C. R. Itic Still Confined to His Home

Dear Readers,—I am still under the weather with my sore knee but I am getting along fairly well. I haven't been able to get out to find out what is going on and the little woman has had to stay in to look after things. I have been able to escape carrying in the wood and doing the rest of the chores, but I am hoping to be able to get back on the job before long. I had my old friend Bill Jack of Glenelg in to see me the other day. When I was in the West last summer I saw several of his friends including his brother Sam at Winnipeg and Bill wanted to find out how they were all looking. While chatting he remarked that he thought nearly all the stores in the village must have been closed up as the only ones asking for business in the paper were Hills and Bill Mann. I'll be glad to have more of my old friends in to see me. C. R. ITIC
