near Heathcote and was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Fawcett. On May 26, 1884, he was married to Alliston to Miss Charlotte Robinson of Albion township, taking up residence at Woodstock and moving a few years later to a farm on the 7th line of Euphrasia township.

The funeral took place on June 4 from his late home at Wodehouse to New England Church and cemetery and was largely attended. A short service was held at the home during which time the hymn "Thee We Adore, Eternal Name", a favorite of the deceased's, was sung. The service at the Church was conducted by Rev. S. McAuslan, assisted by Rev. J. R. Wilkinson of Dundalk, a former pastor, whose text taken from Psalm 17:15, held a comforting message for the sorrowing friends. The anthem, "One by One", was rendered by the choir and Mrs. A. A. Thompson and Mrs. Clive Dolan touchingly sang a duet, "The Last Mile of the Way".

The deceased is survived by his sorrowing widow, three daughters, Mrs. Thomas Fawcett (Irene); Mrs. G. E. Cornfield (Edna); Mrs. J. W. Cornfield (Vera), all of Epping; one daughter, Elodie Gertrude, having predeceased him in 1911; five sons, Alwyn of Detroit, Mich.; Wilfred of Chapleau, Ont.; Leslie of Meaford; Harold of Kimberley, and Edgar at home; 14 grandchildren, two sisters and two brothers.

The beautiful floral tributes included a wreath from the family; wreath from sisters and brothers; spray from Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Fawcett and sons; spray from New England community; wreath from Smith and Chapple Ltd. and staff, Nussanable Lodge No. 266, I.O.O.F., of Chapleau, Ont., and were carried by Messrs. E. Wilcox, J. Cherry N. Hutchinson, J. Clark, S. Wiley Jr. and R. Fawcett.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Roy Kirkpatrick, Nelson Wilcox, Clive Dolan, George Wiley, Clifford Risk and James Wiley. Those coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Fawcett of Detroit; W. O. Fawcett, Chapleau; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Fawcett and Mrs. George Hutchinson of Meaford; Mrs. Wm. St. John, Mr. and Mrs. E. Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Marshall of Dundalk, and a number from Proton, Markdale, Meaford, Fairmount and nearby vicinity.

Card of Thanks

With sincere gratitude we desire to express our appreciation of the many helpful acts of kindness and sympathy extended to us at the time of the death of our mother.

Tuxis and Trail Rangers Conference

Two hundred Tuxis boys and Trail Rangers gathered in conference at Owen Sound last Saturday, with the local Boys' Work Board sponsoring the affair, which proved to be a splendid success. A banquet was held that evening in the Community "Y" with several Girls in Training serving. A track meet was held during the afternoon at Victoria Park and Sunday morning the local Tuxis and Trail Rangers conducted a service at the First Baptist Church, which was attended by all visiting groups and also a large delegation of C.G.I.T. groups. Mr. E. Devitt of Bowmanville was the conference leader and gave a very fine talk at the Sunday service, his topic being the "Boyhood of Jesus", applying the facts to present day problems.

Miss Tyhurst, the secretary of the Ontario Girls' Work Board, gave some most interesting remarks regarding the unity of the boys' and girls' christian organizations. She stressed the point that they had their birth in the Church and their progress depends solely upon the co-operation given to them through the Church.

Delegations from many communities in the territory made the conference long to be remembered by every one who had the privilege of attending. More members could have remained over for the Sunday ceremonies had there been sufficient transportation from the outside districts.

Mrs. W. March took a group from Markdale including Don, Noble, Jack McGee, Dave and Allan Hunt, Sydney Borinsky, Raymond McFadden and Billy March.

Sunday School Convention

Arrangements are completed for the annual Sunday School Convention for Artemesia, Markdale and Flesheron, which is to be held in Priceville on Wednesday afternoon and evening, June 19th.

A fine program is being provided. The speakers are Mrs. J. J. Eaton of Toronto, Rev. A. H. Ferry, B.D., Ph.D., M.M., of Corbetton, and Rev. A. Bushell of Maxwell. Mrs. Eaton, the Provincial Representative, is an expert in Sunday School work and comes highly recommended. Messrs. Ferry and Bushell are fine speakers and an exceptionally interesting convention is expected.

All Superintendents should see that the reports from their school are sent to the township secretary immediately.

WALTERS FALLS

Miss Florence McConnell of Fairmount is visiting Mrs. Perry for a few weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. Rabb and Mrs. Laycock spent several days in Toronto last week, when the doctor attended the Health Officers' Convention.

