

In Days of Yore

(Continued from page two)

Report of S. S. No. 14, Euphrasia V—Charlie Fothergill.

IV—Adam Graham, Beckie Manarey.

III—M. A. Wilson, S. M. Boyle, Fernetta Leopard, Emma Lewis, Laura Bowler, S. C. Erskine, T. Hodgkinson, Elsie Graham.

Sr. II—E. M. Manarey, Andrew Manarey, Sadie Wright, Johnnie Miller, Luseta Wilson, A. Hodgkinson, Maggie Marshall, S. Cowan.

Jr. II—S. Wright, Stanley Fothergill, G. Hodgkinson, Herb Marshall, Nettie Johnston, Roy Bowler.

Pt. II—Jimmie Lepard, Katie Boyle, Nettie Graham, Hugh Miller, Lettie Marshall.

Pt. I—Bobbie Kearney, Mary Marshall, M. Hodgkinson, Ernest Boyle, Emma Wilson.

S. J. Hall, teacher

Sth Line, Osprey

Messrs. Jas. Inkster and A. McCallum have erected a shingle mill on the fourth line.

Mr. Peter Somers is laying in a stock of ice to tide him over the heated term.

Miss Mary Madden of Dundalk visited her parents last week.

Miss Lizzie Madden returned to Toronto two weeks ago.

Flesherton

There was a big attendance at the masquerade carnival on the skating rink here Wednesday evening of last week. In addition to prize winners we note some of the most attractive costumes which adorned the ice:

Miss Bell Gjerdrum, day; and Miss Clara Strain, night; Miss Mabel Munshaw, Red Ridinghood; Miss Gertie Keefer, stars and stripes; Miss Bertha Crosby, flower girl; Miss Hattie Sullivan, good luck; Miss Wilda Crosley, fairy queen; Miss G. Yanzant, old gardener; Miss Maud Smith, queen of hearts; Mrs. R. N. Henderson, Russian dancer; Miss Carrie Sullivan, night; Miss Jeanet Gibson and Miss Flera Richardson, Highland lassies; Miss Millie Vandusen, excelled as Mary Queen of Scots; Mr. D. Oswald and Miss Christina Richardson as Uncle Sam and Miss Canada respectively; Mr. Phil Barnhouse and Miss Lyd Smith as Indian Chief and wife; Mr. Charlie Munshaw appeared as "Keep off the grass"; Mr. Will Stewart as clown. The following were prize winners: 2-mile race for outsiders, D. McLeod, Collingwood; 1½-mile local race, not settled yet between Bert Armstrong and R. Thompson; barrel race, Geo. Cairns; best lady and gent skater, Thos. and Miss E. Swallow, Durham; best lady skater, Miss N. Swallow, Durham; best girl skater under 16, Miss Emma Swallow, Durham; best gent's costume, Mr. D. Oswald, Uncle Sam; best lady's costume, Miss Ethel Crosby, spring; comic boy, Geo. Richardson. Judges—Mr. C. Borne, Durham; Mr. A. Calhoun, Dundalk, and Mr. D. McTavish, Flesherton.

Priceville

Mr. J. D. Brown, our enterprising merchant, has been booting scores of people daily from his enormous stock, with good results.

Mr. John McArthur, merchant, was in Owen Sound last week on business.

Our worthy pedagogue, Mr. J. W. Blakestone, is becoming quite a land owner. He has lately purchased from Mr. Neil McKinnon the eight-acre lot on University Street, adjoining his other property.

Our assistant teacher, Miss BuH, visited at her parental home in Durham on Sunday.

Misses Mary A. and Sarah McMillan of Buffalo are home on a visit.

We are pleased to see Mr. Wesley Henderson home again hale and hearty after spending the winter in Algoma.

Walters Falls

It is our painful duty this week to chronicle the death of Mrs. H. J. McLennan, which took place on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock after a brief illness. She leaves a husband and two small children to mourn her loss.

Mr. Guy and Miss Percy Williams of Meaford visited Mr. Jos. Taylor's on Sunday. Miss Amy Williams returned home with them.

Mr. John W. Speck moves out to his model farm on Tuesday.

Holland Centre

Mr. Wm. Crowther has sold his shop to E. Bell, wagon maker of this place, who has engaged a Mr. Bailey of Owen Sound to manage the business. Mr. Crowther moved to Owen Sound, where he has rented a shop and will continue in business.

Mr. George Hartman and family have moved to our burg.

Miss Croaker of Chatsworth visited Miss Husband on Sunday.

The death of Mr. Stewart Doyle on Tuesday was a severe shock to all. He and his two sons, William and Charlie, were sawing wood in the bush when Mr. Doyle suddenly fell back unconscious and died before a doctor could reach him. He leaves to mourn his death, his wife, one daughter and four sons. Interment took place in Berkeley Presbyterian cemetery.

