EUGENIA

A fowl supper is being held in the basement of Eugenia United Church on Thursday evening, Oct. 24th, under the auspices of the Women's Association. The supper is followed by a program which includes a play "Plain Sister".

Rev. Mr. Wellerman of Holland Centre was the minister here on Sunday and delivered a fine sermon. There will be no service in the church here on Sunday next, Oct. 20.

We extend our sympathy to the Ellis family of Kimberley in their recent sad bereavement.

The Women's Association of the United Church will hold their October meeting in the church on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 17 at 2 o'clock. All members requested to be present. Roll call to be answered by a favourite recipe.

The Y.P.S. meeting on Wednesday evening was quite interesting. There were 25 in attendance. Rev. Bushell presided. After the singing of a hymn and the repeating of the Lord's prayer in unison, Scripture passages were read by Leone Duckett, Doris Fawcett, Winneta Martin, and Evelyn Campbell. Rev. Bushell took the Worship and business periods. The remaining part of the program was in charge of Mrs. C. Martin, the Missionary convenor. She gave a short talk on "Bible and Missions" after which she introduced to the Society, Mrs. Gemmel of Markdale, who gave a fine talk on the "Mission Supply House". Mrs. Gemmel also rendered a vocal selection, "Jesus Lover of my Soul". Miss I. Dinsmore played the accompaniment on the organ. Two splendid readings were given, one by Miss I. Dinsmore and the other by Mrs. C. Martin. Recreation consisted of an "Ex." contest by Mr. Bushell, after which the meeting closed in the usual way.
