TRAVERSTON

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McClocklin are spending a few days this week with their daughters in Bentinck.

The Women's Institute met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Adam Anderson. About twenty-five ladies were in attendance. After the business part was discussed there were readings given by Mrs. W. J. Greenwood and Misses Gladys Firth and Mary McNab. Miss Mary Anderson conducted a ring contest. The members answered the roll call with a verse containing the word "Peace." Several community selections were sung. Meeting closed with Institute song. The hostess and assistants served a bountiful luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cook visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McFadden of Orange Valley and Mr. Thos. Cook of the village.

Mr. Newton Clark of Durham is assisting Mr. Herb. Timmins in getting a winters supply of wood.

Mr. Will Sweeney continues to truck logs to Hanover. He hauled some for Mr. P. Nelson this week.

Mr. Chas. Timmins and Mr. Ralph Staples are cutting wood for some of the farmers in the Edge Hill neighbourhood.

Mr. and Mrs. James Peart and daughter visited early in the week with Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Glencross.

We were sorry to learn of the illness of Mrs. Will Ellison on the 10th concession. Her mother and sister, Miss Aleda, were caring for her and we are glad to hear she is recovering.

HARKAWAY

The sad passing of Mrs. Eliot Smith of Pleasant Valley came as a distinct shock to the community. She came to this district a little over a year and a half ago and during that short period won many friends and took a very active interest in Sunday School and Church work.

Despite skilled treatment and attentive nursing she passed away in Markdale hospital on Tuesday morning, January 7th, leaving a little two-weeks' old son. The funeral service was held in Annesley Church with a very large attendance. Sincere sympathy is felt towards the sorrowing husband and parents and other members of her family in their bereavement.

Mrs. L. Johnston visited on Tuesday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLaughlin and family.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Patton were Mr. and Mrs. Foster Clark of Goring; Mr. and Mrs. Ira Madill and family; Mr. Harry Johnston of Lily Oak; Messrs. Eugene Thompson and Ernest Hodgkinson; Messrs. Walter and Gordon Henderson of Holland Centre and Mr. E. J. Heath of Brampton.

Misses Mabel Wise and Freda Binns visited on Friday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Barry and Mr. Jos. Hawken and family.

Mrs. Loyd McLaughlin spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. S. Marshall, at Walters Falls.

Sorry to report Mr. Richard Johnston under the doctor's care at time of writing. We hope to soon see him up and around again.
