A Personal Message FROM THE HON. W. L. M. KING to the Electors of Grey-Bruce

(Copy of lettergram to Dr. W. A. Hall, Liberal Candidate)

Brandon, Man., Sept. 19th, 1935.

I have been informed that my inability thus far to arrange for a meeting in Grey-Bruce is due to the fact that I am not desirous of having Miss Macphail too strenuously opposed by the Liberals. This is not so. We as Liberals intend to use every legitimate means to elect our candidate—Dr. Hall. Doubtless this assumption arises from the consideration shown Miss Macphail from time to time by myself and other Liberals including yourself when you were member for Bruce South and she was member for South-east Grey. Now that these constituencies have been combined, the situation and the attitude towards her by the Liberals including myself have necessarily completely changed. It must never be forgotten that those who are not for us are against us. Since your election in 1925 our Party has had no more steadfast upholder of its principles and policies in Parliament than yourself, nor have I had a more loyal and devoted supporter. In the circumstances, I cannot urge too strongly that all electors in Grey-Bruce constituency who desire to see the return of the Liberal administration to power and Liberal principles and policies prevail in Canada in the next five years, should give their support to you as Candidate of the Liberal Party in the present election. Should the Liberal Federation find it possible to arrange a meeting in the constituency of Grey-Bruce, I shall be glad and shall make this statement publicly at the time. Meanwhile if any canvass is being made against you on this score mentioned, you have my authority to give to this message whatever publicity you think advisable.

"W. L. Mackenzie King"
