

CHERRY GROVE W. I.

The June meeting of Cherry Grove W. I. was held at the home of the President, Mrs. Wm. Dickie, with nine members and nine visitors present. The meeting was opened with the singing of the Ode and repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. The minutes of the May meeting were read and approved. Several items of business were brought up for discussion. It was decided to have the annual Sports Day on July 17th. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered all non-members who so kindly assisted with the quilt. The program was on Historical Research and was opened by singing The Little Brown Church. Mrs. F. Smith gave a reading, The Women's Institute for Gray County, which was quite interesting. Miss Jane Dickie gave a splendid report of the Girls' Conference held at Guelph. Mrs. A. V. Bowen gave a paper on The Institute Ode. A contest of 37 questions was put on by Miss Edith Abercrombie on what our Grandmothers wore and used in days of yore, which proved to be quite amusing. The prize, a nice cup and saucer, was won by Miss Mickel. Mrs. T. Abercrombie and Miss Edith Abercrombie were the convenors for the program. The meeting was closed by singing the National Anthem. Grace was sung and the hostess, assisted by her three daughters, Mrs. F. Smith, Mrs. M. Pendleton and Miss Jane Dickie, served a dainty and delicious lunch. The July meeting will take the form of a picnic to be held at the home of Mrs. James Irving by the members and their friends.

TEMPLE HILL

On Friday evening, June 21, 1935, little Wilma Jean Erskine passed away at the home of her parents, after but a brief illness from bronchial pneumonia. Wilma Jean was sixteen months old and was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Erskine. The little girl had been in good health up till a week before her death when she developed a cold. The doctor was immediately called and Nurse Milne of Flesherton was in attendance and all that medical attention could do was done but to no avail. She was of a very bright disposition and was dearly loved by all who knew her. Besides her sorrowing parents she leaves to mourn her passing two sisters, Isabel and Dorothy, her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Erskine of Meaford and Mr. and Mrs. A. Stewart of Durham, besides a number of aunts and uncles. The funeral, which was held on Sunday afternoon from the home of her parents, was largely attended by sympathizing friends. The service was conducted by Rev. S. Milley, assisted by Rev. J. R. Wilkinson of Dundalk. The pallbearers were four boys, Russell Erskine, Beverley Fothergill, Jimmie Menary and Harold Merrifield. The floral tributes of sympathy were carried by four girls, Wilda Erskine, Lois Menary, Dorothy Sewell and Wilda Johnston. The sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Erskine and daughters in their hour of grief. Friends from a distance to attend the funeral were Mrs. R. S. Erskine and son, Clinton, of Meaford; Mrs. A. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lawrence and Mrs. — from near Durham; Mr. and Mrs. A. Erskine and Mr. and Mrs. H. Erskine of Markdale; Rev. J. R. and Mrs. Wilkinson of Dundalk.

Miss Leona Boyd spent the past week with friends at Bellville and other points.

Mrs. Jos. Boyd, Gladys and Carl and Miss Louheed were recent visitors with the latter's parents at Heathcote.

Miss M. Adams of Meaford is spending a few weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Wilbert Menary.

The annual garden party will be held on the Church grounds on Wednesday, July 3. A supper will be served from 6 to 8 followed by a program. There will also be a ball game.

A few from here attended the Sunday School convention at Kimberley on Monday.

HARKAWAY

The garden party is worthy of a more extended notice than that given in our last issue. There was one of the best attendances for years and ample justice was done to the bountiful supper provided and the booth was well patronized. The evening programme also well justified the high appreciation given by the veteran leader in all wholesome effort, Mr. T. H. Richardson. Those contributing were Miss Betty Jackson, Mrs. Wm. Ward and Mrs. Ralph Hutson, solos; Miss Audrey Richard and Mrs. Shilcock, recitations; Rev. A. McAuslan and Mrs. Dolan, Alex. and Agnes Trafford, duets; Willis Coburn, instrumental. Miss Grace Wellerman and Mrs. Coburn were the accompanists. Rev. A. McAuslan also favoured with a much appreciated address as did the chairman, Rev. C. C. Wellerman. Thanks are due all who helped make the event such a success.

