

VANDELEUR

"The Capitalistic System should be abolished", such was the decision of the judges after hearing a debate of the subject at the Women's Institute Community meeting which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Shannon on Thursday evening of last week. The debate was put on by the gentlemen and strong arguments in favour of both sides of the question were brought forward by all four speakers. The affirmative was supported by Messrs. H. I. Graham and E. Warling while Messrs. W. A. Weber and H. Thompson upheld the negative. The judges were Mrs. Frank Davis, Mrs. F. R. Boland and Mr. Glen McGee. Miss Agnes Macphail, M.P., was present and gave an address. Mrs. Will Howey of Owen Sound led the community singing and Mrs. F. Davis gave a reading. The president, Mrs. Wm. Ratcliffe, presided over the business meeting while Mr. Frank Davis occupied the chair during the program.

The Young People's meeting on Friday evening of last week was very largely attended and a splendid program was provided. The guest speaker of the evening was Mr. F. R. Oliver, M.P.P., who had been invited to speak on the subject of "Social Credit", which he did in his usual able and interesting manner. In an address of over an hour he clearly outlined both sides of the question, told the advantages claimed for it by its supporters and also the difficulties it would meet with. He also told the differences between the system proposed by Mayor Douglas and the one to be adopted in Alberta. His address was listened to with rapt attention by the large audience and an interesting discussion followed. Previous to Mr. Oliver's speech Rev. H. S. Warren gave a short address on church missions. On Friday evening of this week Kimberley Y.P.S. will visit the local society and an interesting meeting is anticipated.
