KIMBERLEY

The W. A. of the United Church held their March meeting at the home of Mrs. T. Soule with an attendance of 17. The President, Miss Haines, was in the chair. Considerable business was transacted and it was decided to invite the Epping people to put on a play on March 13th in the Church. After the closing of the meeting a ten-cent tea was partaken of. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Wickens, Mrs. A. E. Myles, Miss Myrtle Stafford and Mrs. Burritt. Proceeds of tea $2.10.

Mrs. Stan. Lawrence and son are spending a few days in Thornbury.

Mrs. A. E. Myles and Mr. Ted Myles, accompanied by Mrs. Laurie Lawrence, Mrs. J. Green and Mr. G. Green of Heathcote spent a week-end in Toronto.

The Epping play entitled "Aaron Slick of Pumpkin Creek", was put on in the Church on March 13th, and enjoyed by a good crowd that gathered to hear it. Proceeds $20.50.

TRAVERTON

Recent visitors at the Edwards home were Miss S. E. MacLean and brother, Gordon, of Aberdeen and W. H. Edwards of Toronto.

Mr. R. T. Cook and Mrs. W. J. Greenwood assisted some nights last week in caring for their uncle, Mr. Thos. Cook sr. during his last illness at the home of Mrs. Hutchinson in Markdale. He passed away Tuesday at 3 a.m. He was a former resident of the 6th con. of Glenelg.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McClocklin spent a few days recently with their daughter, Mrs. Frank Twamley, who is ill at her home in Bentinck.

Mrs. W. A. Robinson has been ill during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cosgrove of Scriber are moving to the John McCarthy farm on the 10th concession.

Mrs. Hugh McArthur received the news the latter part of the week that her brother, Mr. Stewart McNally, of High River had been suffering an attack of typhoid fever the past five weeks. He was moved to the hospital in High River the last week to receive medical attention. Stewart was a former neighbour for several years and we were sorry to learn of his illness. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. O. D. Peart and Mr. Waudby Baker had buzz bees on Saturday and got fine piles of wood sawed.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D'Arcy and family of the Canadian West arrived in Glenelg a couple of weeks ago and are visiting among kindred in the township.

Word has just been received announcing the death of Mrs. John McArthur this Tuesday a.m. at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Cook, in Detroit. The remains are coming Wednesday by train to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan. McArthur in Durham, from whose home the funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon to Durham cemetery. Mrs. McArthur was a resident of the 10th con. of Glenelg for many years, a woman highly respected by all who knew her. She leaves a family of three to mourn her loss, namely: Will, Donald and Jean. We extend sympathy to the sorrowing relatives.

The Zion Women's Institute met on Wednesday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. Hugh McArthur with over thirty in attendance. The meeting opened in the usual way with Mrs. H. Allen, the president, in the chair. A vote was taken to spend some of the money by purchasing grass seed for Zion cemetery and giving a donation in linen to each of the local hospitals. Myrtle Glencross read a paper on "Costume Planning". Mrs. Gordon Riddell gave some helps on mending and patching. Mrs. T. A. Glencross gave a demonstration on mats and had two very fine ones on display. Mrs. H. C. Ritchie contributed a reading. Several articles made during the winter months were displayed in answer to the roll call. The hostess and assistants served a tasty luncheon at the close of the meeting. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. J. Peart.

Miss Gladys Firth spent the past week visiting with Egremont and Durham friends.

The Agricultural Board held their March meeting at the home of the President, Mr. M. Cook, last Wednesday.

Mrs. E. W. Quinton entertained the Anglican Ladies' Guild at their March meeting last Wednesday afternoon when ten members and two visitors were present. The President occupied the chair and the meeting was opened by singing hymn No. 766 and prayer by the President. Mrs. Holmes read the Scripture lesson.

The roll call was answered by a verse of Scripture beginning with M. After reading and adoption of the minutes the business of some accounts were passed. The Sunshine Committee reported some visits to the sick. Mrs. Stephens was in charge of the program and Mrs. H. Seabrook and Mrs. Holmes read some poetry and a green contest of ten questions was won by Mrs. Laycock. A quilt is to be started at the next meeting at Mrs. Dixon's. The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. W. I. Seabrook after which the hostess served lunch assisted by Mrs. Gowan.

Our oldest citizen was called to pass over very suddenly last Friday morning in the person of Mr. David Brown, when he was returning from getting some water at his next door neighbor's, Mr. E. Walter. Mr. Brown had passed his 85th birthday on Feb. 29th and had lived in our village over sixty years engaged in the woollen mill business. Some years ago considerable weaving of flannel, carpet and blankets was manufactured in the mill but of recent years only yarn and socks were made. Mr. Brown was of a retiring disposition but well read in the current events of the day, and has been very active for his age. He and Mrs. Brown celebrated their 62nd wedding anniversary on Wednesday, March 11th. The funeral was held on Monday to the United Church burial ground and was in charge of his pastor, Rev. Mr. Wright, who preached a very comforting sermon at the house, where many friends were gathered. The floral tributes were very beautiful. The pallbearers were Messrs. M. Dickie, W. Ward, R. Templar, D. Carmichael, M. and D. Strain. Mrs. Brown and daughter, Mrs. R. H. Olmstead, and son, Mr. P. Brown of Welland, have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

Miss Jessie Wales has returned home from Bognor.

Mrs. R. H. Olmstead was called home on Friday from Burford where she was visiting her daughter. Mr. Templar accompanied her and remained until after the funeral.
