WALTERS FALLS

Messrs. Russell Speck, C. Wright and Robt. King spent a day last week at the Guelph Winter Fair.

Rev. and Mrs. Perry and Mrs. (Rev.) Wright visited in Toronto last Friday and Saturday.

The Anglican Guild held their December meeting at the home of Mrs. Laycock last Wednesday afternoon with an attendance of ten. The Vice-President occupied the chair. The meeting was opened by singing hymn No. 80 and prayer in unison. Mrs. Gowan read the Scripture. The roll call was answered by a Scripture verse beginning with the letter L. After the reading and adoption of the previous minutes several matters of business were discussed. A donation was voted to the Sunday School finances. An appeal was read for clothing to be sent to an Indian Reserve at Kettle Point. Articles donated are to be left at the Rectory this week and until Dec. 18. The next meeting is to be held at Mrs. W. G. Dixon's on Jan. 7th. Mr. Perry closed the meeting with the benediction after which the hostess served lunch.

Live Stock Market

by Dunn & Levack, Toronto

Monday's fresh supply of cattle was the lightest run for some time, comprising about 3000 head. Besides this there were about 700 cattle left unsold, which consisted mostly of common stockers.

On Monday the market opened with a good demand for choice handy-weight butchers and baby heifers, also choice steers weighing from 1100 to 1200 lbs., which sold at from 6 to 6 1/4 c; fair to good from 5 1/2 to 5 3/4 c; common and medium 4 to 5c. Choice butcher steers and heifers made from 5 to 5 1/2 c; fair to good from 4 1/4 to 5c; common and medium 3 1/2 to 4c. Choice baby heifers ranged from 7 to 8c; fair to good from 5 to 6 1/2 c. There was a limited demand for stockers and feeders. Those of selected quality sold at steady prices, but common and medium were very slow of sale and lower. Choice selected stockers sold at from 4 1/4 to 4 3/4 c., and best feeders from 4 3/4 to 5c; common and medium from 3 1/4 to 4c. The cow trade was active and higher, choice butcher cows making from 3 1/2 to 3 3/4 c; fair to good from 2 3/4 to 3.40; canners and cutters strong from 1 1/4 to 2 1/4 c. Choice butcher bulls made from 3 1/2 to 4c; choice heavies from 3 1/4 to 3.60; bolognas mostly 3c.

The lamb market displayed much activity, prices advancing on Monday to 9c for good ewes and wethers, bucks discounted $1.00. The market continued strong Tuesday, some of the best lambs making 9 1/4 c; also some fancy Christmas offerings up to 10c. All classes of sheep were in good demand, choice ewes selling at from 4 to 5c. The calf trade held active and steady, choice from 9 to 10c; fair to good from 7 to 8 1/2 c; common and medium 5 1/2 to 6 1/2 c.

Supplies of hogs were liberal and although prices were expected to advance, the market finally settled on the basis of 7.50 f.o.b. and from 7.85 to 8.00 for truck deliveries. It is expected the market will hold for the balance of the week.
