Local and Other Items

Mr. J. S. Plowes' new roller mill at Shelburne has been opened.

The new tank at Markdale station is completed and has a capacity of 4000 gallons.

Markdale is to have a new drug store, a doctor and an undertaker. We may expect a boom in business.

Mr. Thos. Mathews moved to his old stand opposite the roller rink. The new druggist takes his vacated premises.

Mr. Isaac Stinson, builder, has joined the army of benedicts. We wish them both happiness in the domestic life as well as prosperity in business.

The skating race (10 laps) for $5 a side between Messrs. D. J. Shanahan and W. L. Young on the Markdale roller rink last Tuesday evening resulted in a victory for the former by half a lap.

Mr. Wm. Taylor is getting ready to erect a large brick store next door to Mr. M. Wilson's. He had a bee on Wednesday and got most of his brick hauled from Owen Sound.—Chatsworth News.

Plowing commenced a week ago at Medicine Hat.

Last Thursday B. Kennedy's woolen mills at Traverston were completely destroyed by fire. The factory was a large frame and the family lived in the upper portion of the building.

The roller rink last Thursday night, on the occasion of the masquerade carnival, was filled to overflowing. The number of masquers was large including some very fine skaters from Owen Sound, notably Misses Douglas and Tucker and Mr. Arnold. The judges were Dr. T. S. Sproule, M.P., Wm. Lucas and Thos. Hill. The list of winners is as follows: Best costume, lady, Miss Dundas; best fancy costumed lady, Miss Clapp; best gent's costume, J. E. Richards; negro costume, Mr. Stevens of Owen Sound; best lady skater, Miss Douglas of Owen Sound; boy skater under 15, Al. Sproule; girl skater under 14, Minnie Lucas; fat man, David J. Shanahan; clown, Willie McFarland; lady skater, Mrs. Hill, second; Indian costume, Chas. Richards; fastest lady and gent skaters, Russ Tucker of Owen Sound and Rudd Mathews of Markdale; boy skater under 10, Master Knapp; fastest gent skater, 20 laps, Alex. Nester.