Rev. and Mrs. Wright and children motored to Toronto the latter part of last week. Mr. Wright is attending Conference meeting.

Mr. R. Templer of Burford spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Olmstead. Mrs. Templer and girls and Master R. Dickie, who have been visiting the former's parents for some time, returned to their home with him.

Mr. Rorke of Clinton and a student of Huron College, London, is assisting Rev. Mr. Perry in his pastoral work for the summer.

Several young people of St. Philip's Church were confirmed at St. James Church on Monday afternoon by Bishop Seager of London.

The Women's Association of the United Church met at the home of Mrs. E. Marshall last Friday afternoon with an attendance of about twenty.

The Anglican Guild met at the home of Mrs. W. I. Seabrook last Wednesday afternoon.

North Grey Tories Again Nominate Victor Porteous

At a largely attended convention held in Owen Sound on Saturday last Mr. Victor C. Porteous, M.P. was again the choice of the Conservatives of North Grey, being chosen without opposition. Others nominated were Messrs. E. N. Cooper of Meaford, A. Stewart of Owen Sound, Emerson Brown of Clarksburg, H. W. Kernahan and W. L. Taylor of Osprey. All withdrew leaving Mr. Porteous alone in the field.

Mr. Porteous, who is a farmer in Derby township, was elected in 1929 by a majority of 221 over Mr. W. P. Telford, who will again represent the Liberals in the coming election.

Mr. James Jackson, President of the North Grey Conservative Association, presided and the speakers besides Mr. Porteous were Mr. J. R. MacNicol, M.P., of Toronto, and Mr. J. H. Myers, M.P., of Prince Edwards Island.

NEW ENGLAND W. I.

The second social evening of the New England branch of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Graham on Friday evening, May 31. A large gathering of men, women and children was present. The President, Mrs. A. A. Thompson, took charge and opened the meeting with the singing of the Ode followed by a chapter of Scripture and the Lord's Prayer in unison. Mrs. Risk, Secretary, then read the minutes of the last meeting which were adopted. An instrumental mouth organ selection by Murray Lawson and Sammy Shaw followed and was enjoyed by all. A few business items were brought up for discussion after which Mrs. Swanton of Vandeleur, District Representative, and guest speaker of the evening was introduced and gave a splendid report of the Provincial Convention held in Toronto in 1934 which was very interesting and instructive. Messrs. J. W. Lawson and E. K. Clark rendered a duet "Loch Lomond". The pair of sheets which were donated to the Markdale Hospital were then displayed to the satisfaction of all. Penny boxes, nicely decorated, were shown and each member is to make one and drop a penny in it each week. A solo was rendered by E. L. Clark, "The Rose of Allendale", after which a presentation was made to Mrs. Harry Cherry, who has severed her connections with us in this community and taken up residence on the eleventh line. Mr. Cherry being unable to be present, Mrs. Cherry was given a seat of honor and presented with a china tea set as a slight token of appreciation for past service both in the Institute and in social doings. Mrs. Cherry very graciously acknowledged her appreciation and thanks. A reading was given by Miss Gwen Thompson after which Mrs. G. W. Lawson read the report from the Girls' Conference at Guelph, which was prepared by Miss Alice Breadner, the chosen delegate. Time would not permit for the reading of the full report so it will be given in full at the June meeting. The report was full of useful information and contained ideas which might be put to good practical use in our own local organizations. "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" was then sung by all. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Graham for the use of their home, also a vote of thanks to all who assisted with the evening's entertainment. God Save the King brought this part of the meeting to a close after which dainty refreshments were partaken of. The evening was enjoyed by all.

The officers of the Institute for 1935 are as follows: President, Mrs. A. A. Thompson; Vice-President, Mrs. G. W. Lawson; Sec.-Treas., Mrs. C. Risk; Sunshine Committee, Mrs. R. Fawcett, Mrs. R. Brown, Mrs. C. Dolan, Mrs. A. Thompson, Mrs. R. Clark and Mrs. R. Graham; Press Correspondent, Mrs. E. L. Clark. Balance on hand in the treasury $17.50.

In Memoriam

HYSLOP—In loving memory of our dear husband and family, Adam Hyslop, who passed away June 14th, 1929.

Peacefully sleeping, resting at last, His weary trials and troubles are past;

In silence he suffered, in patience he bore,

Till God called him home to suffer no more.
