C. C. F. Candidate in North Grey

At a joint Farmer-Labor and C. C. F. convention held in Owen Sound on Saturday afternoon, Mr. Hudson Stout, who has been prominent in the activities of the C.C.F. organization, was chosen to carry the colors of the Farm-Labor and C.C.F. interests in the forthcoming federal election campaign in the constituency.

Mr. Stout was the unanimous choice of the convention for the honour, as all other members of the organization whose names were submitted refused to allow their name to be considered in the matter. Mr. Stout has been associated with the labor interests in Canada for some time, and took an active interest in its activities even before the forming of the C. C. F. in Ontario.

SHOP IN MARKDALE.

Bride Was Showered By Friends

Mrs. Louis Thibaudeau, daughter of Mr. Herbert Purvis, popular bride of Saturday last, was the recipient of many gifts from friends and neighbors previous to her marriage, which took place in Toronto on Saturday afternoon.

On Wednesday evening a pantry shelf shower was given by fellow employees of the F. T. Hill store, and a few other friends at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Cecil McTavish, of Flesherton.

Thursday evening saw a group of thirty ladies gathered at her home, who presented her with a shower of cream and green granite-ware. Little Lois Acheson and Marjorie York, dressed as bride and groom, drew into the living room a little wagon bearing a clothes basket full of the gifts. The wedding march was played by Mrs. H. H. Dennison. A sing-song was enjoyed; also piano and cornet duets by Mrs. Dennison and Mr. W. S. Perkins.

Friday evening the younger set met at the home of Mrs. Howard Merriam, cousin of the bride, and presented her with an alladin lamp, a silver basket and other gifts. The evening was spent in playing bridge. A pleasing feature on each occasion was the serving of lunch.

Durham's Old Home Week Successful

Hundreds of old boys and girls from all parts of Canada and the United States found their way back to Durham on the occasion of the Old Home Week celebration which opened on Saturday last and concluded on Wednesday night. The biggest crowd that has ever visited Durham was there on Monday and there was a splendid program. The 48th Highlanders band was there from Toronto and pleased every person. The old-time lacrosse game was one of the events of the reunion. It was a successful affair and those responsible for the big event deserve much credit for their work.

Mrs. James Walker Died Suddenly

The sudden passing on Monday afternoon of Mrs. James Walker at Mount Pleasant, came as a shock to her family and friends. She had been in failing health for the past four years, yet able to be about until Sunday morning, when she was stricken with a paralytic stroke, to which she succumbed without regaining consciousness.

The late Mrs. Walker was, previous to her marriage Mary McFadden, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert McFadden, pioneers of this district. She was about 75 years of age and was born and brought up on the old McFadden homestead now occupied by her nephew, Mr. George McFadden. Mr. Walker died a number of years ago.

Surviving are five sons and a daughter: Robert G. of Proton; Andrew E. and John on the farm; James, William and Mrs. Albert Walker (Jane) of Uxbridge. Also surviving are one brother and two sisters, Mr. Thos. McFadden of Mono; Mrs. Andrew Carson (Maggie) of Allenford, and Mrs. Elizabeth McFadden of Toronto. Five brothers, John, Hamilton, James, Robert and Richard McFadden, predeceased her, also a sister, Mrs. Robt. Carson of Allenford.

Civic receptions are being tendered the visitors from Great Britain in Toronto, Niagara and other places and this District is honoured indeed in having a visit from these distinguished persons.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley W. Shier, of Owen Sound, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marjorie Eileen, to Mr. Ellison G. Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Baker, of Markdale. Wedding to take place in North Keppel United Church on August 17th.

Didn't Get Married

A couple, sporting such unsanitary breaths as to suggest that they had tarried too long in a licensed beverage room, hid themselves to a Walkerton parsonage last week and besought the prince of the parish to unite them for better or for worse, but the good man knowing that if they ever got any worse it would be time to shout for a policeman, sparred for wind before asking them if they had a marriage license. They had never thought of such a thing, and when informed that they required to have such a document three "full" days before the wedding ceremony, the word "full" was so descriptive of their cup of sorrow that the prospective groom seemed prepared to offer the bride-elect a manly shoulder to weep upon. "When wine goes in, wit goes out" it has been said, and that they were engaged before the beverage passed over their bridgework is doubtful and so the postponement of the nuptials probably prevented a realization of that old adage, "Marry in Haste, Repent at Leisure."—Walkerton Herald-Times.

McEachnie - Bacon

A pretty wedding took place on Saturday afternoon at the Baptist Church in Weston, when Miss Martha Bacon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bacon of 51 Wiley Ave., became the bride of Mr. Russell Lloyd McEachnie, son of Mrs. Sarah McEachnie of Markdale. The bride looked lovely in a gown of orchid chiffon, picture hat and accessories of white, and carried a corsage of sunset tea roses. The matron of honor, Mrs. Albert Moody, of Toronto, sister of the groom, wore a gown of blue crepe with white accessories, with bouquet of pink roses. Mr. Albert Moody was best man. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful pendant and to the matron of honor and best man, a purse and gold cuff links. Owing to illness in the bride's family the wedding was a quiet one. They spent the first part of their honeymoon in Markdale at the home of the groom's mother. They will be at-home to their many friends at 51 Wiley Ave., Weston.

Whittaker - Kew

Edith Mary, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kew, of Wingham, was married to I. B. Lucas Whittaker, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Whittaker of Ceylon in the United Church, Wingham. The church was decorated with pink and white phlox and ferns and the ceremony was performed by Rev. D. E. Foster of Stratford. The bride's cousin, Mr. Ernest Sparling, was at the organ and Miss Mildred Whittaker, sister of the groom, sang "I Love You Truly". Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in shell pink organza and wore a large picture hat of mohair and ribbon to match. Her flowers were Butterfly roses and lily-of-the-valley. The ushers were Mr. W. E. Kew, Richmond Hill, and Mr. Frank Field. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the 50 guests. Later the bride and groom left on a motor trip to Eastern Ontario and Quebec, the bride travelling in an ensemble suit of ashes of roses summer tweed, with hat and accessories to match. On their return they will reside at Ceylon.

New England W. I. Garden Party

The annual garden party of the New England Women's Institute was held on the afternoon and evening of July 24th on the suitable and attractive grounds of Mr. Clifford Risk. The weather was ideal for the occasion and the usual large crowd in attendance. Various sports were indulged in, races, tug-of-war, etc., which caused much merriment. Prizes were awarded to the winners. A bounteous supper was served by the ladies which everyone enjoyed and indulged in to capacity. After the inner man had been satisfied the commodious platform which had been arranged by the men in the outside shelter of the home was lighted up and everyone was eagerly awaiting for the program to commence.

The program was in the hands of Mr. Wilfred Squire of Derby, assisted by Messrs. Ivor and Eric Gunter and Arthur Bott, all of Derby, and consisted of minstrel songs, funny jokes, quartettes, the musical numbers, which were accompanied on guitars by the performers, and soon convinced their audience of unusual ability in this line. The beautiful harmony of the voices in song captivated the audience and were recalled many times for encores to which they readily responded.

Several violin selections were rendered by Mr. and Mrs. John Bussey of Markdale assisted by Mr. Harry Cherry of Cherry Grove. These selections were very fine and much appreciated by all. A well stocked booth was on the grounds and the assistants were kept busy up to a late hour realizing a nice sum for their work.

Proceeds amounted to around $50.00.
