EUGENIA

(Intended for last week.)

Rev. Mr. A. M. Pope of Bognot preached anniversary services in the United Church here on Sunday, Oct. 27th, at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. There was a large attendance at both services. The minister preached two fine sermons. At the evening service the subject of his address was "The Power of the Blood". The Kimberley choir was present and rendered two beautiful anthems. Kimberley has an excellent choir and we appreciated them very much and extend to them hearty thanks for their kindness in coming and assisting in the evening service. The local choir sang during the morning services, rendering two pleasing anthems. Mrs. Pope accompanied her husband here. We were pleased to meet them again as they were stationed on this circuit a few years ago.

On Thanksgiving night, Oct. 24, a fowl supper was held under the auspices of the Women's Association, in the basement of the United Church here. The supper was followed by a program in the church. Rev. Mr. Bushell was chairman. The program consisted of a play: "Plain Sister". A short synopsis of the play was given by the director Mrs. Chas. Martin, who introduced the characters. The cast was as follows: Rose Murphy (Mrs. H. Foerster), a pleasant watchful mother; Jim Murphy (Mr. Will Walker) a discouraged father; Junior (Mr. Ted Campbell) sixteen and all boy; Beth (Mrs. Will Walker) the plain sister; Jewel (Miss Marjorie Benson) her pretty, selfish sister; Dorothy (Miss Hazel Turner) Junior's girl friend; Neil Armour (Mr. Will Hanley) Beth's youthful employer; John Webster (Mr. Joe Hawkens) a young neighbor of the family. Two quartettes by Messrs. Jacob Williams and Alex. Carruthers, Mrs. Chas. Park and Miss Marjorie Park with Miss Dela Kaiting accompanying on the organ, were enjoyed between acts. The church was filled to overflowing. We are sorry there was not room to accommodate all, also not enough fowl to serve those who came in later. The proceeds of the evening amounted to almost $104.

In Memoriam

SYMES—In loving memory of our dear grandmother, Mrs. E. Symes, who passed away Oct. 27th, 1931.

There's a face that is haunting as ever;

There's a voice that we're longing to hear;

There's a smile we'll remember forever,

Though we try to forget every tear.

There's a sad but sweet remembrance;

There's a memory fond and true;
There's a token of affection, dear,
And heartache still for you.
Ever remembered by Beth and Jerry Kilpatrick.

Poultry Cream

The poultry season is at hand and we are looking for a good steady market for good quality birds, with prices better than last year.

So that the producer may obtain higher market prices, we advise you to well finish your poultry before marketing; then, bring them to us, live or dressed, for highest market prices.

We see a strong market with higher prices this coming winter and our advice would be to feed the cows well to keep up the flow of milk.

As to the marketing of your cream, there is no creamery that can give you any better results than the Markdale Creamery Company.
