

Election Results in Grey County

Voting took place in several Grey County municipalities on Monday with the following results:

Hanover—Mayor, A. J. Metzger; Reeve, A. E. Ball.
Sullivan—Deputy-Reeve, Ed. A. Carson.
Bentneck—Deputy-Reeve, Charles Bailey.

In Owen Sound W. E. Dicken was elected Mayor by acclamation. Aldermen elected on Monday are Geo. Marron, Geo. E. Atkey, R. H. McWilliams and Lorne Menzies. Jas. H. Rutherford was elected to fill the unexpired year of Mr. Dicken.

TRAVERSTON

The cutters are sliding around on our first sleighing and some of the hustling fellows are hauling wood to town on the sleighs.

The Burrell bush gang of Hanover finished the big task of cutting all the sawlog timber on lot 18 on the 9th con. on Monday and Mr. George McMeeken of Durham whisked away the last truck load of logs before they left. Over 350 thousand feet of logs have been taken off those hills and hollows during the past three years. Mr. Burrell purposes to let the young standing timber remain.

R. T. Cook is always ahead with his work. He had the year's supply of wood cut on Monday afternoon with his own sawing outfit.

Will Ryan of the 4th con. is to serve as a juror next week at the county capital.

Mr. Wm. McLellan and nephew of Mt. Forest were around at the close of the week to pick up a bunch of yearling cattle.

at Aberdeen for several days assist- Mrs. Hugh McArthur has been out ing to nurse her aunt, Mrs. Samuel Puterbaugh, who is suffering terribly from gangrene in her feet. She is 83 years of age and her husband is 87. They have been the climax of hard work and thrift all their days and raised a fine family of five sons and five daughters.

Spencer Edwards of Detroit spent from Thursday till Sunday at the old homestead and visited his aunt, Mrs. C. W. Rutledge, in Markdale.

Miss S. E. McLean of Aberdeen is spending a few days at the Edwards homestead during Mina's absence.

Cameron Robson completed a 7-months' term with your correspondent last week and is remaining for some days longer to help to gather the year's wood supply. He is the finest type of young manhood, trusty, obliging and most industrious.

Down went the stringers under McGrade's big culvert as McMeeken's big truck load of logs were crossing it. The boys say he must have holtered "giddup" to have pulled out of that hole unassisted. Road Superintendent Wes. Arnett had it speedily repaired and isn't afraid to throw aside his coat and give expert help.

Word reached the members of the Edwards family towards the close of last week of the death of Mrs. J. H. Edwards at Nehalem, Oregon. She and Joe were wedded over forty years ago and the greater part of that time they lived in Portland, where she was head of the Conservatory of Music, being herself a most gifted and widely trained musician. Her maiden name was L. Hurlburt and those who knew her best say she was one of the finest type of American womanhood. The sympathy of old school mates and kindred is deeply felt for J. H. in his sore bereavement.

Card of Thanks

To the Electors of Markdale: Ladies and Gentlemen.—By your votes you have expressed confidence in my ability to serve you and I beg to return thanks for the same. My efforts will be in your interests during the year 1936 and I ask for your co-operation in advancing the interests of the village. Let's do our best for all the people and may we have no regrets at the end of our year of service. A merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year to all.

ALBERT RUSK

Card of Thanks

To the Electors of Markdale: Ladies and Gentlemen.—With all sincerity I return thanks to the people of the village for the support they gave at the poll on Monday, and at the same time I desire to express best wishes to all for a merry Christmas and contentment in the new year.

Card of Thanks

To the Electors of Markdale: Ladies and Gentlemen.—With thankfulness I acknowledge your support at the poll on Monday. I can promise you nothing more than the service I have given you in the past. You have apparently appreciated my work and I will continue to do my duty in the best interests of the village. To all I say a merry Christmas and hope 1936 will bring to all of you contentment and prosperity.

Yours very sincerely,
JOHN R. DILLON

Card of Thanks

To the Electors of Markdale: Ladies and Gentlemen. What can I say more than thank you. You have placed on my shoulders responsibilities for 1936 and I shall make every effort to repay you for this expression of confidence. Our municipality can be made a better town and I am prepared to give my time in an effort to accomplish something worthwhile. May you all enjoy a merry Christmas and prosper in 1936.

Sincerely yours,
W. E. WHITE

Card of Thanks

To the Electors of Markdale: Ladies and Gentlemen.—In spite of the misinformation circulated in regard to my part taken on the water system question, which a number of the ratepayers believed to be true, I was honoured by what I consider an excellent vote. This proves that still I have a large number of understanding friends for which I am very thankful.

To one and all I wish a merry Christmas and a very, very prosperous and happy New Year.

BERKELEY

The Women's Association met on November 14th at the home of Mrs. John Craven with the President in charge. The meeting opened with hymn No. 19 on the song sheet. Mrs. A. Stafford read the Scripture lesson from St. Matthew. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. The roll call was answered by eleven members and five visitors. The collection amounted to $1.05. "Joy" will be the word for roll call for the December meeting. The lining for the quilt was chosen to be green broadcloth and the quilting is to be on Nov. 26. The bazaar date was set for Dec. 6 to commence at 5 o'clock, with a fish pond, homemade candy counter and bazaar counter, games and lunch. Readings were given by Misses Ida Bradley and Caswell and Mesdames Wiggins and Wellerman. A contest was put on by Mrs. Richards. The December meeting will be at the home of Mrs. H. Richards, the program committee to be Misses Ina Bradley and Audrey Richards. The meeting closed with hymn "Abide with me" and the Mizpah benediction. The hostess served a dainty lunch assisted by Miss Ida Bradley.
