

Presentations to Everett Wyville and Bride

A number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Wyville on Friday evening, Feb. 28th, to present their son and his bride with a shower of numerous and useful gifts for their new home. Miss Elda Ward read the address and Mrs. Harry Wyville and Miss Arlie Mills unwrapped the gifts and read the witty verses. The groom made a fitting reply. They were showered with confetti and all joined in singing "For they are jolly good fellows." Lunch was served and dancing was indulged in until the wee sma' hours of the morning.

Following is the address:
Dear Everett and Annie.—We, your friends and neighbors, have gathered here this evening to present to you our heartfelt congratulations and best wishes for a happy wedded life. Having entered on this very mysterious craft for better or for worse let us hope that it is for the better and that you Everett may be able to say like George did, "She's the finest bit of a lassie that ever squeezed a penny."

First, let us speak to the bride: Husbands are very hard to handle but if managed properly become very good companions. Do not spoil him in yessing him in all his desires but on the other hand add some spice in the form of argument and don't be alarmed if he spatters and fumes for they are usually that way until trained.

Now Everett, a bit of sage advice for the groom: although the same rules may be applied as are listed for your wife, let it be understood that you from now on have in your care a big responsibility. Henceforth when you meet a pretty girl on the street observe the traffic laws: stop, look, listen! Stop, for this cannot be avoided. Look, for it is an impossibility to do otherwise. But listen to the ever present voice of your life-long partner.

But to put our sincerest good wishes into words we ask you to accept these gifts as a token of respect and esteem.

Signed on behalf of the friends and neighbors: Arlie Mills, Eupheme Hodgson, Elda Ward.

On Tuesday evening, Feb. 25th, friends and neighbors to the number of one hundred gathered at the home of Mr. John Fitzsimmons to present to their daughter who was married recently with a shower of most useful and beautiful gifts. Messrs. Earl Kirkpatrick, Bill Lemon and Cecil Williamson unwrapped the parcels while Mrs. Cecil Williamson read the witty verses. After the reply of the bride and groom they were showered with confetti and all sang "For they are jolly good fellows." Lunch was served and card playing and dancing were enjoyed for some time.

The address follows:
Dear Everett and Annie.—After hearing of your recent nuptials, we your friends and neighbors of Goring decided to spend an evening with you.

First of all we congratulate you most heartily and wish you all possible joy and happiness in your matrimonial career.

You both have given willingly of your time and talent in all community functions.

We are glad to know that you are making your future home here among us. We have enjoyed your acquaintance and hope that we may become great neighbors.

As a slight remembrance we ask you to accept this shower of gifts and trust that they may bring showers of blessings.

Signed on behalf of the friends: Cecil Williamson, Willie Lemon.

HOLLAND CENTRE

March came in like a lamb so we can prepare for the lion to follow. Some four or five of our farmers had their telephones re-connected last week after having been cut off for some time.

Mrs. Robt. Harper and Mr. Clarence Callahan attended the funeral of their cousin, the late Mr. Martin, at Desboro on Wednesday last.

Mrs. Gordon Foster had the misfortune to fall in the kitchen at her home and fracture her wrist. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. John Gawley is spending a few days with friends at Berkeley.

We are glad to note Mrs. Carson Price much improved after her recent illness although still confined to her home.

Quite a number around the village received nasty falls last week due to the sleet and ice which formed after rain and thaw.

Rev. Mr. Davis of Chatsworth spent an afternoon recently with Mr. and Mrs. John Farley and also made a few other calls.

Mr. Harvey Cook is busy drawing logs to Owen Sound for Mr. Wilfred Meyers.

Some of our local weather prophets are predicting a rough March. Here's hoping it's not like the month of February.

Miss Phyllis Rutledge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Rutledge of this place, celebrated her first birthday on Saturday last. She was born February 29, 1932.

Quite a number from here attended the auction sale at Chatsworth last week. Mr. Wilbert Sutcliffe purchased a heavy horse for his farm work.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kirktown of Priceville spent Sunday with friends in and around the village.

We are sorry to note Mrs. James Dixon not so well at time of writing.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stafford of Berkeley spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Hampton sr.

Miss Bella Kennedy of Ceylon visited on Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Rutledge.

The Ladies' Aid held their regular meeting on Thursday afternoon last in the parsonage. Mrs. George Hampton, Vice-President, was in control. The inclement weather and slippery roads marred the attendance though not the proceedings. The roll call response word was "Life". Next month's will be "Risen". Readings were given by Mesdames Wellerman and G. Hampton. Arrangements are to be made for an Irish stew repast on St. Patrick's natal day. The next regular meeting is also scheduled for the parsonage. Lunch was served at the close of the meeting.

Rev. W. G. Wakefield occupied the pulpit of the Flesherton United Church on Sunday in the absence of the pastor through illness.

EUGENIA

There was a radio installed in the Church on Sunday to listen in while the new King, Edward VIII, delivered a message to the people of the British Empire. The King spoke in high terms of his late father, and as his successor would continue to promote the well-being of his subjects. He closed his 10-minute address by expressing hope for peace and social justice in the world and best wishes for prosperity and happiness for the British people. After the radio broadcast of the King's address Mr. Bushell delivered a fine sermon. Thanks to Mr. Ernie Proctor, who kindly loaned his radio so the church attendance could hear the message.

The Y. P. S. met on Wednesday evening of last week. Owing to the nasty weather there was a small attendance. Miss Annieta Turner, the literary convenor, presided. Scripture passages were read by Miss Carmelle Martin and Miss Evelyn Campbell. The worship period was taken by Mrs. C. Martin and the discussion topic, "What Now?" was taken by Miss Annieta Turner. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Miss Ida Benson and approved. Miss Winneta Martin, who is assistant secretary, acted in the absence of the secretary. Miss Marjorie Benson. Mr. Ross Smith was appointed as citizenship convenor in the stead of Mr. Fred. Winfield, who has returned home to Galt. The meeting was closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

The Women's Association of the United Church met at the home of Mrs. G. C. Graham on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 27th, with 15 in attendance. After the singing of a hymn and the repeating of the Lord's prayer in unison the roll call was answered by a Valentine verse. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Business re-finance, caretaking, etc., were discussed. Letters of appreciation for letters of sympathy were read from Mrs. C. Boyce and Mrs. Badgerow. A letter was read from Mrs. Fred. Legard re Presbyterian organization. The captains of units are to report their three months work at the next meeting. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. W. Graham and the roll call is to be answered by an Irish saying or joke, etc. A presentation of ten dollars was made by the members of the Association to Miss Muriel Carruthers for her efficient work as organist in the church. The meeting was closed in prayer. Mrs. L. Genoe acted as president in the absence of Mrs. Garnet Magee. After the meeting a short program followed which consisted of two instrumentals by Miss I. Dinmore and Miss Marge Park on the violin accompanied by Mrs. G. C. Graham on the organ. A contest on "Places in Ontario" by Mrs. John Campbell was won by Mrs. Lewis Genoe and Mrs. C. Martin each receiving a dainty little prize. Lunch was then served.

Mr. John J. Benson of Western Canada is visiting relatives in this community at present.

Pleased to report Mrs. Garnet Magee able to be out again after her illness and Mrs. Latimer improving a little in her condition.
