

Development

Developing business along sound, constructive lines has always been a fundamental principle of the policies directing the affairs of this bank.

Its resources are now, as in the past, available to assist the legitimate demands of the commercial and agricultural interests of Canada.

THE BANK OF TORONTO

Established 1855

A. E. HUNT, Manager, Markdale

My Dear Friends:

In looking over the vote polled in Grey-Bruce on October 14th one notices first that the number of electors who voted was exceedingly large and that is as it should be. It is evident, too, that our strength lay in the townships and the industrial towns. To all electors who supported me I am grateful.

The campaign was long and tedious but even so the enthusiasm of the organization in each polling subdivision and in each municipality never abated. On election day volunteer workers manned the polls, drove cars and otherwise assisted in getting the vote out. All this I appreciate. Our Board of Directors carried a great share of the load and we were gratuitously assisted by able speakers and musicians. Together we won a notable victory for democracy (the rule of the people by and for the people). In this I rejoice.

It is now my task, which I will most earnestly seek to discharge, to represent the needs of the people and seek remedies for the problems of the great mass of Canadians—those who create the wealth and render the necessary services. In departmental matters I will serve all equally well but in matters of policy of necessity I can represent only those who think similarly.

Yours sincerely,

Agnes C. Macphail

Trousseau Tea

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beer, 1072, 6th avenue west, Owen Sound was the mecca of several hundred friends on Wednesday, when Mrs. Beer entertained in the afternoon and evening at a trousseau tea in honor of the charming young bride-to-be, Miss Ruth Beer. A continuous stream of callers were received by Mrs. Beer and her daughter and spent a delightful half-hour between the fascinating trousseau rooms and the tea-room. Miss Beer was wearing a very smart creation of brown silk lace. Assisting throughout the happy occasion were Mrs. G. W. Alton and Miss Helen Alton of Markdale, mother and sister respectively of the groom-elect, Mr. W. Alton, Hanover.

The bride's exquisite household linens, her dainty apparel, including her charming wardrobe, and the beautiful gifts from her host of friends were on view upstairs, where girl friends were in charge. Tea was served in the dining-room from a table decked with yellow blooms and yellow tapers. The wedding cake centred the buffet. Mrs. J. H. Brownlee poured tea in the afternoon and in the evening Miss Alma Thompson and Miss Catherine McLean. In the afternoon the assistants were Misses Marjorie Cruickshank, Doris Williams, Frances Cowie, Alma McKennitt and Muriel Catchpole, and in the evening Misses Isobel Lockerbie, Alberta Lloyd, Isobel Fox, Helen Munson, Dorothy Brown and Isobel Cowie and Mrs. James Clark.

Miss Mary Ritchie Was Honored at Berkeley

The members of the Berkeley Ladies' Aid, and several other ladies, gathered at the home of Miss Mary Ritchie on Monday evening last and presented her with a lovely Staypack travelling case, prior to her departure from the community. Although taken entirely by surprise Mary thanked the ladies for the lovely gift and for the friendship it represents. The evening was pleasantly spent in singing, contests and a short program. During the evening Mrs. Wellerman read the following address:

Berkeley, Oct. 14th, 1935.

Dear Mary:

The members of the Ladies' Aid think the occasion a suitable one, to express an appreciation that has long been merited.

Your family bears an honoured name for interest taken in the church and that for which the church stands. We regret that in the providence of God, as a family you will be no more in our midst, and that you, yourself, with your wholesome cheeriness will not be here in person to add that brightness to life, for which you and your dear ones have been noted.

Our regrets are mellowed in the thought that absence and distance cannot banish you from our hearts and lives.

We ask you to accept a small token of our esteem in which we hold you. Our prayer goes with it, that the tie that binds us will be strengthened in the added service that we may render. We trust that God may grant us many reunions and keep love's banner floating o'er us. That He may grant that as your days, so may your strength be, is the desire of your friends.

Signed on behalf of your well wishers in the Ladies' Aid and beyond its immediate circle.

Mrs. Wellerman, President.

All joined in singing: "For she's a jolly good fellow" after which the ladies served a dainty and bountiful lunch, which brought the evening to a close.
