A very unusual thing happened on Tuesday afternoon in the village. About six o'clock in the evening as Mr. Wilmot Caswell was splitting wood at his home a fish, which resembled a sucker without scales, fell from the sky at his feet. The fish measured ten inches over-all in length and is quite a nice species.

Mr. Caswell at the time could not see any bird passing over yet it is thought that is where it came from although it did not have any marks on it.