(Intended for last week)

The June meeting of the Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. Nelson Kirk on Thursday last with a goodly number of members and visitors. Mrs. Wellerman presided. The Scripture passage was read by Miss Whaley and the prayers taken by the President and Mr. Wellerman. Mrs. McConnell read the minutes and called the roll, word for which was "Courage" and for next meeting will be "Honour". Next meeting place will be decided upon by the executive, Miss Ritchie and Mrs. C. Rowe to provide the program. The question of a garden party was left to the congregation and if not thus decided the Aid members and those usually contributing to a garden party to be asked to give cash instead. The program consisted of a reading by the pastor and a competition in charge of Miss Elsie Caswell, the winner being Miss Whaley. Arrangements were also made to put in another quilt. All appreciated the satisfying lunch provided by the genial hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. James Farley, son, Kenneth, and daughters, Grace and Jean, of Hancock, Mich., spent a few days at the Farley homes in the village and vicinity. They also renewed old acquaintances in the neighborhood, leaving for Detroit Wednesday morning.

The United Church garden party on Wednesday evening was a pronounced success. The weather was not promising until about noon but the afternoon was excellent with the result that the attendance compared well with recent years. The supper well earned the meed of praise so often given to the efforts of the Ladies' Aid. The exciting event was the baseball game between two of the school teams in the local league, S.S. No. 4 and S.S. No. 3. The score, 25 to 15 in favor of the latter, does not properly suggest the merits of the teams which were well balanced. The evening programme consisted of a re-presentation of the play, "When a Woman Decides". Although this feature has been given a number of times in the surrounding localities the township hall was crowded on this occasion. The players well merited the interest. The booth in charge of Messrs. H. and Will. Jackson and Leonard Hampton was well patronized. In the course of the evening Mr. Web. Sutcliffe obliged with his violin in his usually attractive manner. Miss Grace Wellerman was the accompanist for the evening.

The Young People's meeting was held on Tuesday evening with Miss Alma McMullen presiding and with the assistance of Miss Evelyn Hampton guiding the opening exercises. The subject, "How can nations cooperate to prevent war?" was discussed under the leadership of Mr. C. Brown. A duet was sung by the Misses Isobel and Alma McMullen. In the business period it was decided to raise the Society's gift to the 10th Anniversary Fund by individual giving.

The question of sending two representatives to the summer camp at Presqu'isle was left until next meeting. Commencing with next meeting the sessions will be held each second week and alternately in the Church and at some home. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John McMullen.

The Junior League of Christian Endeavor, to give the full official title, is away to a good start for the summer season, meeting each Friday evening. Officers and convenors are as follows: President, Grace Wellerman; Sec.-Treas., M. Hampton; Organist, M. Harper; Committee Convenors, Isobel Buchanan, R. Jackson, Walter and Gordon Henderson.

(Intended for last week.)

Rev. Davidson began his duties on Sunday last at St. Mark's Church when there was a large attendance.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Mr. William Holley of the village in the loss of his brother. Mr. and Mrs. Holley attended the funeral at Vandeleur.

Miss Evelyn Harper has been appointed to teach Rosedale School in Euphrasia; Miss Grace Wellerman the 10th line school in Holland; Miss Isobel McMullen at Lily Oak school. We wish them all success.

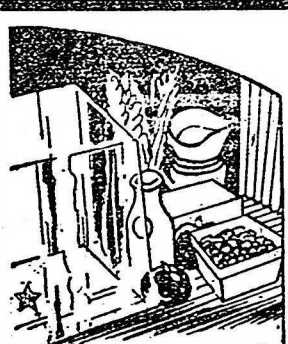

Mr. Bert Parker, who directed the play, "When a Woman Decides", so well, was entertained by the members of the cast at dinner in the hall on Wednesday evening. Mr. Clifford Brown presided and read an address of appreciation. Mrs. Carson Price, on behalf of the company, presented Mr. Parker with a clock for which, and the thoughtful co-operation, he suitably acknowledged.

Rev. C. C. and Mrs. Wellerman and Grace returned Wednesday from attendance at Toronto Conference of the United Church and report good meetings especially the tenth anniversary celebration in Maple Leaf Gardens at which 15000 attended. Mr. W. Jackson, who also made the trip, spent the week as a guest of Rev. A. J. Eagle.

Holland Centre school, No. 4, played ball with S. S. No. 7 on Tuesday evening and took the latter into camp to the tune of 22-10.

Rev. W. G. Wakefield conducted the services in the local Church in the absence of the pastor at Conference.

L. O. L. No. 740, after a successive lapse of meetings gathered in their hall on Monday evening. A special feature of the night was the presence of a grand lodge organizer, Bro. R. White, and an inspiring address by him. The County Master, Bro. A. McNab, was also a visitor. Arrangements were made for the annual July visit to the United Church.
