Presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carson

A number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Harbottle on November 6th, and presented Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carson with a miscellaneous shower. Miss Violet Fitzsimmons read the following address while Mr. Hugo Fitzpatrick and Miss Doreen Boland unwrapped the gifts and read the verses.

Dear Bernice and Jack:—We, your friends and neighbors, have gathered together this evening to ask you to accept these few tokens of our esteem. Bernice, you have always taken an active part in the affairs of the community, we welcome Jack to the neighborhood and wish you both a very, very happy future together. And we would ask you to accept these gifts and hope you may often find them useful in your new home.

Signed on behalf of your neighbours and friends Hugo Fitzpatrick, Violet Fitzsimmons, Doreen Boland, Jack, in a few words, thanked all for their kindness and invited them to visit them in their new home after which they all sang "For they are jolly good fellows". Lunch was served and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Reception for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eagles

A very pleasant evening was spent on Tuesday at the home of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Allison, when they entertained at a wedding dinner in honor of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eagles, on their return from their wedding trip. About fifteen guests sat down to the table which looked lovely centred with a three storey wedding cake. Two girl friends of the bride, Miss Isla Dennett and Miss Anna McFadden, assisted by the bride's sister, waited on the guests. The evening was spent very pleasantly in music and social chat, after which the guests returned to their homes and the bride and groom to their home in Orange Valley.

BARRHEAD W. I.

The regular monthly meeting of Barrhead W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. R. W. Wilson on Nov. 25th with a goodly attendance of members and visitors. The meeting was opened in the usual way; reports were given from the Sunshine Committee; a letter was read by C. Davidson, secretary, from the Dept. of W. I. re the grant. The program, which was put on by the married ladies, consisted of community singing; paper by Mrs. Hatton on "Peace Garden"; readings by Mrs. Whitehead, Mrs. McNicoll, Mrs. G. Hill, Mrs. E. Smart; a demonstration, "Door Stoper", by Mrs. McNicoll; contest by Mrs. Al. White and won by C. Davidson; contest by Mrs. Torry and won by Mary Bowles. An interesting report was given by Mrs. G. Hargrave, delegate to the Toronto convention. The next meeting is to be held at Barrhead school house on December 19th, in the evening at 8 o'clock, the program to be put on by the school pupils and the young people of the community. The members of the W. I. are to bring candy and nuts. The meeting was closed with the National Anthem which brought to a close an enjoyable afternoon. Lunch was then served by the hostess assisted by a number of the other ladies.

NOTICE to the Public

Through a change in business arrangement, that the public might be served with more courteous, prompt and efficient service, I have disposed of my repair shop, gas and oil, tires and batteries to Mr. Henry Heuhn, who took charge on December 11th.

I take this opportunity to thank you, the Public, for all past business which has been most pleasant, and would solicit the same business for my successor. Connected with him as mechanic is Mr. P. York and I can assure you they will give you efficient, prompt and courteous service at all times.

I, with Mr. Robt. Berry as salesman, am still connected with the business, having the Ford Agency and a full line of Parts, Accessories and Radios, and will give you prompt service on any article we sell.

May I add that merchandise coupons will be carried by Mr. Heuhn the same as usual and all coupons issued by Armstrong Motors are redeemable.

We take this opportunity of soliciting your future business and to thank you for all past favours.

Wishing you one and all A Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year.

Yours truly,

Armstrong Motors