30 YEARS AGO—March 22nd, 1906

Local and General

Mr. Archie MacFie left on Monday for his home at Nottawa.

Miss Blanche Macpherson left on Monday on an extended visit with friends at Amherstburg and other places.

Mr. J. B. Waite, who has held an important position in McFarland, Stafford & Co.'s mercantile establishment here for five years, has accepted a position as manager of the Oak Hall store in Meaford. Mr. Waite is a man of sterling worth and is deservedly popular both in business and social circles.

A. E. Guest has purchased Mr. Dorcey's blacksmith business at Holland Centre.

Orangeville's new firm of general merchants, F. T. Hill & Co., will make their bow to the buying public of town and surrounding country next week. The firm will do business in the store formerly occupied by Marshall, Green & Co.—Orangeville Banner.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Muxlow celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage on Friday, March 9, and were the recipients of many congratulations and valuable presents on the occasion. Among the gifts was a gold-headed cane and a brooch from their great-grandson, Master John Muxlow, son of Mr. Fred. Muxlow of Meaford.

Markdale's Five Hockey Teams

Perhaps no other town in the province, the size of Markdale, can boast of five distinct hockey teams, but this is the record here this winter and they are all winners. The seniors are a strong bunch and have played some great games this season; out of nine games they have won six and have scored 74 goals to their opponents 40. The scrub team have not played any outside teams yet but are open to challenge Flesherton for the Bartley pitcher or Holland Centre for the championship of Holland. The intermediates defeated Flesherton's senior team in Flesherton on Friday last by 11-12. On Saturday our juniors defeated the Flesherton juniors here by 9-1 and the same night the juveniles went to Flesherton and defeated the youngsters of that place 7-5.

The teams are as follows:
Seniors: C. Treford, D. Mercer, W. Hill, W. Buraside, W. Fitchett, P. Kelley, and A. Littlejohns.
Scrubs: C. King, G. McMalkin, J. Kehey, J. W. Tucker, L. Munshaw, T. Plewes and C. Haskett.
Intermediates: J. Dillon, A. Dillon, W. Bowers, S. Varty, M. Kelley, M. Haskett and H. Lucas.

Priceville

Mr. Carmichael was able to resume his duties as principal of the public school again last week.

Miss Kate McKinnon has been spending her holidays at her home here and among friends in the vicinity. She has been employed for the past season as inspector of silverware for a large manufacturing firm at Niagara Falls, N.Y.

On the 28th of February a large company of neighbors and friends met at the home of Neil McCannel Esq., County Commissioner. Mr. D. McDonald, teacher, read an address on behalf of the neighborhood, also an address from the members of St. Colomba Presbyterian Church was read by the pastor, Rev. J. A. Matheson. Mr. and Mrs. McCannel were presented with a fine parlor suite and Mrs. McCannel sr. with an easy chair. Mr. McCannel is retiring from the farm and will live in Durham.

On Friday, March 16, death again visited this village and M. Reley, one of our much esteemed businessmen, has passed from our midst. Deceased was born in Ireland 62 years ago and after learning the blacksmith trade came as a young man to Canada. About thirty years ago he and his family became residents of this village. The family left to mourn consists of a wife, three sons, Robert in Nelson, B.C.; Francis and William at home, also one daughter, Miss Maude, at home.

Victoria Corners

Mr. Robt. Hannah of Portlaw spent Sunday with Mr. Frank Renzie.

Mr. and Miss Hooper of Eugenia visited last Wednesday with Mr. W. H. Heard.

Mr. Chas. and Miss Mamie Moore spent Sunday with friends in Holland Centre.

Messrs. Will and Geo. Strain are busy putting in a stock of last timber at their mill near Maxwell.

Rocklyn

Mr. H. Hubbard and little daughters, Mary and Hazel, of Meaford visited the former's mother at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Crabtree.

A large company met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Dunlop of Temple Hill to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Sturgeon, who are leaving shortly to reside in the suburbs of Markdale. Mr. Sturgeon was presented with a handsome chair, Mrs. Sturgeon with a couch and little Beatrice with a pretty muff.

Eugenia

Mr. James Purvis of Toronto is visiting at the old home at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Scilly of Maxwell visited the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Hogg.

Mrs. Stewart sr. of Flesherton is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Williams.

Mrs. T. W. Wilson of Flesherton was visiting her many friends at Eugenia last week.

A number of Master Elwood Purvis' school mates met at his home one evening last week and presented him with a handsome fountain pen and an address prior to his leaving Eugenia. All were entertained with games and a taffy pull.

The Manitoba fever is again claiming a number of our young men. Mr. Ed. Legard, Mr. Fred. Duckett, Mr. Finley Hoy, Mr. Garnet McGee are starting this week.

Vandeleur

Mr. and Mrs. John Boland spent Sunday with friends at Wodehouse.

Mrs. D. Heathers and Miss S. Summers were the guests of Mrs. W. Alcock's one day last week.

