PROTON STATION

This community was shocked to learn of the death on Thursday last of Mary J. Wyville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wyville of this village, after only a brief illness. In this instance death was particularly sad in that hers was a useful life, sojourn here was not a lengthy one and this was the first death in the family circle. Deceased was born in Proton Station and spent the greater part of her life here. During the past six and a half years she had been in charge of the work at the Pilgrim Holiness Bible School as a public school teacher and also as a high school teacher. Previous to that time she had spent some time as public school teacher in various schools. Miss Wyville was of a very kindly disposition and will be greatly missed by all who knew her but most keenly will the loss be felt by the home circle of sorrowing parents, sisters and brothers. The funeral service was held on Sunday from the parental home with a private service there and a public service at the Pilgrim Holiness Chapel, where a very large number gathered to pay their last respects. Rev. H. B. Jackson had charge of the service and gave a very comforting message to all and spoke of the kindly, never-murmuring spirit of deceased. A very appropriate solo, "No Shadows There", was sung by Miss Myrtle Watson of Durham. The many beautiful floral tributes were silent reminders of sympathy. She is survived by her father and mother, two brothers, Walter of Lorraine, Ohio; Clark, who is a sailor on the Great Lakes but is home at present; five sisters, Mrs. V. Evers (Annie) of Toronto; Mrs. Earl Whitney (Reta) of Frances, Sask.; Mrs. Jas. Burton (Myrtle) of Toronto; Mrs. Arthur Delacour (Lillian) of Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. Ernest Lyons (Gertrude) of Proton Station. The pallbearers were cousins of the deceased namely: Messrs. Frank Montgomery, Ernest Nicholls, William Nicholls, Walter Nicholls, Albert Wyville and Gordon Wyville. The flower bearers were some of the students of the school, Messrs. Charles Plaskett, Gordon Barueston, Irwin McIntyre, Harold Hobbs, Alvin Jackson and two cousins, Arthur Wyville and Merritt Lonsway. Interment took place to Dundalk mortuary chapel. The sympathy of this community goes out to the bereaved ones.

"Life's race well run"
"Life's work well done"
"Life's crown well won"
"Now comes rest."

Mrs. Geo. Woods of Chatsworth was a visitor on Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wyville and also with other friends in the village.

Mr. Walter Wyville of Lorraine, Ohio, arrived on Saturday to attend the funeral on Sunday of his sister, Miss Mary Wyville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Burton and Mrs. V. Ewer of Toronto attended the funeral of Miss Mary Wyville on Sunday.

Mrs. Stella Wyville of Markdale was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Wyville on Saturday.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved family of Mr. Edward Rutherford, whose funeral took place on Tuesday at Flesherton.

Sorry to report Mr. Robt. White of the village quite ill. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery. Congratulations to our hockey boys who were successful in their first final hockey game with Flesherton on Monday night.

WALTERS FALLS

Messrs. Cook and Quinton were getting in a supply of ice last week for their summer requirements. Mrs. Rennie returned home on Saturday from her trip to Kingston. February 29th was celebrated by a dance in the hall held on Friday evening and continuing until early hours of the 29th. The World's Day of Prayer was fittingly observed on Friday afternoon in the United Church school room, when a nice number of women were present from the local United and Anglican congregations, Knox and Ebenezer. Mrs. R. T. Dixon was leader and Mrs. R. Speck was organist. The singing of the various program hymns was most hearty. Prayer was offered by Mesdames Wm. Shepherdson, Jas. Dixon, King, Holmes, Perry and Laycock. Misses B. Dixon and M. Marshall collected the offering. At the business part of the meeting Mrs. Holmes was chosen as leader for next year. Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. H. Stephens, Mrs. W. Henry, Mrs. King and Mrs. Morley Brown as key women, and Mrs. Rabb was appointed as secretary. Those who attended felt that a very worth while and inspiring hour was spent.

HARKAWAY

Mr. and Mrs. Will Ward and Wallace visited Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnston and family.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Kidd and Mr. M. J. Patton spent an evening recently with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLaughlin and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kirkpatrick visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Patton.

Saturday evening visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLaughlin and Marshall, Messrs. Eli Merrifield and Buster Thompson.

Miss Rose Merrifield, who spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith, returned to her parental home at Beaverdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawken and family visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rae and family and spent an evening recently with Mr. and Mrs. Will Coburn and Willis.

The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid was held on Feb. 26th at the home of Mrs. C. Rodman. Although the roads were in bad condition a goodly number of members and visitors were present. The meeting opened with the hymn, "Take the Name of Jesus with You", followed by prayer and Scripture reading of the 23rd Psalm. The minutes of the last meeting were read and the roll call answered. It was decided to answer the roll call next month with a verse. This was followed by a hymn, "There is Work to do for Jesus", and Mrs. Charles Thompson then led in prayer. Readings were given by the following: Miss E. Lyons, "Three Gates of Gold"; Miss D. Thompson, "Buy Your Own Cherries"; Mrs. W. J. Lyons, "For Grandma's Sake". A duet, "Cowboy's Dream", was sung by Misses Freda Binns and Mabel Wise. It was decided to have a Pot Luck Supper on March 17th and to have the play, "Miss Molly", which was given by the young people at Richardson's school. The doorkeepers are to be Messrs. Coburn and Rae and to make tea Mesdames Coburn and J. Rodman. The next meeting will be held in the basement of the Church. Readings are to be given by Mrs. Binns and Mrs. J. Halbert; to bring cakes, Mesdames W. Lyons, A. A. Lyons and L. Lyons; program committee, Mrs. W. Clark and Miss J. Lawson. "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me" was then sung followed by the Aid Benediction. A contest was put on and the winner was Miss D. Thompson. Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by several of the ladies.

CEYLON

Mrs. W. White and Mrs. M. Patison are about to enjoy the Hydro. Mrs. Knox was a recent visitor at Proton.

Miss Bessie Cairns has returned to her position at Markdale. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Sinclair spent Sunday in Owen Sound.

A number of the members of the Women's Institute are working at the Dresden Plate quilt which will be ready for sale shortly.

The Ladies' Aid held a Valentine Social Wednesday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. Earl McLeod when a good crowd was present. Mrs. George Udell presided for the business part of the meeting. The roll call was answered by "A description of my first Beau". Mrs. J. McMullen read a chapter from "Flowers for the Living". The program was in charge of Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. Sinclair and Mrs. Genoe and included a contest, geography match and reading. The social committee served lunch at the close of the meeting and a happy hour was spent over the tea cups and admiring Mrs. McLeod's new home.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Corbett were Miss Cora Foy of Dundalk, Messrs. Jack McCannell and Eldon Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. N. Haustrasser and Mr. and Mrs. Fernall and children.

Mr. Dave Adams had a chilling experience Saturday when the ice gave way at the mill pond of Mr. Earl McLeod when the ice-cutting was in progress and Mr. Adams went under. Mr. McLeod assisted Mr. Adams in getting out. A dip in the swimming hole at this time of the year is not just so attractive.
