We extend our sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Priel and family in the loss of their daughter, Camilla. WILLIAMSFORD

Miss Mary Maluske, who expects shortly to go as a missionary to Portuguese, East Africa, gave a very interesting missionary address in the Gospel Workers Church on Thursday evening. Miss Maluske gave a number of convincing reasons why the heathen should be evangelized, and showed plainly the duty of the Church in the matter. She also told how the Lord had led her step by step, first showing her what was to be her service to Him, then making it possible for her to receive the necessary education, sending in the funds in answer to prayer just when they were needed. She gave a number of striking instances in her life where it was plainly seen how definitely she was being led. As we listened we were again convinced of the minute care and love for His children of the one who had called her to His service. Miss Maluske's field of service is a particularly hard one from the fact that she must first learn the Portuguese language before she can begin to study the heathen languages. She expects to go out under the Scandinavian Alliance Mission, which is a "Faith" Mission.

EUGENIA

Our pastor, Rev. Albert Bushell, Mrs. Bushell and family motored to Toronto last week to attend a double wedding, that of their eldest daughter, Miss Beatrice Bushell, who was united in marriage to Mr. F. Wilgus, and their son, Mr. Albert Bushell jr., to Miss Betty Harley. The marriages, which took place at the Harley residence in North Toronto, were solemnized by Mr. Bushell, father of Beatrice and Albert. The happy young couples will reside in Toronto. We extend to them our heartiest congratulations and wish them many happy years of wedded life.

There was considerable excitement around the 10th and 12th concessions of Artemesia on Saturday evening when two Flesher-ton boys, Jim Thurston, 11-year old son of Mr. F. J. Thurston, and Delmer McLean, 12-year old son of Mr. Chas. McLean, were lost in a swamp or bush while hunting with Mr. McLean in the afternoon. In some manner the boys wandered away. Search parties were organized and groups with horns and lanterns started out. Bonfires were lighted to attract the boys. The boys were finally discovered about 8.30 o'clock and brought safely home none the worse of their adventure.

On their return trip home from Toronto on Saturday night Rev. A. and Mrs. Bushell and family met with a nasty accident, their car colliding with a car which was proceeding south at the Elba hill. Mr. Bushell's car was badly damaged. The Bushell family were taken to the home of Rev. H. O. Hutchinson in Shelburne, who kindly brought them home to Maxwell. All suffered severe bruises and cuts but nothing of a serious nature. Mr. Bushell was able to occupy the pulpit here on Sunday as well as at his other appointments. We wish the family a speedy recovery from their injuries.

The late Mr. Porter, who was a young man of 47 years of age, leaves to mourn his loss his beloved wife and three of a family. His untimely death was caused by a stroke. We extend our sympathy to those left in sad bereavement.

Scripture passages were read by Miss Ida Benson and Miss Jean Tudor. Mrs. Martin took the discussion period, the topic for which was "Backward Glance"—Foreign Missions". She also read a poem, "A hymn for the new age". During the business period it was moved by Mrs. Martin and seconded by Miss Irene Dinsmore that Miss Evelyn Campbell act as assistant secretary-treasurer.