Master Dane and Miss Della McGee were the guests of Masters Otto and Harold Baker one evening last week.

Kimberley

Mrs. Hurd is visiting friends at Sturgeon Falls.

Mr. Leslie Hewson of Heathcote was a caller in our burg one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bishop visited Thornbury and Clarksburg friends last week.

Mrs. McGee of Tillsonburg is visiting her brother, Mr. P. Harris, of the suburbs.

Messrs. John Stuart of Powassan, George of Flesherton and Jasper of this place left last week for Parry Sound District on a prospecting tour.

Mrs. S. S. Burrett and children, Nellie and Annie, are spending a few days visiting friends near Thornbury and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Knott.

Mr. Victor Armstrong of Heathcote and Misses Maggie Fawcett and Abbie McMullen of Flesherton were the guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Stuart.

We are sorry to report the rather sudden and unexpected death of Mrs. Sam. McClung, which occurred at her home near Heathcote on Wednesday evening last. Deceased's maiden name was Miss Jane Smart and she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smart of the suburbs.

Holland Centre

Miss N. Johnston left on Saturday for Arthur.

Miss Hopkins of Chatsworth spent a few days this week with Miss Williams.

Miss Hughes of Chatsworth spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Wm.

GOOD Used Cars

See our large stock of cars priced from $15.00 to $800.00

All makes, models and years

TOM'S GARAGE

OWEN SOUND, ONTARIO

Jackson. Mr. and Miss Moore of Proton visited over Sunday at the home of Mr. E. Williams.

Vandeleur

Mr. Ezra Pritchard returned home Wednesday after having spent a couple of weeks at Rocklyn.

Mrs. Alex. Carson and Mrs. Robt. Warling of Priceville spent a couple of days last week with friends here.

Walters Falls

Mrs. Hewson of Heathcote is visiting friends here.

Mr. Pickles spent a couple of days in Owen Sound last week.

Mrs. Marshall of Owen Sound visited with her son, Mr. Sam. Marshall. Mr. George and Miss Lettie Shepherdson spent Sunday with friends in Sullivan.

Berkeley

John and Thomas Dever are visiting friends in Proton township.

Wm. Walker of Mount Pleasant has rented W. H. Reid's farm and Mr. Reid has moved to St. Vincent.

We have been informed that Jas. Bradley has sold his farm, lot 71 on the gravel road to Mr. Bailey of St. Vincent.

Frank Dowling has purchased W. J. Gibson's farm on the West Backline, giving a house and lot in Markdale as part payment.

Traverston

Grandma Edwards left on Thursday of last week to visit her daughter, Mrs. David McFarlane, at Caledon.

Mrs. Frank Mullen of Tottenham is visiting with her mother, Mrs. John Delaney.

Miss Allie Davis, who is learning the dressmaking art with Miss Hughes of town, spent the first of the week at the cosy home here.

Mr. Johnnie Beaton left last week for Saskatoon to take up land and will later be joined by Mrs. Beaton and family.

Mr. John Meagher has rented Mr. John Beaton's farm for a term of years.

Flesherton

Miss Nellie Boggs has returned from visiting friends at Guelph and Alton.

Miss Matheson of Shelburne spent Sunday with Misses Munshaw.

Miss May Henderson has returned from the city to learn the milliner's art at Boyd, Hickling & Co.'s.

Mr. David Dow of this place has bought his brother's farm on the Durham Road and is moving to it.

Mr. Robt. Blackburn and sister, Miss May, visited friends at Collingwood and Creemore last week.

Dr. E. F. Armstrong is giving up dental practice here and leaving this week for Cobalt.

Miss Charlotta Rowe of Dundalk is the guest of Mrs. Hickling. Miss Rowe gave a well rendered solo in the Methodist Church on Sunday evening.

Messrs. Will Thompson, Portlaw, and Robt. Henderson, near Wareham, left last week for Milestone, Sask., to again enter upon homestead duties on their land.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kerr of Mount Zion neighborhood are retiring from the farm and moving to this place. Mrs. Kerr has purchased the residence on Collingwood street being vacated by Mr. Dow and Mr. Kerr has bought the McQuay cottage near the Methodist Church which they will occupy.

Mr. W. J. Douglas has disposed of his drug business at Medical Hall to his brother, Herbert L., of Burk's Falls, who took possession last week. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas, whom we welcome to town, are moving to the residence occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Wellet, who will move to the cottage occupied by Miss Bellamy on Toronto street.

Only a few cents a DAY

"Yes, that's what I work for, and I'm the most willing worker you ever hired!"

"Every hour of the day, seven days a week, I'm at your service, ready to run your errands, keep you in touch with friends, protect you against all kinds of emergencies."

"Give me a chance to prove my worth; you'll never want to be without me again."

HAVE YOU A TELEPHONE IN YOUR HOME?

Our local business office will gladly supply information.

