settlers near Flesherton, where she was born 76 years ago. On her marriage to Mr. Brown in 1879 she removed to Orangeville where she resided until her death. For many years she took an active interest in the various organizations of the Orangeville Methodist Church which is now First Avenue United Church. The passing away of the deceased was just as calm and peaceful as her whole life had been. She left no uncertainty in the minds of her family and friends, with the knowledge of the life behind her, they know that she is in that better land of light and love where pain and sorrow are no more.

The funeral took place on Friday afternoon from her late residence, Rev. Dr. Robert Pogue conducting the service. Among the beautiful passages that he based his sermon on were: "In my Father's house are many mansions, etc." and "Let not your heart be troubled, etc." He spoke of the true Christian character of the deceased and how she bore her illness with Christian fortitude. Flowers were in profusion showing love for the deceased and sympathy for the bereaved. The pallbearers were Alfred Wise, J. W. South, W. A. Hoare, Thomas Henderson, J. B. Irwin, and Wilfred Lemon. Interment was made at Forest Lawn cemetery.

Friends from a distance attending the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sled, Mr. Thos. Hall, Mrs. McNicol and Mr. and Mrs. Curry of Nottawa; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Vancal and brother, Frank, of Stayner; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wood of Mimico; Mrs. Will Magee and daughter, Miss Ila and Mr. and Mrs. Court. Smith of Eugenia; Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Sled of Flesherton.

Besides her sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn her loss, three sons, Chas. W., and George E. of Whitefish, Ont., James A. of the Bell Telephone Co., Toronto, also two sisters, Mrs. Wm. J. Magee of Eugenia and Mrs. John Sled of Prescott and a brother, Mr. Johnston L. Wood of Mimico. Mrs. Magee feels the loss keenly as in their girlhood days they were always the best of companions, and she looks back into those bygone days and says "My little playmate is gone."

To the sorrowing family we extend our sincere sympathy.

How slender is life's silken cord
How soon 'tis broken here,
Each moment brings a parting word
And many a falling tear.

'Tis sweet to know, we'll meet again
Where sickness is unknown
And that the ones we loved so dear
Have only gone before.

Live Stock Market

by Dunn & Lovack, Toronto

Following the heavy runs of cattle during the past two months, supplies eased up considerably for the opening market of the week, and killing cattle met with an active trade at higher prices. Stockers and feeders held steady and a ready clearance was made of anything good. Heavy steers were not wanted.

Best steers weighing around 1100 pounds sold at from 5½ to 6 cents, fair to good from 4½ to 5½. In the butcher section, there was a scarcity of the good kind, choice making from 5 to 5½; fair to good 4½ to 4 cents; common and medium 3½ to 4 cents. Choice baby heaves sold at from 7 to 8, others at lower prices accordingly. Best feeding steers made 5 cents with the bulk of the selected stockers from 4 to 4½; medium 3½ to 4 cents. The cow trade held steady, good to choice from 3 to 3½; common and medium 2½ to 2 cents; canners and cutters 1½ to 2 cents. Choice bulls were steady from 3 to 3½, bolognas 2½ to 2 cents. Milch cows and springers in good condition made from $40 to $60 each.

Supplies of lambs were moderate for this time of the year, and the market held strong at 7½ to 7¾ for best ewes, and bucks discounted $1. Choice light sheep were in strong demand at from 3½ to 4. The calf market was active, choice from 9 to 9½, with a few tops at 10 cents; fair to good from 7 to 8½; common and medium at 5½ to 6½; heavy calves 4½ to 5 cents; grassers 4 cents.

Hogs held active and strong on Monday, selling at 7.35 to 7.50 f.o.b. and 7.75 to 8.00 for truck deliveries. On Tuesday, buyers were bidding lower, but the market closed steady. A great deal will depend upon supplies, but no change is likely to take place for the balance of this week.
